CARD OF THANKS
As a climax to sixty years of happy married life, which Our God has seen fit to give us, the Reception in the Christian Church last Sunday afternoon, would have to be one of the most enjoyable and appreciated events of our lives. We wish to thank all of our good friends who attended or sent cards as well as all who had any part in the Program, or the social hour in the Recreation rooms afterwards, all of which contributed so much to make the event so memorable. May God Bless all of you.
With Love,
