DETROIT IDANHA

By Boots Champion

Henry Hiebert and Rev. Harold Roth of Idanha and Mike Adams and several friends from the Stayton area made a trip with five snow-mobiles into the Blowout area Monday. The group traveled some 50 miles into the winter wonderland. Apparently the main reason for the tour was to inspect logging equipment left at operations sites. Hiebert said in some places the snow was estimated to be at least 20 feet deep.

Mrs. Wayne Crist and daughter, Cathy, returned home Saturday after visiting with relatives and friends in San Diego.

Bill Waters formerly of Detroit and Mill City has leased the Riverview Cafe at Me-hama. He has only the dining section of the business. Cris King still has the lounge.

A Thursday to Sunday skip day trip to Ocean Shores, Wn., is scheduled for this week for Detroit school seniors. Chaperoning the group will be Mrs. Lynn Williamson, Mrs. Howard Drago and Mrs. Lee Hopson, Jr.

Accompanying Mrs. Sam Lefler home from a visit in California were her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Barker and children of Hayward, Calif. The Barkers plan to visit here for a week.

Terry Dean of Corvallis was an area visitor Sunday. He recently completed service in the armed forces and is now working in the woods at Corvallis. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dean, formerly of Detroit, and now residing in Corvallis.

Visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Dummer and family in Dayton Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Jules Hills and family of Detroit. Other guests were Mrs. Gordon Hill and Mrs. Pauline Humphreys also of Detroit. To Canyonites where snow is still part of the daily scene, the valley is a real treat with spring flowers much in evidence.

Mabel Poncia returned home following a few day's visit with relatives at Woodland, Wn. Saturday evening she attended the wedding of her grand niece at Centralia, Wn.

College students home for Spring vacation are Christine Rogers, Larry Smith, Ron Thomasson, Judy Roth, Laura Storey, George Maki and Vincent Drago. Miss Roth, who came home last Tuesday, left Monday for campus at N. W. Nazarene college at Nampa, Idaho. The other students will return to their colleges the last of this month. While on spring vacation here some of the students worked to help out with college expenses.
