Warren Goffin Gives Stork an Assist on Pre-Easter Arrival

An Easter bundle arrived early and unexpected on Saturday morning April 5 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Goffin.

Mrs. Goffin had just told her husband that their baby might just be an Easter present for themselves and their three children when she suddenly realized that the arrival would be sooner than anticipated. In fact about that time things became a little hectic around the Goffin household with Mr. Goffin assisting the little boy into the world at 6:05 A. M.

Dr. John Reid of Mill City was called and came down to "finish up the job" although Mr. Goffin had remained quite calm throughout the ordeal. In fact Mrs. Goffin said he wasn't as excited as she was. Dr. Reid has not been doing any obstetric work for some 15 years so Mrs. Goffin's physician was in Stayton.

Following the baby's arrival both he and the mother were taken to Santiam Memorial hospital by ambulance where they stayed for two days. Both are now at home and doing fine.

The new arrival, Chad David, had two brothers, Russell and Darin and a sister, Anita. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. George Schlies of rural Aumsville and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Goffin of rural Jefferson.

Mrs. Goffin is employed at Detroit Ranger station and he is employed in the logging industry.

Honors Conferred Recently on Santiam Grange Members

LYONS—Allen Moore from Hood River, State Agriculture Chairman, was the guest speaker at the meeting of Santiam Valley Grange Friday night, April 4. He talked on "Family Farming". He stressed the fact that proper planning and good management was important to good crops. Mr. Moore was introduced by Lloyd Sletto agriculture chairman of Santiam Valley. Mrs. Moore was presented with a corsage honoring their 21st wedding anniversary. Alberta McElroy district Home Economics Chairman was also present and urged every lady to bring exhibits to State Grange: Canning, Jelly, Handy Craft and Needle craft. She represents Linn, Lane, Lincoln, Benton, Marion and Polk Counties.

Recognition was given Mrs. Georgia Hays for her reports, all in on time, also recognition for Booster Night program, and for National Grange lectures. She was first in the State and 4th in the nation. Mrs. Hays also received grange lecturers performance award for active service in the duties of office as lecturer.

Third and fourth degrees were conferred at Crowfoot grange and May 24 Pomona Grange will put on the fifth degree at Santiam Valley Grange. Morning Star made their visitation to Santiam Valley and also presented the program. Guests were present from Hood River, Morning Star, Scio, Charity, Lacombe, Crowfoot, Holly, Silverton and Stayton.
