Voice Across the Sea Welcomed at Shelton Family Gathering

Sp/4 Haman E. (Butch) Shelton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Haman J. Shelton, stationed at Dong Tam, Vietnam in the Mekong Delta, called home while on his R and R, spending his six-day leave in Sydney, Australia, and returning to Vietnam on April 30 for the balance of his six-month period of overseas service.

This was a thrilling experience for the Jordan area, where this young serviceman is extremely popular. He called in the afternoon telling them that he would again call back in the evening to visit, via 8,000 miles of distance with his folks and friends.

On that evening, a gathering at the home of his parents, Haman and Margie Shelton, awaited the welcome call which arrived at 8:30, with guests having the opportunity of expressing a "hello" and best wishes to their "Butch" across the sea. Invited for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Stavang and Miss Jeanette Silbermugel with the other members of his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Phyl Knight have returned from Moscow, Idaho where they greeted their first great-grandson. The little boy was born April 23 and weighed 8 pounds 4 1/2 ounces. He has been named Ryan Scott and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Wisser. Other grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Howard L. Wood and Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Wisser of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Budlong and Boots Higdon spent Sunday in Eugene where they visited their daughter, Mrs. Mike Glover.

Mrs. Al Yankus said Monday that they had a phone call from their son Alan Yankus Saturday saying he was getting along fine following knee surgery performed earlier in the week. Alan is a freshman at Stanford University and will be back in classes next week.

Betty Bostwick has returned home following a visit with her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Bostwick at Livermore, Calif. She said she had a wonderful time and celebrated her birthday while there.

Clyde Phillips' Return from Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Phillips returned to their home April 29 from a trip to Southern California where they visited relatives and friends. They left Mill City April 4.

In San Diego they visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Rod Hansen, Dossie and Patrick and a number of friends including Mr. and Mrs. William McClintock, Patty, Mark and Sue.

While in San Diego the Electric Organ club, which Mrs. Phillips is a former member, gave a dinner in their honor with 20 present.

The Trailer club which they are former members of gave a dinner party in their honor at a Mobile Home recreation club with 62 attending.

At Temple City they visited their other daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bucich and three children. At Santa Anna they visited a sister of Mrs. Phillips and at Oxnard a brother of Mr. Phillips. A niece was visited at Castro Valley.

At Sacramento they were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Chudzinski, former residents of Mill City.

Mrs. Phillips said the ice plants were in full bloom and especially beautiful this year. Also the wild flowers along the roadside were in full bloom, but Mill City looked better to them and they were glad to be home.
