Reminiscing

By Goldie Rambo

Summer does not officially arrive until Saturday, but with the temperature in the 90's the last two days dates don't mean a thing. After our long, snowy winter we shouldn't complain about a little heat—but guess it's human nature.

We got our fall and winter "Wish book" on Monday and think that is really what hurried the season along. That's like getting the spring sale book the day after Christmas—after buying all those expensive winter items. Of course with the kids in the strawberry fields and canneries, they are starting to think about what to buy with their money—and wherever they purchase their clothes, etc.—most of them at least look at the catalogs.

Our Boss is certainly getting out of a lot of work around here—he couldn't possibly have planned it that way? ? ? ? With our Salem section last week, 4th of July busy time and the start of our subscription campaign this week—we in the print shop just wave in hurrying from one spot to the other.

By the way—we are having a lot of youngsters that will be out hustling to get subscriptions to The Enterprise, both new and renewal—and even though you are "paid up" it will help them for you to get on the list for another year—besides with all the rising costs, who knows what next year will bring.

Don't forget the Queen's coronation this Friday—starting at the Grade school gym at 7:30. The 4th of July princesses have put a lot of time and effort in getting ready for their appearance and talent numbers. It is a lot of fun (to me) to watch these young people and I am always amazed at the really good performance they put on. Many of them will say, "Oh, I don't know how to do anything", but they manage to find some perhaps hidden talent and provide a good evenings entertainment as well as a crown for the lucky one. But win or lose—none of them really LOSE as it helps give each and every one confidence in themselves—which is important.

The bride is the former Pat Tuthill of Oregon City where the couple live. Mr. Baughman is employed as a physical therapist in Portland.

The couple will be greeting their guests from 2 until 5 p. m. and friends of Kirt in this area are invited to call and see him again and meet his wife.
