Dave Barnhardt's Take Scenic Drive

GATES—Mr. and Mrs. Dave Barnhardt and daughters drove to Canyon City last weekend where they toured the A Bar L Hereford ranch. The ranch was preparing for an auction of their livestock the following day, the owner, Larry Williams having been killed earlier in the fall in a light plane wreck.

The Barnhardt's were taken on a tour of the cattle pens. The Williams ranch is famous for their breeding stock and this was the last chance to see this magnificent herd intact.

After the ranch tour the Barnhardt's went south to the junction with the historic old Post road, that goes through Ize and junctions with the Crooked River highway at Paulina. This town was named for the intrepid Piute chief. The Crooked River highway is just a relocation and improvement of the old Post road. The Post road is famous in the chronicles of early Central Oregon history and was the main east-west road. There are still a few old landmarks remaining of the era when the stage coaches traveled this road. They came home through Primeville.

Ellen Howell Marries Larry William Allen

The First Christian Church in Mill City was the setting for the wedding of Miss Ellen Lucille Howell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Howell of Gates to Mr. Larry William Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Allen of Salem.

The church was decorated with yellow and white daisies and the Rev. Charles Fultz performed the September 27th ceremony which was held at 6 o'clock in the evening.

Organist for the wedding music was Nathan Bond, cousin of the bride.

For her wedding the bride selected a floor length gown of white satin made bouffant style with a shoulder length veil. The long sleeves had lace inserts and the sabrina neckline was trimmed with lace. Her bouquet was made of white and yellow daisies.

Mr. Howell escorted his daughter to the altar and her matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. R. C. Sibley. She wore a pale yellow sheath dress and her bouquet was of yellow daisies.

Bridesmaid was another sister, Karen Howell who was gowned identically to that of the honor attendant.

Best man for the groom was Butch Kelinski and ushers were Norman Wenzel and Don Walczak.

Junior attendants were Patti Howell and Gayle Allen, wearing yellow gowns and carrying bouquets of white daisies.

For her daughters wedding Mrs. Howell selected a gold toned dress with brown accessories and she wore a white carnation corsage.

The bridegrooms mother wore a blue suit with black accessories and her corsage was also white carnations.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the Church social room with the bride's colors of white and yellow used for the decorations.

Cutting the bride's cake was

Mrs. Jerry Johnson with Mrs. John Cupps and Sonja Martin, pouring. They were assisted by Linda Long, Starla Neal, Nancy Harris, Nancy Neal, Becky Whigham, Lisa Gabriel, Mrs. L. B. Plotts, Jr. and Mrs. William Shephard.

For the wedding trip to the coast the bride donned a white shift dress with yellow accessories.

The couple now make their home in Mill City where she is employed as a beautician and he works for Green Veneer at Idanha.

You're never farther from town than your telephone

It wasn't too many years ago that farm families felt mighty isolated with the nearest neighbor a mile or so away. But not today. Thanks to the telephone, you're seconds away from any neighbor or from town. And modern families have telephones in farm buildings. Call your telephone business office and find out how little complete telephone convenience costs.
