Cooks at Mari-Linn Observe National Hot Lunch Week

LYONS — The cooks at Mari-Linn school, Mabel Downing and Donna Asmussen are cooperating with other cooks throughout the nation in observing National Lunch Week. The women said they wished to stress the fact that hot school lunches were not only a good economical investment but a good buy nutritionally.

They feel that school lunches help teach youngsters to eat a variety of foods that they sometimes "resist" at home.

On Wednesday, October 15 hamburgers, the special that all kids love, were served at Mari-Linn.

School Enrollment Survey To Be Held

A survey of school enrollment at all levels from nursery school through college will be conducted in this area by interviews of the Bureau of the Census during the week of October 19, according to John E. Tharaldson, Director of the Bureau's regional office in Seattle.

Local interviewing will be part of a nationwide effort made annually to measure the Nation's school and college population. A similar survey in October 1968 showed total enrollment to be 58.8 million persons—33.8 million in elementary school, 14.1 million in secondary school, 3.3 million in kindergarten, 816,000 in nursery school, and 6.8 million in college.

The survey will be made along with the monthly national survey of employment and unemployment for the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the U.S. Department of Labor which furnishes a basic measure of national economic health.

Information collected in Census Bureau surveys can be used only to determine statistical totals, and facts about each person and family are kept confidential by law.

Interviewer who will visit households in this area is Mrs. Patricia Baker of Salem.
