Arvada Hince Weds David N. Johnson

Miss Arvada Hince, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dellis Hince became the bride of David Norton Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Johnson of Albany.

The young couple exchanged their vows at the Woodland chapel in Salem before members of their immediate family. Rev. Albert Cameron officiated at the 7:30 p. m. ceremony, Friday, January 9.

For her wedding the bride chose a white satin gown embellished with a border of lace and seed pearls down the front on the collar and chiffon sleeves with a cuff of lace and pearls. A watteau chiffon train over satin cascaded down a lace bow. For "something old" she wore her mother's white illusion veil held by a cluster of flowers. She carried a bouquet of pink sensation roses and white pom-pom mums.

Maid of honor was Miss Karen Mae Kroll. She wore a gown of American Beauty silk damask with street length skirt, bell sleeves and square neckline. She carried pink roses and white pom-pom mums.

Patrick Trembley stood with the groom as best man. Ushers were Tom Hince and Dellis Hince, Jr., both brothers of the bride.

Following the service the young couple left for the Oregon Coast where they spent their honeymoon.

Later this month the newlyweds will be honored at a reception at their home in Rickreall.

The bride is a graduate of Santiam High school and is presently employed by the City of Salem in the utilities department.

Mr. Johnson is a field representative for Cascade Farm Service at Rickreall.

Presbyterian Ladies Elect Officers

Nine ladies of the Presbyterian Women's Association attended the meeting at Fellowship Hall last Thursday afternoon when Mrs. Arlo Tuers was refreshment hostess.

Mrs. Clyde Rogers presided over the business session, with Mrs. Tuers acting as secretary and also giving the treasurer's report. It was voted to have dues of $1.00 per month since the group is no longer preparing the Lions Club dinners.
