There is... time for every matter.—(Eccles. 3:1).

How many times we find ourselves exclaiming: "If only I had the time!" When we find ourselves saying this, let us remind ourselves that we have all the time there is. We can live and work with a feeling of time unlimited. But in order to do this we need to quit limiting ourselves and our accomplishments by thinking that we do not have time enough. We may be very busy, but if there is something we need to do, something that is important to us, we can find the time to do it.
