

Mrs. Fritchl Hosts St. Patrick Club

LYONS—Marian Fritchl was hostess for the meeting of the St. Patrick Catholic Club at her home Monday afternoon. A good report was heard from the Valentine Cake Walk, and plans made for their St. Patrick card and bunco party to be held Sunday evening, March 15, at the Catholic Community hall at 7:30 p. m. with the following committee in charge: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bouche, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Silbernagel, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Voltin, Mrs. Henry Holzfuß and Mrs. Ilse Green.

The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Paul Yost. Present for the meeting were Rose Schwindt, Evelyn VanAgmael, Alice Bouche, Kathleen Manning, Marcelle Nydegger, Ann Holzfuß, Katie Sieg, Peggy Blackburn, Mary Voltin, Mary Fink, Shirley Peterson, Anne Pietrok, Sue Yost, Diane Dober, Father Bernard and the hostess Mrs. Fritchl.

Rainbow Girls Visit Assembly Institute

Miss Jenny Chance, Worthy Advisor for Marilyn Assembly, Order of the Rainbow for Girls and Miss Toni Newberg and Miss Nancy Lalack attended the Institution of Applegate Assembly in Veneta Sunday afternoon, February 15. This was the first institution of an assembly in Oregon for a number of years. Installation of officers and a reception was also held after.

Installing officers were Grand Worthy Advisor Kathy Wade; Grand Chaplain Susie Alf; Grand Marshall Melinda Moore; Grand Recorder Julie Worrell, and Grand Musician Christine Pye.

Joe Bowes, member of the Advisory Board and Mrs. Virgil Lewis, Mother Advisor, accompanied the girls.

Mrs. Gilbert Honored At Birthday Party

LYONS — A birthday dinner was held at the Lawrence Chytka home Sunday for Mrs. Chytka's mother, Mrs. Violet Gilbert, of Salem. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Watters, and Greg, Mr. and Mrs. Marty Miley, Rick and Ronnie, Mrs. Maude Miley and Mr. and Mrs. Dewy Jenison and Mrs. Gilbert all of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Miley, Dave, Tommy and Wayne and the Chytka family. Mrs. Chytka, who is still in back traction part time had plenty of help as her sister and two sisters-in-law took over preparing the dinner.

Mrs. Gilbert, a former resident of Lyons, is now employed as a foster grandmother at Fairview Home in Salem.

Former Resident Visits Mrs. Stafford

GATES — Mrs. Ed Shultz, the former Geraldine Heath of Wheeler visited Mrs. Lang Stafford Saturday evening, February 14. Mrs. Stafford had not seen Mrs. Shultz for a number of years. Mrs. Shultz graduated with the class of 1917 from the Gates High school and was a member of an early Sunday school class taught by Mrs. Stafford.

Mrs. Shultz also visited relatives in the area, including an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Taylor, a cousin, Mrs. Gwen Sehaer and family, and her brother, Harold Heath and family.

Expectant Parents Class Scheduled

Expectant parents are invited to enroll with the Marion County Health Department for five weekly sessions in Mother and Baby Care. A new class is started every other month.

The next class is scheduled to begin Tuesday, March 3rd, 1970 from 7:30 to 9:00 p. m. at the Salem General Hospital Auditorium. The discussions will be based upon things class members wish to cover but may include care of mother before baby comes, preparation at home for newborn, labor and delivery, care of baby, the emotional aspects of the new child in family and throughout the first year of life.

Films and demonstrations will be used as well as group discussion to make classes interesting and informative. The classes are held in the evening to make it possible for both expectant parents to attend.

The discussion will be led by a public health nurse, local hospital nurses and guest speakers.

For registration call Marion County Health Department—364-8427.

Newcomers Hold Potluck Meeting

The Santiam Newcomer Group held its February potluck on the 18th at the Gate Community Center. The hall and tables were decorated with pussy willows and Japanese quince giving the hall a touch of spring.

The host committee consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Mowry, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Peel and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reed.

In addition to the hosts the following were present to enjoy a delicious dinner and social evening: Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bate, Mr. and Mrs. Al Burrell, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Caryl, Mrs. Flossie Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hamilton, Mrs. Vivian Kealen, Mrs. Alma Locke, Mr. and Mrs. Paul McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Olyer, Rod Pfoertner, Mrs. Margaret Snow, Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson and Mr. Ernie Truhill.

Door prizes were won by Alma Bate and Bill Alyer, and a fine evening was enjoyed.

DETROIT IDANHA

By Roots Champion (Crowded Out Last Week)

The benefit pot luck luncheon sponsored by the Woman's Mission Society of the Idanha Community church last week was reported to be a success. Proceeds are to be used to build an additional room onto the church.

Visiting here Sunday at the Lee Ecos family home and with Mabel Poncia were Mr. and Mrs. Neil Ruthbum, daughters Ellen and Cathy and son, George of Rose Valley, Wn., and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Snyder and children, Ricky, Fritz and Robin of Woodland, Wn.

The Elementary school cafeteria will be the setting Saturday, February 21 from 5 to 7 p. m. for a home-made chili supper. The event, sponsored by the Deanha PTC will also feature home made corn bread, salads and desserts.

A PTC Executive meeting is scheduled to be held Thursday night at 7:30 in the teacher's conference room of the high school. A Marion County Health Nurse will visit the school Thursday afternoon.

Firemen of the Idanha Rural Fire district burned the James Wiley home in Idanha Saturday morning. The residence had been damaged beyond repair when a landslide struck the structure in mid-January, moving it some four feet off its foundation. The incident occurred about 2 a. m. but no one was injured. Reports indicated the Wileys plan to put a trailer house on the property.

Mrs. Earl (Virginia) Capurro and Mrs. David White were released from Santiam Memorial hospital last week and both are recuperating at home. Mrs. Capurro was released on Saturday.

An all-day visitation of Honor Society students from Regis High school was the order of the day Wednesday at Detroit school. On Thursday the Senior class attended the Chemeketa Community college open house at Salem.

Lloyd Ketchum Jr., who became afflicted with blood poisoning last week is reported to be improving from the ailment. He is recuperating at home following medical attention.

Mrs. Verna Ketchum formerly employed by Detroit Ranger Station will join the personnel staff again, as receptionist, effective February 24.

A number of people in the upper North Santiam Canyon are on the sick list with colds and flu.

A group of Senior delegates from Detroit High school visited OTI at Klamath Falls Monday. They were, Allen Benton, Miles McMillan, Robin Mennis, Gerald Hiebert, Lyle Rogers and Jim Morgan.

Weekend visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hancock were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Clark of Oakridge, and Barbara and her fiancée, Douglas Knudsen, Portland. Mrs. Hancock reported the return of the grosbeaks. She said trees in their yard were loaded with the colorful birds. Another sign of early spring.

Word was received here this week that Father Frank Callan S. J. who recently underwent surgery at a Portland Hospital, is now recuperating at the home of his mother in Portland. Father Callan is a former pastor of St. Christophers church here.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Friday, February 20, 1970

This weeks editorial was well written and timely. If only we could see this sort of writings constantly maybe the time would come that it would soak in.

Also, Congratulations to the City Council on their decision to approve the new business for Mill City.

Jerry Coffman

The Enterprise Prints Wedding Announcements
Expert Craftsmanship—Fast Service Too

SEE US FOR
PLYWOOD PANELS

KELLY LUMBER SALES
MILL CITY, OREGON
Phone 897-2610

Your dream kitchen... make it come true with ideas, planning and even help with financing from PP&L's Home Modernization Center!

What would it take to complete your dream kitchen? A self-cleaning oven? A dishwasher? How about a new refrigerator-freezer? Or modern lighting and decorating to make it as lovely as it is convenient?

You'll find all the modernizing help you need at our Home Modernization Center. It's a complete one-stop service. And it's free!

While you're remodeling, why not modernize your whole house by installing flameless electric heat? You'll never find a better time to start enjoying its matchless comfort!

Our Home Modernization Center puts you in touch with local firms and businesses. They'll help you with redecorating ideas. Help you choose and install just the right equipment and appliances. Even help you with financing. And that can really save you time, money and headaches!

Another special service for PP&L electric customers... our Home Modernization Center. Where better living starts!

Pacific Power
where they make the electricity that makes things nicer for everybody

DOG OWNERS

1970 Dog Licenses for Linn County are due and payable at the County Clerk's Office, P. O. Box 100, Albany, Oregon, 97321.

$3.00 for All Dog Licenses

After March 1st, an additional charge of $2.00 will be made as a penalty.

To secure a dog license, send owner's NAME and ADDRESS and state the BREED, Name and SEX of dog and enclose the proper fee.

AFTER MARCH 1st THE DOG CATCHER WILL TAKE OVER!

Licenses for dogs in the City limits of Albany, Sweet Home and Lebanon are secured at the City Hall of said Cities.