Oktoberfest To Be Family Affair

"Oktoberfest 1970 will be much more of a family affair according to Ed Jenck, president of the board of directors for the Mt. Angel Oktoberfest, one of the most attended events of its kind in Oregon. "We expect another 150,000 to attend our town during the three and one-half day celebration so we really don't need more people, so we are now upgrading and expanding every cultural aspect of the entire event," Jenck stated. It will be held September 17 through 20, Thursday through Sunday.

Jenck heads the new Oktoberfest board of directors, who consist of Sam Bates, Vice President; Ron Schmidt, Vice Secretary; Henrietta Saalfeld, Secretary; and Virgil Diehl, Treasurer. Other members who will guide the work of the entire town to prepare it for the influx of 150,000 where 2,000 normally live are Richard Foltz, Vic Hoffer, Helen Lambert,
