Melody Rosamond Honored Wednesday At Bridal Shower

Mrs. Rex Ohmart and Mrs. Douglas Ohmart were co-hostesses for a lingerie shower Wednesday evening honoring Miss Melody Rosamond, bride-elect of Frank Catherwood. The bride's colors, blue and white, were used in the decor. Games were played and after the opening of gifts, refreshments were served to the honored guest and Mmes. Irvin Tucker, B. Bumgarner, James Wright, Hannah Catherwood, Gerald Rosamond and Miss Judy Klecker of Salem. Those sending gifts were Mmes. Gale Pennington, Wayne Rosamond, Merle Stewart and James Girod.

Moore-Bennett Wedding Vows Exchanged Sat.

At a 2 o'clock ceremony on Saturday afternoon Miss Patricia Ann Moore became the bride of Mark Earl Bennett at the local Presbyterian church. Rev. Charles Fultz, minister of the Mill City Christian church, officiated at the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel W. Moore, Jr., and Mark is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bernard Bennett, all of Mill City.

The bride chose her 18th birthday anniversary for her wedding day. She wore a gown of imported Chantilly lace with bouffant skirt of ruffled tiers sweeping into a Cathedral train. A camelot cap of lace trimmed in seed pearls held her tiered illusion veil. She carried a nosegay of white roses and the white prayer book her mother carried on her wedding day 25 years ago.

Preceding the bride to the altar were two flower girls, Nancy Moore and Molly Bennett. Maid of Honor was Miss Shirley Stone and Bridesmaids were Mrs. Donald Podrabsky, sister of the groom and Miss Judy Boroughs. They wore floor-length dresses of baby blue dotted Swiss with full, puffed sleeves, accented with white lace cuffs and wide white sashes tied in the back with a large bow. They wore wide brimmed hats made of white lace and carried nosegays of white roses and carnations tied with baby blue streamers.

Robert Wood stood with the groom as best man. Ushers were Craig Bennett, the groom's brother and Donald Podrabsky, brother-in-law of the groom.

A reception followed in Fellowship hall. The young couple are both graduates of Santiam High, the bride graduating with the class of '70.

The young couple will be making their first home in Salem.

Presbyterian Women Hold "Work Day" At Fellowship Hall

The Presbyterian Women's Association held a "work day" at Fellowship Hall on Thursday, June 11, beginning at 10 o'clock in the morning. Several large boxes of Summer clothing were sorted and packed for shipment over-seas.

At noon, the ladies enjoyed a sack-lunch, with Mrs. Arlo Tuers serving as hostess for dessert and coffee.

No formal business meeting was held, but preparations were begun for serving at the reception following the Mark Bennett-Patricia Moore wedding on Saturday, June 13. The women have also been asked to serve at the wedding reception for the Frank Catherwood-Melody Rosamond wedding on the next Saturday, June 20.

Linda Reed and Herbert Romey Married Friday

GATES—The Morningside United Methodist Church in Salem was the setting for the wedding of Miss Linda Reed and Herbert Romey on June 12. Rev. Charles W. Easley officiated at the 7:30 p.m. ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Reed of Silvertown and the groom is the son of Mrs. Louisa Wriglesworth of Salem and formerly of Gates.

Lime green and shades of pink were the colors chosen by the bride for her wedding. Her gown was made with an empire bodice, sculptured neckline edged with scallops, three quarter length flounced sleeves of Alencon lace and wateau train in matching lace. Lace appliques accented with tiny iridescent sequins on the organza skirt.

Her shoulder length veil of illusion was caught to a head-piece of pearls and rhinestones. She carried an arm bouquet of pink chrysanthemums tied with pink and lime green ribbons.

Maid of honor was Miss Cindy Reed, sister of the bride. Her gown was floor length, empire style of pink crepe trimmed with lime green daisies.

Miss Rita Gross and Miss Patty Rose were bridesmaids. Their gowns were the same as the Maid of honor. All carried baskets of pink chrysanthemums tied with pink and lime green ribbons.

Standing with the groom as best man was Roy Spalkman. Groomsmen were Carl Reed, brother of the bride and Norman Graves. Seating the guests were the bride's cousins, Scott Gotter and Steve Gotter.

A reception followed the ceremony in the Church's social room.

Following a trip along the Oregon Coast the couple will make their home in Salem.

Lyons Couple Honored on 35th Wedding Date

LYONS—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schiewek were honored on their 35th wedding anniversary with a reception held Saturday night, June 6, for relatives and friends at the First Assembly of God Church in Salem. Hosting the affair were their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Brown of Hood River and their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Schiewek of Lebanon.

Another son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. David Schiewek of Hawaii, were unable to be present. Mrs. Leo Phillips and Mrs. Vernon Brown served the cake. Mrs. Frank Thompson, sister of Mrs. Schiewek who was maid of honor at the wedding, poured the coffee and another sister, Mrs. Tom Ruyile presided at the punch bowl. Patty Thompson, niece, was in charge of the guest book. John Schiewek sang two numbers and read the history.
