

LOCALS

In an exchange of pulpits, Earl Lyda, minister of the Turner Christian church, will be speaking at the Mill City church, while Charles Fultz speaks to the Turner congregation. Mr. Lyda will speak at the Christian church here Sunday evening, August 16 at 7 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Burrell Cole spent a few days in Salem recently at the home of their son and family the Marlin Coles. They took care of their grandchildren while the parents were in Cour D'Alene, Idaho. The Coles have a string of racing horses and they came out with some winners in the Idaho races.

Rev. and Mrs. Richard Cole and family of Bellingham, Wash., formerly of Mill City, were overnight guests of the Carl Kelleys Sunday night of this week on their way to visit relatives in California. Miss Marilyn Cole was a houseguest of Miss Nancy Lalack, a former schoolmate. Linda and David also accompanied the parents.

Trent Zastrow, a high school junior from Dayton, Wash., spent a recent weekend here with his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Hillsland, who live in the Blazek Apartments. The young Hillslands were married this Spring in Reno, with Mr. and Mrs. Mark Sheythe of Seattle, as attendants. Scott and Mark were former classmates here, graduating from Santiam High School in 1964. Mrs. Hillsland, the former Dene Ann Zastrow of Dayton, Wash., is employed at the Meier & Frank's Beauty Salon in Salem. The elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Hillsland, Scott served with the Army in Vietnam, and at present is working at the U. S. Plywood plant in Idanha. He plans to enter Chemeketa Community College this fall.

St. Catherine's Catholic church will have Mass on Saturday, August 15 at 5 p. m. It will be held at Detroit on the same day at 7 o'clock.

The Studio of Hair Design is now open for business four days a week, Wednesdays, Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays, 8:30 a. m. to 5 p. m. Ph. 897-2100 for appointment Betty Klutke, owner. 46tf

Mill City Pharmacy

For Full Measure Of Reliability

Depend on your registered pharmacist to promptly, accurately fill all prescriptions. His professional skill protects your health. May we serve you?

Rely On Us For All Prescriptions

MEL EIDE, Owner
Ph. 897-2812 Mill City
Hours 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Visit The Bank On SUNDAY And Enjoy Delicious Roast Beef Dinner

Open 7 Days A Week
7 A. M. to 10 P. M.

Salad, Coffee and Dessert Included.

THE BANK CAFE
Phone 897-8901 146 N. E. Santiam Blvd.
Les and Inez Ornelas

Recent weekend visitors of Mrs. Else Allen were her brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Hans Plambeck of Corvallis. The group spent Sunday in the Marion Forks area, enjoying fishing and hiking.

The Burton Boroughs attended funeral services in Eugene on Tuesday of last week for her uncle, E. R. Endicott, 83, who was the brother of her mother, Mrs. Daisy Lewellen, also of Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Moore were called to the bedside of her sister, Miss Wills, in Tennessee recently, arriving there just before she passed away. They boarded a Saturday night flight on August 1. Staying in their house while they were gone were their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Bennett (Patricia Moore).

Janis White of Rainier has been visiting with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Don Martin and their daughter, Sonja. Miss White will work here for a month or so before returning to her studies at college next month. Other recent guests at the Martin home were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold White of Portland and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Richard O'Kelly of Colorado Springs. He is attending the Air Force Academy there.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Garrison of Lakeview have their travel trailer parked at Fishermen's Bend this week. They have been visiting longtime friends in the area and have had several gatherings at their temporary home. Staying overnight at their site Sunday were her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Zeller of Albany. Many friends visited them over Saturday and Sunday, including Mr. and Mrs. Clare Rush, Joe Bowes, Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Tohl, Mr. and Mrs. Mel Rambo and a group from Salem.

Saturday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mel Rambo were her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Balsiger from Beaverton. They are well known in the canyon area as his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Balsiger had a store at Lyons for a number of years. Sunday guests at the Rambos were Mr. and Mrs. Roger Nelson of Salem, accompanied by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ruth McGraff of South Carolina, who is spending the week with them.

For Sale—Dumont Console TV. Good condition. $25.00. Puriton air conditioner, like new, $10.00. Good sturdy 7-drawer desk, great for that school youngster's room, $20.00. Also other miscellaneous items. M. G. Rambo, 249 N.E. 5th. Phone 897-2816. 34p

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Mattson and their grandson from Parkdale, were guests Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Peterson. The Mattsons were neighbors of Mr. Peterson when they lived near Frank's Mill.

A Baker newspaper clipping and picture of her father's cousin, Mrs. Pansy Buchanan, was received by Mrs. Charles Kelly last week telling that she was chosen as the "Pioneer Queen" for 1970 and was to be crowned at the picnic August 9 at Baker City Park. Her grandparents were among the immigrants who arrived near Baker by covered-wagon in 1862, and her father was born 3 days after their arrival. Mrs. Buchanan, who belies her 82 years, is still very active in numerous pioneer organizations. The Kellys weren't able to attend the event due to a prior commitment over the weekend.

Calling on old-time friends here last Wednesday was Arthur Harris of Tacoma, Wash., who attended school here, but left about 40 years ago after working for Hammond Lumber Company. He later retired from the Army, and is now employed as custodian at an elementary school in the Tacoma vicinity. His brother, Roger Harris, is a brother-in-law of the Tex Blazeks. Mr. and Mrs. Harris (formerly Madeline Wagner Lettenmaier) were visiting at the home of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Taylor, and other relatives around Mehma. He said their 10-year-old granddaughter was accompanying them. Their son, Robert, and his wife, also of Tacoma have two younger children.

Mill City friends have received word from Mrs. Vera Hathaway that she has spent some time visiting her daughter and family, Mrs. Vera Marshall at Nome, Alaska. Mrs. Hathaway, a former Mill City resident, now makes her home in Redding, Calif. She has been in poor health in recent years but still gets a lot of enjoyment from traveling and visiting. Mrs. Hathaway is one of the fortunate individuals who is able to enjoy any new experience to the utmost.

The Mill City Fraternal Order of Eagles hall will be open on Thursday, August 13 from 2 until 5 p.m. This is to enable those leaving dishes there from the dinner served to Sharp and Taylor families last week to pick them up.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Calkins of Dallas are staying at Oaklands Motel while he is employed near Marion Forks in the logging industry. Their daughter and family, Mrs. Ray (Joyce) Young of Molalla visited with them Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Anderson of Portland visited with her grandmother, Mrs. Maudie Flatman over the weekend. Visiting this week at the Flatman home is another granddaughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Horn and Kimberley from Seattle.

Overnight guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie French Monday were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Truesdale and two daughters from Dinuba, Calif. Mrs. Truesdale and Mrs. French were friends years ago when they lived in Trenton, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Allen were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Peterson Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Alvin Bueneman and sons, Robin and Ronald from Portland spent last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Peterson. Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Bueneman and sons went to Newport where they spent the weekend fishing. They returned with a nice catch of Salmon.

Mrs. Ardith Brusasco of Stayton, sister of Mrs. Ervin Peterson, underwent major surgery Tuesday at Salem Memorial hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Welstad and family from the Eugene area were in Mill City Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Mason and children of Ogden, Utah spent a few days visiting with his mother, Mrs. Lora Mason in Salem. They all came to Mill City Thursday and were joined at Mongold State park for a picnic by Mr. and Mrs. Art Hemeck and children of Sweet Home, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. MacGregor and son, Bob and Mr. and Mrs. Don Moffatt.

Garage Sale—1 to 5 p. m. all this week at Harold Wilson home, first house across the bridge at Gates. Loads of miscellaneous items. Benefit of Gates Women's club. 33

Dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. MacGregor and children Monday night were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bliss of Turner and Mr. and Mrs. Nat Wills. The event was to celebrate Mac's 60 birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Bennett have had their grandson, Darrin Podrabsky staying with them as his mother has not been "up to par". He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Podrabsky of Albany. Darrin also visited with his other grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Podrabsky. An additional visitor at their home is their daughter Caroline of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Keen and family from Grants Pass spent the weekend at the home of his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Keen and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Haywood from Portland spent the weekend at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Haywood and Hollis.

Mrs. Else Allen attended a barbecue in Salem Monday at the home of Mrs. Opal Lewis. The party honored Mrs. Agnes Thompson who is leaving for British Columbia to make her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Heller and Mrs. Ruby Foldager accompanied by their houseguest, Mrs. Todd Vought from Long Beach, Calif., spent Tuesday picnicking at Suttle Lake with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Kuhlman, and Butch from Albany. The Kuhlman family are vacationing at Suttle Lake.

Mrs. Al Yankus went to Portland Monday to visit her mother, Mrs. Ephraim Thomas who is seriously ill. She also visited her father who is in a convalescent home.

Mrs. Else Allen attended the Salem Geological Society's annual picnic at the Jess Richardson Tree Farm on Abiqua Creek near Silverton. Over 80 attended. Mrs. Tena Graham was a guest.

Returning to Mill City on Sunday from a week's visit in California was Mrs. Ruby Foldager who visited her son and daughter at Montebello.

Mrs. Foldager accompanied her sister, Mrs. Todd Vought of Long Beach to Mill City. Mrs. Vought will visit at the home of Mrs. Foldager and her other sister, Mrs. Wendell Heller.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wertz from Salem were visitors Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Turnidge.

Verne Shaw, Les Madison and Ed Davis spent last weekend at the coast where they got their limit of salmon.

Mrs. Elaine Turner and son Patrick from Reedsport are spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Posekany.

Sgt. Monte Lalack, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lalack, was recently awarded the Army Commendation Medal for being one of the four representing his platoon on a special mission while in Cambodia. They cut a landing zone, which is ordinarily the work of approximately 30 men.

Having spent 10 days at the Skybeaver Academy in July, Sgt. Lalack, who is in the 1st Air Cavalry Division, Company, 8th Engineer Battalion, sent a copy of the "Skybeaver Blurbs" to his parents containing the move announcement. Others were also listed for special awards.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Farman spent last week on vacation in Washington and Canada. Their son, Mike, stayed here with the Joe Lalacks. The previous week, Miss Nancy Lalack stayed with the Farman family while her folks were at the beach.

Postmaster and Mrs. Charles Kelly attended the dedication of the new post office at Newport on Sunday afternoon, August 9, arranged by Postmaster Betty-Lou Zetterberg. Various post office department officials, as well as prominent Newport residents, took part in the impressive affair, which was outdoors. Refreshments were served inside during the tour of the new facility later.

On Saturday evening, a no-host buffet dinner was served to many of the visitors at a restaurant down in Old Newport on the bay.

An announcement in a Portland newspaper states that plans for an October 30 wedding at Agnes Flanagan Chapel on the Lewis and Clark College campus are being made by Mary Elizabeth Tucker, daughter of Mrs. Joyce R. Buf-ton of Portland, and Dennis George Jenkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Jenkins of Mill City.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Golden from Toledo, Ohio have been visiting with relatives here recently. He has a barbershop in Toledo and she works for the telephone company. A family gathering was held at the home of his sister and family, the Donovan Moffatts, on Friday. Others present were Mrs. Vee Golden, Mr. and Mrs. Athel Savage, Becky and Tony and Mr. and Mrs. Rick Brown and two children. Mr. and Mrs. Golden were married last December and this was the first time members of his family had met her.

Why Don't You Subscribe to The Mill City Enterprise

NEED A TOW?

Call 897-2442 For Fast Service

AAA MOTOR ASSOCIATION

AllState Motor Club Road Service

Vern's Shell Service
We Give S & H Green Stamps
Phone 897-2442 Mill City

Coming soon on radio

The story of a mailman who walked a 75-mile route on snow shoes

Wednesday, August 19

ALBANY - KRKT 12:15 P.M.

ALBANY - KWIL 4:40 P.M.

STORIES OF PACIFIC POWERLAND told by Nelson Olmsted

PACIFIC POWER & LIGHT COMPANY

Help Us Mop Up These Used Cars At Clean-up Prices

1966 Ford Galaxie 2 Dr. HT, V-8, Auto., PS. $1495

1968 Volkswagen 2 Door $1395

1966 Coronet 2 Door, HT, V-8, Std., PS. $1395

1968 Austin American Automatic $1195

1966 Rambler Classic 2 Door Hardtop, V-8, Automatic $1095

1965 Impala 2 Door, V-8, Automatic Power Steering Air Conditioned $1095

1966 Ford Custom 4 Door, V-8 Automatic $895

1962 BelAir 4 Speed, V-8, Automatic $695

First and Hollister - Stayton

GENE TEAGUE CHEVROLET Call 769-2126

STAYTON OREGON

SAFECO INSURANCE

for personalized HOMEOWNER'S INSURANCE

call: JERRY PITTAM Insurance

Phone 897-2324 or 897-2754 Mill City, Oregon

he'll treat you like a person... not a number!