Mrs. Elsie Potter

Feted on Birthday

The 89th birthday anniversary of Mrs. Elsie Potter of Salem, former long-time resident of Mill City, was observed by members of her family Sunday, although the actual anniversary was Monday, August 17. Her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Lafe Potter, of West Linn, who were accompanied by their grandson, Ricky Larson of Seattle, took her out for Chinese food, which is one of her favorites. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelly.

Mrs. Potter was able to enjoy her birthday gifts and cards and a lighted birthday cake in her apartment at Willamette Lutheran Home in Keizer following the dinner. Later, she was returned to the Home's infirmary, where she has been for many weeks.

Mrs. Brown is the former Kathryn Dishong, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Donald Dishong

Peggy Luke Marries Michael J. Kokstis

LYONS — Miss Peggy Ann Luke of Mill City became the bride of Michael J. Kokstis of Lyons, Friday evening, August 14, with the single ring ceremony held at the Calvary Lutheran church in Stayton at 7 p. m. with Rev. Norbert Dey officiating.

Miss Luke is the daughter of Lester Luke of Mill City and Mrs. Lewis Keirse of San Dnego.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an A-line white satin gown with lace over it. The high collar was of satin and lace and had long sleeves and chapel train. Her finger tip veil was held in place with a rose tiara with leaves. She carried a nosegay of white roses and carnations. Maid of honor, Miss Marge Ruby of Mill City wore pink satin with white nylon dotted over it. It was made with a high collar. She carried a long stemmed lavender rose.

Bridesmaids were Miss Sandra Keirse, sister of the bride of San Diego and Miss Darlene Rue of Mill City. Both wore lavender linen floor length gowns with mandarin collar, empire waist and short puff sleeves. They carried the long stemmed pink rose. Serving as best man was Gary Kokstis of Lyons, brother of the groom. Groomsmen were Gregg Tiney and Mark Ader. They also served as ushers.

Organist was Connie Keil.

A reception followed. Cutting and serving the cake was Mrs. Gerald Rockwell, aunt of the bride. Pouring the punch and coffee were Mrs. Robert Roy and Mrs. Jack Roye, aunts of the bride.

Following a honeymoon at Reno, the couple are now at home in Lyons.

The bride is a graduate of Santiam High school and the bridegroom is a graduate of Stayton Union High school, and is presently employed as a carpenter.

Special guests for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hauge and son, Dean, of Madison, Wis., and Mrs. Joe Kokstis from Prentice, Wis.

Coffee Honors Mrs. Duane McFadden

Mrs. William McClintock was hostess at her home Wednesday morning at a coffee honoring Mrs. Duane McFadden of Indio, Calif.

Mrs. McFadden presented each one who called a package of dates and copies of date recipes from Indio, the date capital of the world.

Calling to greet Mrs. McFadden were Mrs. Jerry Hunter from Stanton, Calif., Mrs. Richard Boedigher from Stayton; Mrs. Lloyd Sletto from Mehama, Mrs. Gordon McMorris from Fox Valley, Mrs. Leo Poole and Gloria, Mrs. Elmer Shaw, Mrs. Edith Mason, Mrs. Paula Jane Grant, Mrs. Bud Bilyeu, Mrs. Clyde Richards, Mrs. J. C. Kimmel, Mrs. Wilma Golden, Mrs. Lowell Cree, and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Golden.

Sharon Carder and James Miley Wed

LYONS — The Church of Christ in Stayton was the setting of a pretty summer wedding Saturday when Miss Sharon Kay Carder became the bride of James Dale Miley. Rev. Byron Pickering officiated at the 2 p. m. ceremony.

Miss Carder is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Carder of Albany, and Mr. Miley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Miley of Rt. 1, Lyons.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length A-line gown of soft yellow trimmed with white daisies with empire waist line with velvet bow in the back, and carried a bouquet of white daisies with yellow center and green fern trim.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Jack Hoefer of Albany. She wore a pale yellow street length dress. Her flowers were the same as those of the bride.

Best man for his brother was Robert Miley. Ushers were David Miley, Ricky Chytka, Bob Gilson and Bill Gilson. In care of the gifts was Miss Miss Judy Yunker. Taking charge of the guest book was Denese Peel and passing the rice bags was Miss Ellen Carder.

A reception followed in the church parlors. Serving were Mrs. Ronald Savage, Mrs. Lawrence Chytka, Mrs. Otis Bishop, Mrs. Eldon Gilson, and Mrs. Jeanne Owen.

The couple will honeymoon at Crater Lake. Her going-away costume was a two-piece dress of red dotted swiss with ruffled blouse and white vest, and attached skirt. Their future home will be at Jefferson.

The bride is a student in Home Economics Education at OSU and the bridegroom is a student at OTI, and presently employed in Albany.

A special guest at the wedding was the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Violet Gilbert of Salem.

Family Reunion Held Here Sunday

The family of Mrs. Edward Rada held a reunion at their place on Santiam Highway Sunday, with 33 persons attending. The dinner was served on picnic tables under the trees behind the Rada cabins. This was the first time in five years that all the brothers and sisters had been together at the same time.

Included were the families of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hansen of Hawaii, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Hansen of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Perry B. Priest (Katherine), Mr. and Mrs. Munson Dowd (Ruth), and Dr. and Mrs. Eddie Rada (Esther), all from Southern California. Mrs. Rada and Mrs. Dowd are twin sisters. The mother of all the Hansens makes her home with the Radas in Pasadena, but is in poor health so could not be here.

Family members who stayed over for a few days expected to leave this Tuesday, with the Radas planning to start for home on Wednesday. The others will take their trailers to a rendezvous by a lake in Canada to complete their vacation.

California Residents Visit in Area

Mr. and Mrs. Duane McFadden and eleven of their twelve children from Indio, Calif., have spent the past two weeks visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Powelson at Jefferson, and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon McFadden at Stayton and with other relatives and friends in the area.

The McFadden's older son, Mike, visited his grandparents earlier in the summer.

Patrice and Frederick are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William McClintock. Patty, Mark and Sue will return to their home by bus.

Mr. McFadden is co-partner of Dateland Chemical Company at Indio.

Both are former residents of Mill City and Gates. She is the former LaVetta Powelson. This is their first trip home in seven years.

Mrs. Joe Bennett Honored at Shower At Cecil Lake Home

A delightful affair of last Friday afternoon, August 14, was the baby shower honoring Mrs. Joe Bennett (Judy) at the home of Mrs. Cecil Lake, who was assisted by Mrs. Elsie Volkel. The guests enjoyed an informal afternoon of visiting during which Mrs. Bennett opened her many lovely gifts.

At the close of the afternoon, colorful cake, punch, and coffee were served from the attractive dining table. The "stork motif" was used in the decorations. Pouring were Miss Mary Fazio of Pleasant Hill, Cal., a cousin of Mrs. Bennett, and Mrs. M. J. Benton of Scio. Assisting with the gifts was Mrs. George Dwire of Salem, who was accompanied by her small son.

Others in attendance were Mrs. Sal Fazio and daughter, Yvonne, of Pleasant Hill, Cal., the aunt and a cousin of Mrs. Bennett. Mrs. Jack Campbell, Mrs. Eddie Anderson, Mrs. Bennett's sister, Mrs. Helen Saucier, Mrs. Lavern Ohrt, Mrs. Charles Kelly, and Mrs. Volkel and the hostess, all of Mill City.

Gifts were sent by Mrs. Mel Elde of Salem, Mrs. Charlie Stewart, Mrs. Roy Pate, Miss Judy Pate, and the Ohrt Children.

Series of Sermons Given To Presbyterians

Presbyterians and their friends began learning last Sunday about the faith, practice, and history of Presbyterianism. The sermon Sunday, delivered by the Rev. Wayne Blake, marked the beginning of a series of sermons that will run for several weeks designed to explain what is unique to Presbyterian belief and organization and what Presbyterians share with all other Christians throughout the world.

Rev. Blake, newly installed pastor of the Mill City church, initiated the series in response to requests of church officers and members wishing to learn more about or refresh their knowledge of what gives shape to the Presbyterian church.

The time of the sermon series is during the Sunday morning worship at 11 a. m. at which child care is provided for those who have small children. The church is located at S. W. 3rd and Broadway.

Rev. Jepson New Pastor at Lyons

LYONS—J. W. Jepson, formerly of Pleasant Valley Community church, Grants Pass, has accepted the call of the Santiam Chapel Assembly of God at Lyons to be their new pastor.

Pastor Jepson completed his formal education for the ministry at Pentecostal Bible college in California, receiving a Bachelor of Arts degree in theology. He pursued graduate studies at Southern Oregon College, Ashland, where he earned a Master of Science degree in social science. Mrs. Jepson, also a graduate of Pentecostal Bible college with a degree in Religious education, participates actively in her husband's ministry.

During his 20 years in the ministry, Pastor Jepson has served as an evangelist, pastor and bible college administrator and teacher. While pastoring at Grants Pass he founded Southern Oregon Bible Institute, in Medford, and served as the Dean of the school.

Pastor and Mrs. Jepson have two children. David, their older son, is married and is the assistant pastor of the Assembly of God church in Gold Hill. Wesley, their younger son, will be a junior in high school this year.

"Our purpose is to minister to the spiritual needs of the Santiam Chapel congregation and of the Lyons-Mehama communities," he said. "I am convinced that at the root of most of people's problems lies a basic spiritual need, a need for repentance, forgiveness, reconciliation and renewal that is met only by the honest and full surrender of the heart and life to God and the receiving of Jesus Christ as personal Saviour and Lord."

Santiam Chapel Assembly of God is located at 5th and Birch streets in Lyons.
