LYONS—Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Craigmyles were honored on their 25th wedding anniversary with a reception held at their home Sunday, with their children, Mrs. Marvin Studebaker of Redmond and Bill, of Lyons, hosting the affair.

Cutting and serving the wedding cake was Mrs. Alvin Palmer, and Mrs. Donna Asmusen served the coffee and punch. The Craigmyles were married 25 years ago in Schaefer, Holland and have lived in Lyons since 1954. About 40 signed the guest book.

Out-of-state guests were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Craigmyles and Mr. and Mrs. Mill Hathway of Aberdeen, Wn.; his sister, Mrs. Alfred McWilliams, and Margaret G'sbers, also a sister; Mrs. Rea Wanser and children and Elwood Tyler all of Longview, Wn.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Golden are announcing the birth of their 3rd child, a daughter born on Thursday, August 20th at the Santiam Memorial Hospital at Stayton. The little girl weighed 6 pounds 1½ oz. and has been named Katherine Louise. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. William Lensman of Sublimity and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Golden of Mill City. Great Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Irl Plymale also of Mill City.

Couple Recently Married in Reno

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald E. Ruby are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Marjorie Louise Ruby, to Richard Gregg Tinney, son of Mrs. Roy Horstman of Stayton and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Taylor of Mehama.

The wedding was an event of August 15 at an afternoon ceremony in the Star Lite Chapel in Reno.

The bride's only attendant was Mrs. Michael Kokstis, who wore a pink satin gown with white organdy net.

Michael Kokstis served as best man for his friend. After a short wedding trip to Lake Tahoe, the couple are at home in Stayton. The groom is employed by Ercil Wilson Logging.

Rosalie Bassett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bassett recently received her Master's degree from the U of O School of Journalism. Following a visit with her parents and other relatives she left for Longview, Wn. She teaches in the Mark Morris high school there. Visiting with the Bassetts last week were their son and family, the Maurie Bassetts from Washougal, Wn.

Many Present for Anniversary Party For C. A. Bruders

Approximately 100 relatives and friends attended the reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bruder on their golden wedding anniversary in the First Christian church recreation rooms Sunday afternoon, August 16 from 2 until 5 o'clock. The affair was arranged by the six children of the couple, although two of them could not be present. Actual date of the anniversary was August 14, but Sunday was Mrs. Bruder's birthday.

Claude Bruder and Mabel Weddle were married in 1920 in Salem, and moved to Mill City in 1922. They later spent five years in Stayton, eight years in Astoria, then returned to their former home here in April, 1967.

For the reception, Mrs. Bruder wore a blue lace dress and an orchid corsage. The church room was decorated with floral arrangements in keeping with the occasion, and a large decorated wedding cake centered the serving table. Pouring coffee was Mrs. Bruder's sister, Mrs. Otto Shieman (Myrna) of Portland, and presiding over the punch-bowl was Mrs. Elmer Smunk (Nancy Bruder), also of Portland. Jenny Markham (Mrs. Don) and Susie McAndrews (Mrs. Mike), both of Seattle, assisted in the serving.

Many cards and gifts were received by the guests of honor, and a clever "wishing well" was a conversation piece of the afternoon. Following the reception, a buffet supper at the Bruders home was served to about 48 family members and guests.

Children of the Bruders arranging the affair included Gordon Bruders of Savannah, Ga., who was unable to be present, William Bruder of Eugene, Mrs. Glenn Rogers (Gweneth) of Milton-Freewater, who was also unable to attend, Mrs. Ray Reddington (Mary Ann) of near Scio, Mrs. Elmer Smunk (Nancy) of Portland, and Mrs. Jim Segern (Claudie) of Marion Forks.

Other relatives included Mr. and Mrs. James Rogers and two children of Centralia, Wn.; Mr. and Mrs. Gale Von Segern of Fresno, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hull of Taft, former residents here, Mr. and Mrs. Mike McAndrews, Johnny Johnson, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Markham and daughter all of Seattle, and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Weston (Betty Schie-man) and two daughters, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ida Weston, all of Portland.

Former residents here were Mrs. Knut Knutson (Claudine LaVine) of Seattle, Mrs. Melvin LaVine (Fauneta White) of Toledo, Mr. and Mrs. Walt Leisy of Florence, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Craven of Sisters, and Mrs. Lottie Gentry of Salem. Mr. and Mrs. Ira Kirsch and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Phillips, all of Stayton, also attended.

Cheryl Challenger Honored at Shower

The Free Methodist church social room was the setting Wednesday evening, August 19, when Miss Cheryl Challenger was honored at a miscellaneous bridal shower. Hostesses were Mrs. John DeMain and the ladies of the Free Methodist church. A large decorated cake centered the refreshment table.

Those attending were Mrs. Zelma Ball, Mary Loucks, Mrs. Mildred Lake, Mrs. Charlene Cooper, Mrs. Billie Jennings, Mrs. Dick Posekany, and Kim, Mrs. Gale Larson, Mrs. Dinah Haywood, Mrs. Nelda Johnson, Mrs. Gary Peterson, Mrs. Harold Hostetler, Linda Mack, Mrs. Fred Krecklow, Mrs. Glenna Ward, Donalee Walker, Mrs. Jo Whitsett, Mrs. Roger Penrose, Mrs. Dorothy Novak, Mrs. Don Gillenwater, and Barbara, Mrs. Wanda Schendel, Mrs. Lola Bacon, Mrs. Hannah Catherwood, Mrs. Helen Saucier, Karen Howell, Nancy Lalack, Mrs. George Long and Linda, Cindy Bozak, Mrs. Harold Hill, Mrs. Wilma Bumgarner, Mrs. Alice Hershberger and Mrs. Joe Challenger, the bride elect's mother.

Sending gifts were Mrs. Tom Drynan, Mrs. Joe Young, Lorna Challenger, Mrs. Mel Rambo, Mrs. Roger Mink, Mrs. Ed Stone, Mrs. Don Martin and Sonja, Mrs. Nellie Umphress, Mrs. Judy Knox, Mrs. Laddy Elliott, Mrs. Coleen Morgan, Delores Dishong, Mrs. Bob Blumenstein, Mrs. Ruth Poole, Mrs. Doris Sheythe, Mrs. Virginia Syverson, Mrs. Enid Krecklow, Mrs. Jo Anderson, and Mrs. T. E. McMahon.

Class of 1964 Has Reunion

At the recent reunion of the Class of 1964 of Santiam Union High School at Fishermen's Bend Saturday afternoon, August 15, 16 members and their families were present. The event was arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hirte (Laura Lyons) of Albany.

A highlight of the affair was a letter received from Chris Sorenson of Denmark, who had been an exchange student here when the group was Seniors. Greetings were also read from John Kelly, who is in Hollywood, and from others.

Enjoying the afternoon of fine food and visiting were Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Bassett (Bev Lockrem) and children of Salem; Miss Cheryl Challenger, who is to be married in September; Mr. and Mrs. Allen Hayward (Dinah Hayward) and daughter, Holly; Mr. and Mrs. Allen Warde (Janet Hutchinson) of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Arland Schendel (Wanda Johnson) and 3-month-old daughter, also of Salem; Jerry Koenig; Clarence (Skip) Meader; Mr. and Mrs. Don Podrabsky and son, Darren, of Albany; Mr. and Mrs. Mark Sheythe and Tammy of Federal Way, near Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wilson of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Stan Warde, also from Eugene; Larry Vetter, who was announcing the birth of a baby girl to him and his wife (Shadon Bassett) just the day before; Mr. and Mrs. Grant Merrill, and Mr. and Mrs. Scott Hillesland; Mr. and Mrs. Terry Morris and Louis Kelly, who stopped by later.

It was decided to have the next reunion in 1974 which will be a 10-year event. The committee in charge will be Grant Merrill, Scott Hillesland, Mrs. James Hirte, Mark Sheythe and Mrs. Allen Hayward.

The Jim Hirte's little boy, Robby, stayed with his great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Art Kerr, as he had a cold.

Mrs. Clyde Rogers

Feted on 80th Birthday

A group of friends surprised Mrs. Clyde Rogers with a belated 80th birthday party last Wednesday afternoon, August 19. A beautifully decorated cake was furnished by Mrs. John Swan, and Mrs. Rogers received many cards full of good wishes.

Attending, besides the guest of honor, were Mrs. Herbert Schroeder, Mrs. Roy Epperson, Mrs. James Swan, Miss Daisy Geddes, Mrs. Glen Cummings, Mrs. J. C. Kimmel, Mrs. Lundquist and granddaughter, Jody, Mrs. Floyd Fleetwood, Mrs. Elsie Marks, Mrs. Earl Loucks, Mrs. Arlo Tuers, Mrs. Charles Kelly, Mrs. Marie Tolbert, and Mrs. John Swan.

While the ladies enjoyed an afternoon of visiting, Roy Epperson took Mr. Rogers on a tour which included a drive up the North Fork and to Taylor's Grove and "swimming hole" which he had not seen for many years.
