RE-ELECT

SENATOR HUSTON LINN COUNTY DEMOCRAT SENATOR HUSTON

Businessman, Rancher

Conservation Award Winner, 1967

Glenn Huston represents every segment of Linn County because he, too, owns a home and farm; he, too, has been a working logger; he, too, has owned and operated a business here. Glenn Huston is a well-rounded legislator, who wants sound government and sensible use of our tax money.

Glenn Huston was ELECTED to represent us. And HE DOES.

SENATOR GLENN HUSTON "The Saver"

Since we first sent Glenn Huston to Salem in 1963 to represent Linn County he has saved taxpayers millions of dollars. While others talked about spending more for this and that, Glenn Huston has been saving on this and that.

"This and that" turn out to be pretty big things. In last year's legislative session alone, Senator Huston saved us TEN MILLION DOLLARS by demanding that administrators prove the value received of every dime they asked for in education. That line-item budgeting lopped off $10 millions from the 1969—1971 budget!

As a member of the powerful Ways and Means Committee, Senator Huston saved us another eight million dollars by insisting that McLaren School build a healthy boys camp instead of more big buildings not as suited to rehabilitating our youngsters.

And while he was saving us money, the taxes that Senator Huston helped spend were spent well: almost $5 1/2 millions for senior citizen property tax relief, and using state money to pay welfare costs instead of county funds . . . saving the counties $22 MILLIONS!

He Saves Wisely, But Spends VERY Wisely

Re-Elect Our Senator . . . Glenn Huston

Re-Elect Senator Huston Committee; Annette Weatherford Cowgill, Chairman, 5055 Montgomery Albany, Oregon.
