Santiam Grange Has Annual Christmas Dinner Friday Night

LYONS — Santiam Valley Grange held their Christmas dinner preceding the meeting Friday night, December 4. Mr. and Mrs. John Shafer were the hosts and furnished the ham.

At the meeting which followed, Thurman Smith, master, appointed the following committee chairmen: John Shafer, legislature; Giles Wagner, agriculture; music, Clara Wizer and women's activities, Lucy Palmer.

Sam Wizer was congratulated as he was installed on the executive committee of Pomona Grange. It was voted to hold the January meeting on the 15th as the regular meeting night falls on New Years.

The annual Christmas party was held with a gift exchange and each one brought a gift to be sent to the Marian Home in Sublimity. A short program was enjoyed by the Girls' Chorus and carol singing.

Marilyn Chapter To Meet Monday

Marilyn Chapter No. 145 OES will hold the December meeting next Monday, December 14 at 8 p. m.

The District Meeting which was scheduled for this meeting has been postponed. Unfortunately the Worthy Grand Matron, Grace I. Ewing of Portland, who was to make her official visit at this time, fell while in California and broke her leg. The meeting will be held at a later date.

Entertainment will be furnished by the Mill City Elementary School chorus, conducted by Herbert Bastuscheck.

All members of the Eastern Star in the area are cordially invited to attend.

Young Folks Conduct Church Services

A different type of service was the "celebration" conducted at the Presbyterian church during the worship hour last Sunday morning by Terry Henry, campus pastor at Oregon State University, and members of the Willamette Presbytery's committee on Youth Ministries. The event was well attended by people of all ages.

The out-of-town young people from Corvallis, Newport, Brownsville, Toledo, Albany, and other towns arrived early Saturday evening for a supper hosted by the local Senior High Youth group. Sponsors assisting with arrangements included Mr. and Mrs. Merle Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. John Lengacher, and Rev. and Mrs. Wayne Blake.

After remaining overnight in the classrooms of the church, the youths were served breakfast Sunday morning before the service during which everyone sang inspirational songs accompanied by several guitars. Those attending agreed it was an emotional experience involving everyone.

Following lunch, an afternoon meeting was held after which the visitors left for their homes.

Christmas Party Set For Bid or Bunch Club

The Bid or Bunch Pinochle club met at the home of Linda Bastuscheck Monday evening. The hostess served refreshments before the evening of cards.

Guests were Mrs. Carol Cree and Jeannette Louise Angus (Buttons?) Opoka. Lorraine Mills won high prize and Carol Cree low. Rilla Schaffer won the pinochle prize.

The next party will be December 21. This will be the Christmas party and it is tentatively set to be at the home of Jean Davidson.

Woman's Club To Meet at Kellys

The members and guests of the Mill City Woman's club will meet Tuesday evening December 15 at the home of Mrs. Charles Kelly. The meeting will start at 8 o'clock and will be followed by the annual Christmas party.

Mrs. Mel Rambo has announced that there will be a white elephant gift exchange and gifts are also to be brought for the young people at Chemawa Indian school.

In charge of the program are Mrs. Harry Mason, Mrs. Don Carlson and Mrs. Francis Bodeker.

Assisting the hostess will be Mrs. Glen Cummings and Mrs. William Beyer.

Agnes Carlson Holds 1000 Aces at Party

Mrs. Marilyn Drynan entertained members of the Round Robin Pinochle club at her home Monday evening.

Jessie Bodeker was a guest. The hostess served dessert before the card playing. Agnes Carlson won high prize, Marie Stewart, low and Mabel Yankus pinochle. During the play, Agnes Carlson, with Wilma Moore as her partner, held 1000 aces.

The next party will be at the home of Lu MacGregor on December 21. This will be the Christmas party.

Rebekahs To Hold Christmas Party Dec. 16th

Santiam Rebekah Lodge 166 met in regular session December 3rd with Noble Grand Mrs. Albert Carr presiding.

Mrs. Albert Harris was welcomed as a member by transfer. The Annual February I.O.O.F. Banquet and Ball will be February 6th at the Hilton Hotel in Portland.

A message received from Agnes Allen, District Deputy President announced she will pay the lodge an official visit on January 6th.

The committee to select a mirror for the new Student Lounge at the high school presented their selection which was unanimously approved. Mrs. Dave Barnhardt and Mrs. Albert Carr were given a warm applause for a job well done. Mrs. Walter Thomas, Kidney Association chairman for the local community, reported there were approximately 6,500 coupon points to be turned over to the county chairman for the quarter ending December 1.

The December 16th meeting will be a Christmas party with a gift exchange, potluck dessert refreshments. Mrs. Dave Barnhardt will furnish and trim the tree. Mrs. Ott Weidman was appointed chairman for the committee to decorate the hall and Mrs. Hugh Johnston chairman for the dining room committee. Mrs. Alex Bodeker will read the traditional Christmas story.

Noble Grand, Mrs. Albert Carr, honored Mrs. Walter Brisbin and Miss Daisy Geddes and presented them with corsages for their many years of service in the Lodge. The hour for the New Year's Eve potluck supper has been set for 7 p.m. All members of the I.O.O.F. and Rebekah Lodge, their families and friends are invited to participate.

Mrs. Robert Jobe, 3 Links president announced 3 Links meeting for 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Glenn Anderson in Gates.

The Lodge was entertained with readings by Mrs. Carr and Mrs. Barnhardt. Following the meeting, refreshments were served by Mrs. Robert Jobe and Mrs. Albert Carr. Mrs. Hugh Johnston and Mrs. Carr were surprised with card showers in honor of their birthdays.

Local Women at Federation Meeting

Mrs. O. K. DeWitt and Mrs. Melbourne Rambo attended the 4th District of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs on the Willamette University campus last Wednesday, December 2.

Mrs. DeWitt is conservation chairman from the Mill City club and the Fourth District. Mrs. Rambo is president of the local club.

Following the business meeting, entertainment was provided by the McNary High School Highlanders, a vocal group.
