Cree's To Celebrate 40th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell O. Cree will celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary Sunday, April 18th, with an open house in their home at 215 S. E. Kingwood Drive, Mill City.

Friends and relatives are invited to call between the hours of 1 and 5 p.m.

Lowell Cree and Rose Dickinson were married April 16, 1931, in Tillamook, Oregon. They have spent most of their married life in Mill City, where Mr. Cree is self-employed in the logging industry.

Hosting the event will be the couple's two daughters and husbands; Patricia and William McClintock and Betty Lou and Gordon McMorris; and their son and wife, Donald and Carol Cree. Also assisting at the event will be their three grandchildren, Patty, Mark and Sue McClintock.

Others attending were Alma Olmstead, Bertha Young, Bea Hiatt, Mabel Downing, Zeta Prichard, Katie Skillings, Bernice Bridges, Pauline Tobberts, Berta Allen, Leota Worden, Margaret Kunkle, Jaunita Davis, Doris Roy, Anna Holzfuss, Ruth Lyons, Mary Sieg and the hostess.

Lyons Extension Unit Elects Lucille Huber As New President

LYONS—"Vegetables Please" was the lesson for the meeting of the Lyons Extension Unit held Thursday morning at the City Hall beginning at 10 a. m. Alma Olmstead and Lu Brown, the project leaders, gave a very interesting demonstration. During the business meeting, election of officers was the main business with Lucille Huber elected president, Helen Johnston, vice president, and Eleanor LaMunyan, secretary-treasurer.

A discussion was held and several plans to attend Achievement day to be held in Albany Wednesday, April 14. Present for the meeting were Helen Johnston, June McPeeters, Alma Olmstead, Bertha Young, Kathy Lathrope, Lee Loomis, Alma Spellmeyer, Lu Brown, Dorothy Downer, Fern Pederson, and Alta Bodeker.

WSCS Meets at Howard Naue Home

LYONS—Mrs. Howard Naue was hostess for the meeting of the Womens Society of Christian Service at her home Tuesday afternoon. The meeting opened with short devotions with Mrs. Wilson Stevens presiding in the absence of Alta Bodeker, president. The usual business was carried out and plans were made for the annual Birthday Luncheon with Tuesday, April 20, the date set and to be held in the dining room of the United Methodist church at 12 o'clock noon. The price of the luncheon is your birthday pennies. Come and bring your pennies and enjoy the fellowship. Mrs. Ethel Huffman is chairman and will appoint other members to assist her.

Friendship Luncheon Held by Ladies of Presbyterian Church

Mrs. Phyllis Griffitt, Associate Dean of Students at Oregon College of Education and guest speaker for the Spring "friendship luncheon" last Thursday afternoon at Fellowship Hall, was very well-received. Over fifty members and guests of the Presbyterian Women's Association attended the delightful affair, arranged by the president, Mrs. William Lyness, and her committees.

Acting as toastmistress for the luncheon was Mrs. Roy Podrabsky, who made a few opening remarks, followed by the invocation which was given by the Rev. Wayne Blake. Musical entertainment was furnished by Miss Twyla Fultz and her violin, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Eldon Hutchinson.

The head table was beautifully centered with an arrangement of deep rose camellias, flanked by green tapers, and the small tables about the room were individually centered with a small nose-gay of camellias in an attractive vase. Bouquets of daffodils also were used in decoration of the large room.

Mrs. Griffitts gave her own interesting testimony on the subject of "What Christ Means To Me," giving personal highlights of her own dedicated life. For two years she was Assistant Dean of Women at the University of Oregon, where she received her master's degree, going to O.C.E. at Monmouth in 1967. In June of 1968, she married Everett Griffitt, who was the father of three children, ages 7, 4, and 2, by a previous marriage, the smallest being an adopted child.

Only in her early 30's Mrs. Griffitts has had much experience in working with youth, especially at the college level, whom she quotes as being "sick of phony adults." However, she thinks there is a spiritual awakening fast taking place on the college campus as a whole and that students are turning to Christ for a common bond. Her suggestion was that more people should open their homes to young people and that they be impressed with the lessening value of material things.

The afternoon's door-prize, a lovely caladium plant, was won by Mrs. Lloyd Girod. A group of seventh-grade girls assisted by serving as waitresses. Name-tags helped in creating a friendly atmosphere. Mrs. Carl Kelly headed the food committee; Elsie Ohmart the telephone committee; and Clara Epperson and Faye Verbeck decorated tables.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Moore Announce Birth of 1st Child

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Moore from Alameda, Calif., are the proud parents of their first child, a son, born April 10. He was named for his two grandfathers, Daniel Marvin.

Mrs. Moore is the former Elaine Stafford of Mill City and Mr. Moore is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Moore, Jr., also of Mill City.

Great grandparents are Mrs. Eda Stafford of Gates and Mr. and Mrs. Danny Moore, Sr., of Chamacum, Wn.

Pat Moore is stationed at Alameda with the U. S. Marine Corps.

Mrs. Stafford has been in California with her son-in-law and daughter the past week and Mr. Stafford and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lee Stafford and son, Timmy, went south Saturday. Mrs. Stafford's husband, who is in the U. S. Navy, docked during the week and joined his family. They plan to return to Mill City the middle of this week.

This is the Moore's first grandchild and the Stafford's second, both grandsons.

Easter Party Held at Elmer Shaw Home

Mrs. Elmer Shaw assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Bud Bilyeu was hostess at the Shaw home Saturday afternoon for a Easter party for a group of small children.

The Shaw home was decorated using the Easter motif.

During the afternoon the children enjoyed an Easter Egg hunt (between showers) in the yard. Each little guest was given a pretty Easter basket made by the hostesses to put their eggs in.

Following the "hunt" games were played in the house.

The children were seated at a gaily decorated table where refreshments were served.

Mrs. Bilyeu made large decorated Easter Bunny cookies which were presented to each child.

Attending were Denise and Dianna Andrews from Myrtle Creek, Keith, Kenneth and Kimberly Penrose, Angie Wiley, Leslie and Heidi White, Cheryl Swigart, and Randy Bilyeu.
