Sixty-Third Annual Convention of Rebekahs Held in Mill City Saturday

Santiam Rebekah Lodge No. 166 hosted the 63rd annual convention of District 7 at the IOOF hall May 1.

Registration began at 12 noon, canapes and cookies were served to the arriving guests. Being May Day, a Spring theme was carried out through the entire building with flowers and May baskets and wall hangings with the Assembly President's mottoes and themes.

The meeting was opened by Noble Grand Mrs. Otto Weidman and the following distinguished guests were introduced and welcomed: Mrs. Jessie Goude, president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon; Mrs. Kathryn Sweetland, Assembly Chaplain; Mrs. June Bartow, State Endowment Chairman; Mrs. Violet Chastain, State Good of the Order Chairman; Mrs. Clem Ohlsen, past grand secretary of the L.A.P.M. of Oregon and District Deputy Presidents from Districts 7A and 4A. Also greeted was Selma Silcox from Everett, Wn.

Ideal Rebekah Lodge No. 223 from Turner seated the 1971 convention officers: Mrs. Albert Carr, chairman; Mrs. Manuel Keene, vice chairman; and Mrs. David Barnhardt, secretary, and 12 appointed officers.

Mrs. Barnhardt gave the address of welcome and was responded to by Mrs. James Versteeg.

The following committees were named: Resolutions, Mrs. F. T. Mitchell, Mrs. Freda Thayer, and Mrs. Wayne Gilbert; Thanks, Mrs. Rick McCoy, and Mrs. A. C. Van Nuys; Memorial, Mrs. George Little, Mrs. J. L. Harter, and Mrs. Edyth Bass; Press, Mrs. Walter Thomas, Mrs. Leroy Plane, and Mrs. Alex Bodeker.

Exemplifications were presented by Ideal No. 223, Leone No. 84, Santiam No. 166, Eva

No. 92, and Mt. Jefferson No. 78.

Past Chairman's roll call was answered by 12 from District 7 and 5 from other districts.

Mrs. Otto Weidman read a short history of each chairman's year in office for District 7. Eleven lodges answered roll call of lodges with Leone No. 84 winning the attendance award.

Eva Rebekah Lodge No. 92 invited the 1973 District meeting to be held in Stayton and it was accepted.

Resolutions presented and passed was that District meetings, with presidential consent, begin at 10 a. m. and eliminate the evening meeting.

Officers for the 1972 District meeting at Turner were elected: Mrs. Manuel Keene, chairman; Mrs. Ben Cole, vice chairman; Mrs. James Versteeg, secretary. Ideal No. 223 installed the 1972 elective and appointed officers.

Following the close of the meeting the members and guests were entertained with selections by members of Ideal, Eva and Leone lodges.

A potluck supper was served in the dining room to the members and guests.
