

LOCALS

Stanley Ogden is tearing down an old barn located at their place in Ogden addition in Mill City. He said he figures the old building to be about 70 years old. He plans to salvage some of the lumber to make a porch on his house.

Larry and Jimmy Jacobson, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Jacobson of John Day, are spending some time here visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. William McCall, Vickie and Kevin have just returned from a two weeks vacation which took them to Cashiers, N. C., where they visited with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert McCall. Accompanying them on the trip were his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde McCall and Ronnie of Coos Bay. While there, Bill got to see many of his cousins that he had not seen for 15 or 20 years. It rained nearly all the time they were there and they ran into several thunderstorms on the return trip home.

Friends will be glad to hear that Mrs. Dick Sims, who is seriously ill and in the intensive care ward at Salem Memorial in Salem, is showing some improvement according to her husband. He said Monday that following surgery it was touch and go for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Brusasco recently returned from a vacation in Southern California. Mr. Brusasco, a merchant seaman, is home for a three-month vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Peterson attended a Michigan picnic last Sunday in Auburn, Wn. Mr. Peterson met several old timers from his own hometown area. The Petersons took the coast route home and spent the night at Cannon Beach, and then enjoyed one of the first warm sunny days on the coast this summer.

Weekend guests at the Bill Lyness home were Mrs. Lyness' parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Moore of Chimacum, Wn.

Studio of Hair Design open six days a week. Barbara Davison on duty Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Ellen Stahlman on duty Tuesday through Saturday. Betty Klutke on duty Thursday through Saturday. Hours 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Phone 897-2100. 22tf

PAINT-UP

We Give S&H Green Stamps
MILL CITY HARDWARE
Phone 897-2977
Fred Schofield, Owner

In the early days, the above picture was taken in 1924, the Santiam River, which now has a pretty constant flow looked like this. After the spring runoff, or heavy rains, the river dried up to a trickle. This picture was brought to The Enterprise by Mrs. Mary Stafford, and was taken by Ferd Jones. The above picture was taken at a point just below Niagara dam.

Guests at the Burton Borroughs home over the July 4th weekend were her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Moody and her mother, Mrs. Daisy Lewellen, all of Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Morgan and sons returned this week from vacationing at Prineville reservoir. Mrs. Morgan said the weather was not too good, but it didn't rain all the time. They did have one thunder shower. The fishing was not too good, she said. Others of the family on the outing were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hines, her parents and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Dine Hines of Bend and their guest, Kenny Green from Washington State.

Ovenight guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Verbeck Sunday night were Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Wirick and family of Newport. Wirick is a State Police officer in that vicinity. Also stopping by the Verbeck home Saturday afternoon was their son, Richard Verbeck of Tangent, who was on his way back after having spent a week at Camp Pioneer with several of his Boy Scouts for whom he is scoutmaster. Verbeck is also a State Police officer.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Scott, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Howard Farnen, spent the weekend on a clamming expedition at Fort Stevens near Astoria. They report the clams as not too numerous, and the weather not too good, although it cleared up Sunday. Mrs. Farnen was able to make the trip in spite of being taped up as the result of a recent fall in which she cracked several ribs.

Mrs. Ellen Arthur of Beaverton, a niece of Mrs. Mabel Van Duzen, spent Sunday with her aunt, the two ladies enjoying the Presbyterian church outdoor services and picnic in the park.

Miss Mary Gay ReMine, accompanied by a friend from the Seattle area, spent the weekend here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Shields ReMine.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Moffatt were dinner guests Sunday of Miss Leona Lamb in Portland. Miss Charlotte Logan, of Bismarck, N. D. was also a guest of Miss Lamb. She had been spending a couple of weeks visiting relatives and friends in the Seattle-Tacoma area before leaving for her home Monday morning. Miss Logan is secretary to the Attorney General of the State of North Dakota.

Frank Smith of Forest Grove and Charles Kelly spent from Thursday until Sunday fishing at Diamond Lake and reported very good luck.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Downey of Los Angeles spent Friday with the Jack Colburns. After lunch they drove to Mongold and the visitors were most enthusiastic about the beauty of the canyon.

Four Varsity Cheerleaders from Santiam High school are attending a five-day cheerleaders' camp at Lewis and Clark college in Portland this week. Those going are Jenny Chance, Sonja Martin, Doris Hovey, and Rebecca Savage. The girls will be learning new yells and stunts and exchanging ideas with girls from other schools.

Visitors the past week at the Darrel Easter home were his brothers' families, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Easter, Gladstone, and Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Easter and daughter, Sally, Tillamook, their mother, Mrs. M. A. Easter, Milwaukie, their sister, Mrs. Janet Lee, Longdale, Calif., and friends Mr. and Mrs. Flip Martin from New York State.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Grandstaff, Springfield, was the site of a party celebrating the 21st birthday of Alan Yankus. Present were Thomas Stinchfield and Cindy Moffett, North Bend; Thomas Pardee, Stanford, Calif.; Linelle Wagner, Arcadia, Calif., and John Powell, formerly of Stayton, and now living at Dexter. Mr. Grandstaff is a former Mill City resident.

George Grant (Grant's Cafe) suffered an apparent stroke early Monday morning at the mill where he is employed. He is in Salem Memorial hospital where his condition has not been disclosed.

Patty McClintock spent the weekend with Lori Kent in Salem. They attended the Rainmakers' Parade and helped at the Soap Box Derby Saturday morning.

Craig Shaw returned home Sunday evening after more than a week of fire-fighting near Heber, Ariz. Craig helped fight a 59,500 acre fire on the Fort Apache Indian Reservation.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bryan and Mr. and Mrs. Al Yankus enjoyed an after-bowling dinner Sunday evening at McNary Country club in Salem. Mr. and Mrs. Bryan returned to Oakland Monday to finish moving to Oregon.

Peggy Cooper was home this weekend to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albin Cooper. Peggy, a 1968 graduate of Santiam High, is attending summer school this year at Oregon State University.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Phillips returned home July 9 after a five-week tour of the United Kingdom and South Ireland. They said they enjoyed the trip very much and saw some beautiful scenery but none more beautiful than that of the Santiam Canyon area.

Several local area women participated in the Women's State Bowling tournament this weekend in Eugene. Making the trip were Velma Cribbs, Judi Swigart, Sunnie Chance, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Barnhardt and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Yankus of Mill City, and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Meyers of Sublimity.

Mr. and Mrs. Rocky Moore spent six days vacationing in Fairbanks, Alaska. They left Portland Airport July 2 and returned July 8. Highlighting the trip was a river boat tour down the Tanana River, a train tour of McKinley National Park and the University of Alaska in Fairbanks. They reported beautiful weather on the trip.

Mrs. Clarence Berry and son Richard visited at Mrs. Alice Watson's and Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Harlan on Monday evening. They are from Vista, California. Mr. Berry's husband is a cousin of Mrs. Harlan and a nephew of Mrs. Watson.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Rambo and their grandchildren, Steven and Elizabeth who have been visiting with them, attended a reception Sunday at the Middle School in Stayton for Dr. and Mrs. Maryln Shelton of Ohio. The young couple were recently married in Illinois and were enroute to a honeymoon trip in Hawaii. Dr. Shelton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Shelton of Stayton and is a professor at the University of Ohio. Mrs. Shelton is also in the education field.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Hovey and Doris spent several days last week West of Salem where they picked cherries. They pulled their travel trailer over and camped in a regular campground. Mrs. Hovey brought Doris home Saturday night so she could attend the cheerleaders camp in Portland this week.

Visiting Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Mel Rambo and other relatives in the area were Mr. and Mrs. James Araujo of Castro Valley, Calif. Mrs. Araujo is Mr. Rambo's niece.

Lions Elect International President

ROBERT J. UPLINGER

Robert J. Uplinger of Syracuse, New York, was elected President of Lions International at the Association's 54th Annual Convention in Las Vegas, Nevada, June 22-25. Serving as the 55th President of the world's largest humanitarian service organization, Uplinger leads some 960,000 members in 25,300 clubs located in 146 countries and geographic areas throughout the world. Lions International is best known for its aid to the blind and sight conservation activities, international relations programs, and its many community service projects. "Lionism is Commitment" will be the primary theme during Uplinger's 1971-1972 Presidential Year. The development of the local Lions Clubs through the individual member's commitment to all aspects of service will be emphasized.

Too Late to Classify

FOR SALE—Large size Simmons hideabed. Shabby on outside, inside like new. Edith Mason, 181 S. W. Ivy Mill City. Ph. 897-2935. 28

If the number following your name on The Enterprise label reads 5-11 it's time to send a check for renewal.

Come in and meet the New Manager at
Circle K in Mill City
BETTY McCALL

Circle K is proud to announce that Mrs. McCall has agreed to manage our store here.

Make it your headquarters for all your Groceries and Sundries.

Canned Goods
Frozen Foods
Non-Prescription Drugs
Meats and Dairy Products
Cigarettes and Candy

Breads and Pastry
Money Orders
Fruits and Vegetables
Ice
Beverages (Warm and Cold)

Open 7 a. m. to 11 p. m. For Your Convenience

BETTER LIVING FROM TREES

A NEAT PACKAGE!

Yes, a world without paper would be dreary indeed. Paper, like thousands of other products Americans use every day, comes from trees. That's why we grow trees as a crop. Tree Farming means goods, jobs, wildlife and recreation—full use of the forests.

- Frank Lumber Company, Inc. Mill City, Oregon
- Young & Morgan Timber Co. Mill City and Idanha, Oregon
- The Mill City Enterprise Printers-Publishers
- U.S. Plywood-Champion Papers, Inc. Idanha-Lebanon
- Mel Round Trucking Idanha, Oregon
- Stout Creek Lumber Company Mehama, Oregon

KEEP YOUR RENTAL PROPERTY FILLED WITH AN AD IN THIS NEWSPAPER...
ANYTHING FROM RENTING A BEDROOM TO SELLING A CLASSY RESIDENCE
CALL US NOW

Mill City Enterprise

Kodachrome or Ektachrome Processing

SUPPLY & PROCESSING of 20 EXPOSURE 35mm FILM

Regular Value $2.25 Each Special 99c

MILL CITY PHARMACY
Ph. 897-2812 Frank Strongquist, Owner Mill City

LIMITED OFFER