Theresa Lynn Lankins Marries James Ross Saturday in Salem Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Theresa Lynn Lankins to James Edward Ross was held Saturday, August 28, at the St. Vincent DePaul Catholic church in Salem. Officiating at the 6 p. m. double ring ceremony was Father Robert J. Crum.

The bride, a resident of Salem, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude T. Lankins of Mill City. Parents of the groom are Mrs. Ruby Ross and Ralph L. Ross, both of Klamath Falls.

Miss Lynn Fischer and Joe Smith sang the "Lord's Prayer," "More," and "We've Only Just Begun." Organist was Mrs. Paul Riedl.

Pink bows marked the pews and the altar was flanked with baskets of pink glads, white mums and burgandy carnations. Candelighters were the altar boys.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown fashioned with a high, ruffled collar, empire waist and beautiful bishop sleeves with a chantilly lace panel adorning the front of the gown. All-over chantilly appliques surrounded the detachable train. Her shoulder length bouffant veil of imported English nylon illusion was held by flowers of Peu d' Ange lace accented with seed pearls. She carried a cascade of pink elf roses, white baby breath and ivy, held with a burgandy ribbon. For good luck, she wore a sixpence in her shoe.

Honor maid was Mrs. Dennis Cline. Her gown was a full length, pink shantung with short bell sleeves and empire waist with a bow and semitrain in back. She carried a nosegay of pink daisies. Bridesmaids were Mrs. John Blair, sister of the groom, and Miss Ginny Lankins, sister of the bride. Their gowns were identical to the maid of honor. Flower girl and ring bearer were Loreli Kolding and Matthew Kolding niece and nephew of the groom.

Serving as best man was Robert Rawlins and ushers were Larry Gasperine and Ralph Buckingham, all of Klamath Falls.

The bride's mother wore a pink crepe gown with pink accessories and the bridegroom's mother chose a green ensemble with green accessories.

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Elmer Baranick and Mrs. Mat Kolding cutting the cake. Pouring were Mrs. Marian Torrey and Mrs. Susan Neiger. Miss June Kennedy passed the guest book and the Misses Debbie Lankins and Ellen Hoyven presided at the gift table. The reception room was decorated with a punch fountain surrounded by greens, pink glads, white mums and burgandy carnations.

For a wedding trip to British Columbia, the new Mrs. Ross chose a burgandy suit. The couple will be at home after September 7 at 696 Oregon Avenue N. E. in Salem.

She is a medical assistant and he is a student at Chemeketa, studying law enforcement.
