Betty Kelle
Last week Mary Stafford and her brother, Lou Myers, drove up to the end of South Breitenbush road. She said it was very dry and there seemed to be very few deer around. Coming back they stopped at the Hot Springs and took mineral baths and had dinner at Detroit.

Jerry Truhill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Truhill, a naval career man has made the rank of E9 Master Chief. He is in Vietnam on his fifth cruise.

Mr. and Mrs. Walt Rochon and family with Thelma Legassie and two sons spent three days camping on the coast at Camp Lookout. Although Thelma has lived here three years, it was her first time to see the Pacific ocean. The weather was lovely and for souvenirs they brought back some sunburns.

Mr. and Mrs. Con Vetter have returned home after spending most of the summer visiting many relatives. Mr. Vetter has been a school bus driver here for the past 10 years but has now retired from that position.

Bright and early Thursday morning the trailer moving truck was at the mobile home of Arlene Taylor, to move her home to the property she recently purchased at Kingston. Surprisingly, her smiling face was to be seen Friday in the Gates Postoffice. Really wasn't because she couldn't bear to leave our fair city but that she had promised Betty Johnson to sub for her in the Post Office.

Sandersons reported no water pressure Saturday to Mayor Lorraine Mills who called the water superintendent, Marvin Edwards. He found the problem and Jerry Kazunas and Pat O'Neil dug up the water line at Sorbin & Santiam streets and repaired the broken pipe. The water had to be shut off and a few people were unavoidably inconvenienced in order to repair the line. When the new system is installed these problems will be solved.

Hollis and Catherine Turnidge spent an enjoyable weekend traveling through eastern Oregon. Friday night they camped at LaGrande and had a terrific rain and thunder storm. They were more on the edge of it, but could see the lightning flashing in the distance. Hollis has hunted over in the Troy area and wanted Catherine to see that part of Oregon. Some of the roads they traveled were very narrow and bumpy with drop-offs of a couple hundred feet on the edge, in places could only pass another car where there was a pullout. They spent the second night just out of Mt. Vernon and met and visited with a number of other campers. They took a side trip on the way home to attend an antique auction but were disappointed with the "junk."

Melody Barnhardt spent the weekend visiting in Tillamook with a friend who was in her dorm at college.

Terry and Delores Drake were in Portland on Friday to attend the funeral for his uncle, Elno Wirkkala. Mr. Wirkkala was working on a tower when the wind took his hard hat off. When he made a grab for the hat he lost his balance and fell from the tower.

Attending the fair on opening day were Mr. and Mrs. Dave Barnhardt who reported 500 other people from this area. They must have met at least Also at the fair were Mr. and Mrs. Walt Thomas, Sr., and Chris. Toni says it was perfect fair weather and there were wall to wall people. She did not get to see nearly all she wanted to, and will return another day with daughter-in-law, Carol, to see more of it.

Just returned home from a leisurely three-week motor trip, are Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Tucker and granddaughters, Cindy and Teresa. Their daughter, Betty and family, had been visiting here earlier. Betty's husband had returned home to go back to work, with Betty staying for a little longer visit. Taking six days to get to Betty's home in Clarion, Iowa, they spent one day at Yellowstone National Park and visited the Crater of the Moon in Idaho.

After spending five days at Betty's they went to Rangely, Colo., to visit a sister of Mrs. Tucker, Mrs. Gordon Sullivan. Another sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Morse, of Mesa, Ariz., were there at the same time so gave them a chance for a nice visit. They spent five days there also. This made a very nice wind-up trip for granddaughters Cindy and Teresa, who had spent most of the summer at the Tucker home. Day after they got back, their mother, came and picked them up to return to their home at Beaver.

Monday luncheon visitors at the Clyde Oliver home were Jack and Ina Olicker and two boys from Sherwood. They had been camping up near Wickiup and stopped in on their way home. On Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Brock of Salem, were up for the day and stayed for dinner at the Oliver home. Ed Oliver and a friend from Dallas stopped in a couple of different days this past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baechler attended the wedding on Saturday in Salem of Miss Teresa Lankins at the St. Vincent dePaul church and the reception following.

Dennis, Sheryl and Tamara Cline of The Dalles were visitors for a short time at the Louise Oliver home. They had attended the Lankins wedding. Sunday at 1:15 p. m. the fire siren rang and the fire truck rushed to the George Grant home for what turned out to be a chimney fire, with no damage done.

Weekend visitors at the Ed Delker home were their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Kermit of Hillsboro and two children. Saturday they all went up to fish but ended up picking huckleberries. The mosquitos were terrible and the higher up the mountain, the worse the mosquitos.

Miss Helen Watson of Portland has been a visitor for several days at the Harold Wilson home. On Saturday they picked up Edith Haines of Mill City and made a tour of the area to show Miss Watson some of the changes that have been made, having dinner out before returning home. On Sunday, accompanied by Kay Colburn of Mill City, they took another trip around the area.

Mrs. Harold Wilson reports this morning (Monday) that Linn County has its road crew resurfacing the road from the bridge east. She says they are putting on two layers of rock and oil.

Laura Koenig of Woodburn was an overnight guest of Fritz Ward this weekend. On Sunday they drove to Silverton to visit friends.

Visiting at the Virgil Lewis home for several days this past week were Mr. and Mrs. Pat Murphy and four children of San Jose, Calif. Mrs. Murphy (Sally) is a cousin of Jan and a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Paul X. Smith. They had been on a three-week vacation that took them to North Dakota to visit his sister, to Yellowstone Park, up into Canada and for a visit with Sally's mother in Washington. The Lewis home was their last stop on the way home. They left Monday morning.

A week ago the Virgil Lewis family spent five days in the Coos Bay area. Much of the time it was rainy and windy but they managed a little time down on the beach.

Taking an active part in the State Fair this year is Lori Levon, who was one of the dancers in the OSEA line on the Oregon Talent show on Sunday. Lori will be dancing a solo number on Saturday at 3:30 at the talent show.

Leaving on the bus Monday for Seattle were Rebecca Phillips after about a three-week visit with Lori Levon.

A meeting was held Monday evening at the This 'N That shop for some of the girls interested in Toile painting. Any one interested can contact Betty Kelle at the shop or at home by phone in the evening.

Those at the first meeting were Sandy Whisenhunt, Kathy Meader, Rhonda Meader, Mary Stubbs, Jessie Healey, Nell Lockrem, and Geri South.

Injured Monday in the woods was Clement Johns, an employee of P&B Logging Co. He was hit on the head with a choker. A number of stitches were required to close the wound.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. C. Davis from Arcata, Calif., and Mrs. Kate Fox from Salem were Thursday evening dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Allen.

Recent visitors at the Henry Croissant home were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Medias from Aurora, Leonard and Vi Wolfer from Canby and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Reynolds and family from Vancouver, B. C.

Laurance Walworth of Salem was a Sunday guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Julian.

Mrs. Mary Fink spent several days over the weekend in Portland at the home of her sister, Mrs. Grace Sandberg. She also visited another sister, Miss Ellen Daugherty.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Bodeker with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Johnson and son, Eric, of Auburn, Wn., returned home Sunday night after a week's vacation in southern Oregon, Nevada and California.

Mrs. Russell Thiel and Mrs. Ben Walton from North Bend, spent the weekend in Lyons. They were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walton and also visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Salter.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Julian spent several days last week at the coast they were at Waldport.

Philippi Slates Punt, Pass, Kick Competition

It was announced this week that registrations are now being accepted at the Philippi Motor Company in Stayton for the annual Punt, Pass and Kick Competition for boys ages 8 to 13.

The Competition is presented by the Ford Motor Company and sponsored by the local dealer, Philippi.

All registrations must be made at the Philippi Showroom in Stayton no later than October 1. The contest will be held Saturday, October 2, at the Stayton High School Football field.

Tennis shoes or sneakers are recommended for all competition. There is no physical contact involved and is merely an ability contest of throwing and kicking the ball for accuracy.

The Zone C Competition will be held in Stayton this year October 9. In previous years, it has been held in Molalla and Albany.

and drawing for prizes.

Miss Louise Schiewek was taken to Santiam Memorial hospital in Stayton the last of the week for medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jobe received word Saturday of the death of his father, Abe Jobe, at Spigler, Okla. He was 84 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Johnson from Northfield, Minnesota, were Wednesday evening dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Phillips. Eric was a roommate of their son John when both attended college at Carlton, Minn.

Mrs. L. G. Hannaford and children from Olympia, Wash., were last week guests at the home of her mother, Mrs. Effie Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Crow from Stonefall, Arkansas, are visiting at the home of his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Choate.

Sandy Landers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orval Landers underwent an appendectomy at the Salem Memorial hospital Monday. She is reported as doing fine.
