

LYONS

By Eva Bressler

The Lyons Extension unit held their first meeting of the fall at the city hall. Lesson of the day was preparing to be a leader or teacher, with June Kokstis and June Pederson as project leaders. At the business meeting the following committees were appointed: Alta Bodaker, publicity; Lu Brown, ACWW and June McPheeters, hospitality. Attending besides those mentioned above were Mabel Downing, Alma Olmstead, Helen Johnston, Jo Anderson, Shirley Stinson, Lucille Huber, Eleanor LaMunyan, and Gladys Nygaard.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Shepherd of Mill City and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Roten of Lyons will host a reception for their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Shepherd on their 50th wedding anniversary. Lucy Bates of Scio and Floyd Shepherd were married in Albany, September 28, 1921, and have lived in Mill City all their married life. Friends are invited through the press to greet them in the social rooms of the First Christian Church in Mill City Sunday, September 26, between the hours of 3 and 5 p. m. The couple request there be no gifts.

Mrs. Florence Burmester returned from an eight-day vacation trip. Her most enjoyable time was the day and night spent with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stepanek in Coos Bay. Other points of interest were Diamond Lake, Crater Lake, Oregon Caves, and the Trees of Mystery in California, and the Oregon coastline.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Downing were hosts for the Wah-tonka High rally squad when the football team came to Stayton to play Stayton high. Guests at the Downing home were Tim Kimball, Cherrrie Leibbrandt, Pam Clawson, Perry McLeod, Lina Witesell, Cathy Carleton, and chaperone, Mrs. Robert Carleton of The Dalles, a daughter of the Downings.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gunter and family of Mehama have purchased the Elmer Trip house and moved in over the weekend.

Mrs. Ida Smith of Portland is spending several days at the home of Mrs. Hazel Lewis. William Grant is now convalescing at home after spending some time at Santiam Memorial hospital in Stayton for medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Olmstead were Sunday guests in Corvallis at the home of her mother, Mrs. Bertha Young.

W. W. Carter, who suffered a stroke and is in Santiam Memorial hospital in Stayton, is reported to be some improved.

Mrs. Leota Worden spent several days in Stayton at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Lierman, with the children while the Liermans were on vacation.

Mrs. Gladys Stiffler has sold her house to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stockburger and moved Saturday to Salem where she will be near her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Simpson.

Mrs. Hester Searle was taken to Salem Memorial hospital Friday evening for X-rays following a fall at her home. She had a fractured hip and was to undergo surgery Sunday morning. She lived in a mobile home near her daughter, Mrs. Charles Power.

GATES

Betty Kelle

Doris Rogers has announced the beginning of the oil painting classes, sponsored by Chemeketa Community College September 28 at the Gates Community hall. The classes begin at 10:30 and those wishing may bring a sack lunch. This is the same type class as held last spring. The fee is $15 for 10 lessons.

This is a last reminder to friends of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Rush of the reception to be held Sunday, September 26, at the Gates Community House. The couple requests no gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Kangiser have moved to near Fresno, Calif. He has been employed as a mechanic at Hoover's in Mill City.

Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilson were hosts for Mr. and Mrs. Chris Barker of Mill City and Nellie Allen. The occasion was Mr. Barker's 84th birthday anniversary.

Arthur Blackburn was taken to a Salem hospital September 9 after suffering a stroke. He is showing signs of improvement and anxious to come back home.

Mrs. Sara Rains, formerly of Gates, now making her home with her son, Leon Cline in Sweet Home, was up last week for a few days visit with her sister, Mrs. Arthur Blackburn. After Mrs. Rains returned home, Mrs. Blackburn went to Scio to spend a little time at the home of a daughter, Mrs. James Briles.

Lori Levon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Levon participated in the Oktoberfest at Mt. Angel Saturday and Sunday. She is a member of the Carol Rae dancers and took part in the line of dancers for two numbers and then soloed in two numbers, at the entertainment put on in the St. Mary's school auditorium.

Wednesday evening was the second class of tole painting at the This 'N That shop and due to the interest shown there will be classes on Friday evenings also. Gals are having a great time and don't be surprised to see lots of daisies sprouting around town.

School seems to be in full swing again and everything is getting down to normal. On visiting Miss South in her second grade classroom the other afternoon found she had made a birthday train for her class. Thought it would be nice to mention the September birthday children and find she doesn't have any, so we backtracked to August and found Shawn Drake celebrated a birthday on the 5th, Roy Blackburn on the 11th and Patrick Krecklow on the 26th.

Sometimes the best laid plans sure get fouled up. Hollis and Catherine Turnidge and the Skip Meaders had been planning a camping trip over the hill for several weeks. They were all packed ready to go, Hollis had worked that day and they were to meet him up the highway when he got off work. About 1 o'clock he called from the Ranger station saying he was going out on the fire fighting crew. Skip and Kathy decided as long as they were all packed to go over on the McKenzie and camp out. Saturday evening the Turnidges decided to go over and join them. Not knowing they were coming the Meaders were really surprised. It ended up they packed up went on over to the Ochochos Saturday evening so they got to finish part of the weekend as originally planned. Of course the troubles they had coming home were definitely not part of the plans but the kids were surely glad they all had been traveling together.

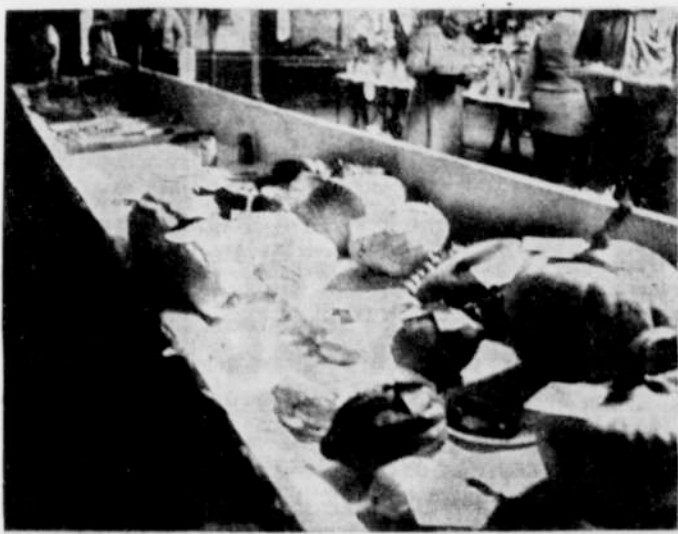

Janet Lewis was telling me they had quite a bit of excitement over on the school grounds Friday. A pony and two horses were loose and running all over the place, and just didn't want to be caught. Several people gathered to catch and find who owned them. The chase led them up toward Mad Creek before the animals were finally caught.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Henness had two of the grandchildren last weekend while the children's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Henness took a pack trip to Marion Lake.

Mrs. Herbert Hampton spent Sunday in Camas, Wn., attending a gathering of June graduates of the cake decorating class. Mrs. Hampton had graduated in June with this class from Clackamas Community College in Oregon City. Gere Porington of Gladstone was the teacher, and for many years was a judge of the cake decorating entries at the State Fair. They enjoyed a potluck lunch and learned much from the exchange of ideas.

DID YOU KNOW? That the western meadowlark was chosen bird of Oregon by popular vote of the school children in every county of the state in an election in the Spring of 1927, sponsored by the Oregon Audubon Society.
