Bells Celebrate 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Bell celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary on Sunday afternoon, October 17, at a reception held at St. Mary's. Hosting the reception was their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Mattson and five grandchildren.

Both lifelong residents of the area, they went through school together and Mrs. Bell taught school before her marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Bell worked at the Bank while attending college, and on graduation was employed there full time until he opened his present service office. They were married October 11, 1921, at St. Boniface Catholic Church and moved into the house on Ida Street in Stayton where they have lived now for fifty years. The couple had two daughters, one of whom is deceased.

Church Association To Have Speaker November 18th

The Presbyterian Women's Association met at Fellowship Hall last Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Earl Loucks as hostess for the dessert luncheon. About 10 ladies attended.

President Lee Lyness conducted the business meeting with Mary Kelly acting as secretary and reading the minutes of the previous session. The treasurer's report was sent by Mary Tuers, who works 3 days each week so was unable to be present.

A detailed clothing report on the recent sewing assignment was given by Clara Epperson, and letters of appreciation read. The association had sent children's clothing to the Embudo Presbyterian Hospital and a layette to the Medical Center, both located in Anchorage, Alaska, as well as bandages and baby-jackets through Ecumenical Missions and Relations of the Presbyterian Church. A check of $25.00 was also sent to Willamette Presbyterian Society for material packages.

Mrs. Lyness announced that Mrs. Marge Lottis of Salem, Leader of an Interdenominational Bible Study group, has been secured as speaker for the luncheon at noon on Thursday, November 18, when members and interested ladies will be invited to attend.

Appointed on committees for the luncheon were the following: Telephone, Elsie Ohmart, Lettie Swan, and Mary Kelly; Table decorations, and "greeters," Judy Lengacher, Deanie Kelly, and Virginia Fisher; Food, Pat Whitmore, Susie Stewart, Rosamond Remine, and Linda Bastuscheck; Clean-up, Mary Loucks, Ruth Cummings, and other volunteers. A baby-sitter will be provided, and there will be special music.

A card of appreciation was read from Dora Rogers for the cards and calls received as the result of a recent fall at her home from which she has recovered.

It was announced that the Women's Bible Study class will be held at 10 o'clock each Monday morning in the church rooms. Anyone interested is cordially invited.

The meeting was closed with prayer, and the next meeting was announced for December 9 with Lettie Swan as hostess at her home, it having been decided not to meet in November due to the luncheon plans.
