Delbara Goforth
And Robert Belyeu
Married Nov. 20

The Mill City Presbyterian church was the setting Saturday afternoon, November 20, when Miss Delbara Dean Goforth became the bride of Fred Robert Belyeu. Rev. Wayne Blake officiated at the 2 o'clock ceremony and Mrs. Lee Ross was organist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Goforth of Mill City. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. David J. Belyeu of Stayton.

Pink bows marked the church pews and baskets of pink and purple gladiolas flanked the altar. Miss Donna Bymun was candlelighter.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride chose a white satin empire fashioned gown with sheer overlay appliqued with venise lace with victorian collar and bubble sleeves and a detachable princess train. The empire length veil was held by a venise lace tiara. The bridal gown was designed and made by the bride's mother. She carried a bouquet of white carnations with pink glad budlets.

Claris Bymun was honor maid and bridesmaids were Janis Woodruff and Chris Bymun. Their gowns were plum colored velvet and they carried nosegays of pink carnations.

Standing with the groom was Otis Bymun and ushers were Kenneth Goforth and David J. Bilyeu, Jr.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Goforth wore a blue crepe ensemble with silver accessories. The groom's mother chose a pink dress with pink accessories. They both wore pink rosebud corsages.

Treasa Pemberton of Chico, Calif., cut the bride's cake and Carolyn Thoman, also of Chico, poured. Assisting were Kim Randle of Ashland, Kathy Johnson of Mehama, Janelle Wendell of Albany, Bonnie Voelzka of Chicago, and Lois Woodruff of Goshen.

After a short honeymoon, the young couple will make their first home in Salem where he is employed as an electrician and she a cosmetologist.

Reception Honors

Mrs. Jennie Moe

MEHAMA—A reception was held in the Fellowship room following the morning worship services of the Mehama church Sunday, November 21, honoring Mrs. Jennie Moe, whose 85th birthday was Thanksgiving Day. A beautifully decorated cake was served and Mrs. Moe was presented with an orchid corsage and a cornucopia filled with fruits and other gifts.

Her four daughters, Mrs. Henry (Jessie) Kornmann of Vancouver, Wn., Mrs. Joe (Arlyn) Jones of Klamath Falls, Mrs. Lee (Ruth) Grant of Macleay and Mrs. Larry (Iva) Kimsey of Mehama were present as well as two sons-in-law and a number of grandchildren. Mrs. Moe accompanied her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Kornmann, to Vancouver Sunday afternoon and Mrs. Kornmann brought her mother back home on Tuesday.
