To The Editor:

This following article is from the United States Chamber of Commerce in their December, 20, 1971 Washington Report. It might be of interest to the people in any area.

Donald C. Walker, "No Way to Measure Biggest Item in U. S. Family Budget: Government."

In the past few years Americans have tried to learn more about items they purchase to make sure they get the best for their money. Similarly, an equal effort is made to see that items are not harmful to the purchaser's well being.

Yet taxpaying consumers get less information on the largest item of their family budget than on any other item: The cost of government.

Last year, Americans spent about $130 billion on food; $40 billion on clothing; $35 billion on new cars, and over $130 billion on government. Yet they were given less information on what they were getting for their tax dollars than when they bought the latest brand of detergents.

Prior to the wage-price freeze, much publicity was given to inflationary price increases. There was frequent pressure on businessmen to refrain from passing on increased costs to consumers in the form of increased prices, plus calls for greater efficiency in the private sector.

However, Commerce Department data indicates that the cost to the consumer of purchasing the goods and services that government provides has risen at a considerable faster rate than any other item in the family budget.

For example, between 1958 and 1970, the prices of food and beverages went up 28.2%; furniture, 29.8%; automobiles 7.9%.

At the same time, the cost

Agnes Carlson Chosen As President of Round Robin Pinochle Club

Members and guests of the Round Robin Pinochle Club met Monday evening at the home of Lu MacGregor. Guests were Jessie Bodeker and Elma Stewart.

Agnes Carlson was elected as president for the year and Margaret Boroughs was re-elected as treasurer.

Plans were discussed for the annual party the club has in February for their husbands. Alta Moffatt won high score, Margaret Boroughs pinochle and Jessie Bodeker low score. The January 17 party will be at the home of Marilynne Drynan.

of government increased by 57.3% and in 1969-70 rose more than 50% faster than personal consumption items.

It would seem that this new consumer movement that requires knowledge of the full cost of finance charges of private purchases ought also to apply to what consumers get from government. A cost estimate of any new government program showing how much taxpayers will have to pay or how they will finance the new program would prove to some that the government does not have the ability to provide any goods or services without cost.

People must begin to understand that someone must work to produce and pay for the goods and services the government provides just as they must work to produce and pay for goods the private sector provides."

Dear Sir:

What is happening to our dwindling deer population or perhaps I should say, what has happened to our State Game Commission for letting our deer population get to the state they are now in.

In my opinion the State Game Commission cannot be ignorant of the fact of what is happening to our deer.

Seems all they would have to do is take a census of the hunter's success in the last year or two.

Speaking of my home locality on the North Santiam river I can give a good example.

When I moved here 20 years ago, it was not unusual to see from one to a half dozen deer and sometimes a dozen deer a day. Making my trips to and into the Mountains for my loads of logs, as that was my occupation for the last 20 years, traveling most all roads in this vicinity, for from two, four and five loads a day.

In the last two years I can truthfully say I have been lucky to see, six or 12 deer in a year.

I condemn the Game Commission mostly for the late hunter's choice season and doe seasons, as at that time of year the fern is usually dead and most of the time flattened by the early snows, also the foliage has dropped from the top leaf shedding trees making the deer easily seen, also the early snows tend to cause a large percent of the does to move to the lower ground close to, and on the so-called one-mile limit from cultivated land, which to my belief is a slaughter of our deer.

To me it seems the State Game Commission should start protecting our deer herds, or what is left of them before it's too late.

This letter is written in the hope it will help the Game Commission to have a better understanding with some of the sports-minded people of our state.
