Royalty Crowned

At the annual Cradle Roll Sunday observed recently, Santiam Chapel of Lyons crowned the "king and queen of Cradle Roll" for 1972.

Selected by random drawing were the king, Daniel Lee Dodge, son of Mr. and Mrs.

Joe Dodge, of Mill City, and the queen, Corina Kay Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nelson, Jr., of Stayton.

Concerning Santiam Chapel's Cradle Roll, gifts are presented to each new baby upon enrollment, and helpful hints are provided to the new parents.

The Cradle Roll is open to all babies who have not yet reached their second birthday. Mrs. William Hedge of Mill City is the Cradle Roll director. Mrs. Clifton Loftin, also of Mill City, was appointed assistant director.

Newcomers Have Potluck Dinner

The Santiam Newcomers Group held its March dinner last Wednesday at the Gates Community Center. Hosts for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Walt McCausland and Mr. and Mrs. Paul McDonald.

Those attending, despite an error in the Mill City Lions Club community calendar, were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Beyer, Mrs. Marie Burrell who brought her sister-in-law, Mrs. Hettie Duncan of Toronto, Canada, as her guest, Mrs. Flossie Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. Hellmut Kaestner, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Kealen, Mrs. Gloria Knott, Mrs. Alma Locke, Mrs. Mae Mowry, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Peck, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reed, Mrs. Ardath Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Walker, Mr. and Mrs. John Young and the newest newcomers, Mr. and Mrs. James Saunders.

Door prizes were won by Mrs. Turner and Mr. Kaestner. The dinner was enjoyed by all, followed by a social evening of visiting and card playing. The next meeting will be Wednesday, April 19, at the usual time and place.

Mabel Yankus Hostess For Round Robin Club

Mabel Yankus entertained members of the Round Robin Pinochle Club at her home Monday evening.

Strawberry shortcake was served for the dessert and her rooms were attractively arranged with spring flowers.

Guests were Bobbi Budlong, Eva Byer, Jessie Bodeker and Kathleen Pratt.

Wilma Moore won high prize with Evelyn Davis receiving low. Pinochle was won by Mrs. Budlong.

The next party will be April 3 at the home of Goldie Rambo.

Local Couples Home From Hawaii Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Peterson and Mr. and Mrs. Melbourne Rambo returned home Saturday from a two weeks trip to Hawaii. They stayed at a Waikiki beach hotel on the island of Oahu and said they had a very good time including the usual wonderful weather of the islands.

The Rambos had made a four island tour two years ago so particularly enjoyed just relaxing in the sun. Mr. and Mrs. Peterson said they hoped to see the other islands at a later time.

While in Waikiki Mr. Rambo attended two noon luncheons of the Lions club, which really caters to visitors. There was a large delegation from Canada as well as many mainland states including several others from Oregon.

Mr. Rambo and Mr. Peterson visited the Eagles lodge in Honolulu but were unable to attend one of their regular meetings.

Also visited were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Beard from Salem, who have been spending vacations there for many years; the Al Sorseths from Eugene, former Mill City residents and Mr. and Mrs. Shields Remine.

The Sorseths were staying at the same hotel as the Rambos and Petersons, The Reef Towers, but were there for just a week with a group of Elks. In fact, it was regular "old home week" with so many friends and acquaintances there this spring. Just the day before leaving, the visitors met Joe Lundquist and his wife. He was here during the Detroit Dam construction years, assisting with the turbine installation. He asked to be remembered to friends in Mill City.

The Petersons took in the usual tourist sights including the Polynesian Culture Center Pearl Harbor cruise and of course a luau. The group took in a dinner show at the Hilton Hawaiian Village and enjoyed the Ed Kenney performance.

Mr. and Mrs. Rambo took the AARP tour two years ago and again stated that for anyone wishing to get the most (and the best) for their money, it was the only way to fly!

Robert Ditter Wed In Renton, Wash.

Robert Ditter and Miss Doris Jean Gaines were married last Saturday at the St. Stephens Catholic Church in Renton, Wash.

Rev. Robert J. Crum performed the seven o'clock ceremony which was followed by a wedding dinner.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Allan Tiro of Milwaukie and W. E. Gaines of Maud, Okla. Mr. Ditter is the son of George "Sparky" Ditter of Mill City.

For her wedding, the bride wore an afternoon dress of white chiffon with jeweled bodice and short veil of illusion. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Mrs. John R. Strickland of Salem was the bride's only attendant. She wore a cream colored wool sheath dress and a corsage of pink and white carnations.

Mr. Strickland stood with the groom as best man.

The couple will make their first home in Salem. The bride is secretary for Oregon Project New Gate.

Mr. Ditter attended Mill City schools and graduated from Santiam Union High School with the class of '59.

Lions Auxiliary Has Dinner Meeting

There were six members and one guest attending the Mill City Lions Club dinner meeting held last Thursday evening at the Frontier Inn.

Preceding the dinner, Mrs. Fred Krecklow, president, conducted a short business meeting.

The club voted to give a full campership to the local Camp Fire Association as they have done for several years.

They will also sponsor a princess for the July 4th court.

It was decided to have the April meeting at the Lions Paw as there is considerable work to be done at the store.

Following dinner, Charles Kelly showed a film on the modern day postal methods and services.

Mrs. Nygaard Hosts Wednesday Afternoon Card Club

LYONS — High score was held by Mrs. Ralph Davis, second high by Mrs. Orville Downing and low by Mrs. Rachael Olmstead at the Wednesday afternoon card club held at the home of Mrs. Gladys Nygaard. Five Hundred was in play following a 1:30 dessert luncheon.

Others attending were Mrs. John Kunkle, Arthur Olmstead, Percy Hiatt, Chester Riggs, Andrew Sieg, Chester Roy, Floyd Bassett, Mrs. Laura Neal, and Zeta Prichard.

White-Larson Exchange Vows

Miss Vicki White and Glen Allen Larson of Salem exchanged their wedding vows on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at the Trinity Methodist Church in Salem on the 22nd wedding anniversary of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon C. White. Mrs. White is the former Valleda Moberg of Mill City.

Mr. Larson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Larson of Willamina.

The bride chose a gown of delustered satin fashioned with a Venice lace bodice and bouffant sleeves with lace cuffs. A Juliet headpiece of lace held her elbow length veil and she carried a bouquet of white carnations combined with pastel ribbons.

Miss Marilyn White was her sister's honor maid. She wore a white gown with multi-colored flocked daisies over mint green taffeta.

The bridesmaids were Miss Christine Wheeler, Mrs. William Harris and Mrs. Gerald McNeely, a cousin of the bride. Their gowns were similar to the honor maid's only over blue, lavender and pink taffeta. They all carried a single pastel colored carnation.

Deborah Moberg, the bride's cousin, was flower girl and Derek Larson was ring bearer.

Leslie Larson stood with his brother as best man. Ushers were Gene Westby, Jim Cain and Robert Ottele.

A reception was held in the fireplace room.

The young couple went on their honeymoon to Victoria, B.C., and the Olympic Peninsula. On their return they will make their home in Salem.

The bride is a dental assistant and the groom is a junior at Oregon College of Education at Monmouth.

Dist. Deputy President Visits Rebekah Lodge

Santiam Rebekah Lodge No. 166 met March 15 in regular meeting with Noble Grand Mrs. Glenn Anderson presiding.

The Charter was draped for Florence Groat, past president of the International Association of Rebekah Assemblies.

Mrs. Elsie Folsom, District Deputy President from Eva Rebekah Lodge No. 92 of Stayton, paid an official visit. She presented Mrs. Albert Carr with a seal of perfection and examined Mrs. Walter Brisbin and Mrs. Walter Thomas in the unwritten work.

A tribute was read in honor of Schuyler Colfax, author of the Rebekah Degree by Mrs. Arnold Syverson.

Mrs. Irl Plymale, Mrs. Lang Stafford and Mrs. Syverson were appointed to the membership committee for Mrs. Luther Yates who is transferring her membership from Alaska.

Communications were received from Arlene Young, secretary of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon that there will be a school of instruction for all secretaries at Tillamook on Tuesday, May 16, at the 4-H building on the fairgrounds. Also, Santiam will recommend a member for District Deputy President for District 7A.

Mrs. Carr will be in charge of decorating the hall and dining room for the district meeting of the Mill City IOOF No. 144 which is March 18 and the Rebekahs will serve the luncheon.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served in the dining room by Miss Daisy Geddes and Mrs. John Swan. The tables were decorated in the St. Patrick's Day theme. The birthdays of the first quarter were honored and celebrated.

The Food Sale which was scheduled for March 24 in the Bank Building has been cancelled due to unforeseen circumstances.

Local Lions Attend Charter Night

Mr. and Mrs. George Long and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelly attended the Charter Night banquet for the brand-new Mt. Angel Lions Club on Saturday evening, March 18.

The festivities were held at the St. Mary's Grade School in Mt. Angel, and sponsors for the club were members of the Silverton Lions Club.

Master of Ceremonies for the affair was John Hobson, Past District Governor of 36-R, and the guest speaker was Vern Hawn of Eugene, Past International Director. Entertainment was furnished by the Gervais Union High School chorus.

Among others appearing on the program were Judge Joseph Felton, Wallace Carlson, Ralph Jackson, District Governor 36-R, Manville Heisel, Chairman Council of Governors, and Robert Welch and Charles Rogers, presidents of the Silverton and Mt. Angel Clubs. Fred Krecklow, Zone Chairman, was unable to be present.

George Long was one of the club presidents presenting the new club with a gift, and Charles Kelly was among Past District Governors (International Counsellors) introduced.
