Mrs. Shirley Swaim was installing officer when officers installed were Fay Moore, chairman; Jessie Caryl, vice-chairman and Leonora Cutsforth, secretary-treasurer.
A donation of $35 was given to the Canyon Scholarship fund.
Leonora Cutsforth and Ruth McCombs were project leaders for the lesson on snacks.
Those attending were Jessie Caryl, Hannah Ditter, Leonora Cutsforth, Myrtle Donohue, Iola Hennessey, Ruby Hutchinson, Ruth McCombs, Fay Moore, Shirley Swaim, Bee Gordon, Dorothy Newberg, Elizabeth Cyr and Fern Thompson.
This was the club's last meeting until September.

Ohmarts at Salem
For Baptismal Rites

Mother's Day was very special to Mr. and Mrs. Rex Ohmart who witnessed the baptism of their six-weeks' old granddaughter, Karen Diane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Ohmart of Salem, which took place at the St. Mark Lutheran church in Salem during the morning worship service Sunday.
Officiating at the ceremony was the Rev. Dennis Martalla, who is assistant pastor at St. Mark's and a former Mill City resident 20 years ago. He also gave the Mother's Day sermon.
Besides Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Ohmart and young son, Jimmy, other family members witnessing the ceremony included Mr. and Mrs. Rex Ohmart and son, John, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Duffy, great-grandparents, and Raymond Duffy, all of Mill City.
Sponsors for Karen Diane were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vavrick of Salem, who were also sponsors for John Ohmart several years ago.
A family gathering and dinner was held at the Doug Ohmart home in Salem after the service.

Jayceettes To Have
Senior Citizen Bingo
Party on June 1

Mrs. Dale Edwards was hostess for the Mill City Jayceettes at her home Thursday evening. Three members were present. Guest was Miss Karen Davis, Mill City Junior Miss, who showed slides of the Oregon Junior Miss Pageant and spoke on her participation in the Pageant.
June 1 was set for the next senior citizens bingo party which will begin at 7 p. m. at Fellowship Hall of the Presbyterian church. The parties are free to senior citizens and prizes are given.

It was announced that Mrs. Keevineer, a clothing representative firm district manager, would be at the home of Mrs. Mike Wilson May 15 when the July 4th princesses will meet there to choose their costumes to wear during the Fourth of July celebration and at other events the court will attend in neighboring cities. They will make their first official group appearance at the Lebanon Strawberry Festival on June 3. Official chaperones will accompany the princesses on their appearances.
The next meeting of the Jayceettes will be May 25 at the home of Mrs. Rod Syverson.

Mrs. Schaefer To Be Honored at Reception

The Gates Clubhouse will be the setting for a reception Sunday, May 21, from 2 to 4:30 p. m. honoring Mrs. Gwen Schaefer.
Mrs. Schaefer, who has been in the teaching profession for 33 years, is retiring at the end of the school year. She is a first grade teacher at Gates Grade school. Friends are invited through the press.

Local Women Visit
Mt. Angel Towers

Twenty Mill City Women, all friends or former neighbors of Mrs. Clyde Rogers, drove to Mt. Angel Thursday for a special no-host luncheon in the dining room at Mt. Angel Towers where she now makes her home. They were joined by Mrs. Troy Wambaugh of Hubbard, a daughter of Mrs. Rogers, and by Mrs. Richard Saucier, another former long-time resident who also lives there.
Following the luncheon, the regular meeting of the Presbyterian Women's Association was held with Mrs. Earl Loucks as acting president in the absence of Mrs. William Lyness. Devotions were also led by Mary Loucks with special emphasis on Mother's Day, opening with a prayer, "We Thank Thee," and reading several excerpts from "The Beauty of Motherhood."

Minutes were read from the previous meeting by the secretary, Faye Verbeck, and the treasurer's report given by Mary Tuers. Report on overseas sewing was given by the chairman, Clara Epperson, who read a thank you note for a quilt sent to Mora, N. M.
Edith Mason reported on the Church Improvement Fund committee, also on the Memorial Fund committee, stating that in former years much equipment had been purchased through these funds, including the pews, the cross and drapery at the rear of the chancel, baptismal font, bulletin board in front of the church, chairs for Fellowship Hall, lectern and pulpit, the electric organ and speaker, a silver chalice, and the "book of memory." As there have been recent additions to the funds, Mrs. Mason displayed an attractive book holder which will be placed on the altar table, when no flowers are available, and will contain an open bible.
Report of the nominating committee offered the names of Jean Scott, president; Faye Verbeck, secretary, and Mary Tuers, treasurer, as candidates for new officers.

Mrs. Rogers was asked to give the closing prayer which she did after expressing her appreciation for such a large group coming to spend the day with her enabling her to attend the meeting. She is a past president of the association and a faithful member of it and the church for many years.
Going from here were Rosamond ReMine, Blanche Kelly, Mary Loucks, Mary Kelly, Deanie Kelly, Edith Mason, Gladys Lake, Mary Tuers, Helen Kimmel, Faye Verbeck, Clara Epperson, Lettie Swan, Mabel Carlson, Elaine Russell, Elsie Ohmart, Ellen Lundquist, Daisy Geddes, Ruth Cummings, Esther Ogden, and Mildred Wambaugh from Hubbard, and Helen Saucier and Dora Rogers, both of Mt. Angel Towers.

Card Club Wins
Up Play for Summer

Mrs. George Davis entertained members of the Round Robin Pinochle club at her home Monday evening. Guests were Barbara Knudsen and Carmen Barnhardt. Dessert was served before the evening of cards.
Mabel Yankus won pinochle, Frances Alban had high score and Agnes Carlson received low.
This was the club's last meeting until September.

Rev. and Mrs. Knott
To Celebrate 50th
Wedding Date June 4

Announcements have been received by several old-time friends of Rev. and Mrs. C. Stanley Knott of Portland, but formerly of Mill City, that a reception will honor them on their 50th wedding anniversary, Sunday, June 4. The affair will be held from 2:30 until 5:30 in the afternoon at the Faith United Church (Congregational), located at 15150 N. E. Glisan St. Portland.
For anyone interested in sending cards, the home address of the Knotts is 14525 N. E. San Rafael, Portland.
Rev. Knott was pastor of the Presbyterian church here many years ago, and both he and Mrs. Knott were active as leaders of Boy and Girl Scouts, respectively. They were in town last September, when he brought Mrs. Knott to attend the 50th anniversary of the Mill City Woman's club of which she was a charter member.
