They also celebrated Mother's Day with all four children, 12 grandchildren and mother.

Local AARP Chapter To Have Meetings All Summer

Santiam Chapter AARP No. 3944 held the May meeting Wednesday evening at the Santiam High School auditorium with a large crowd in attendance.

There were eight people joining the chapter during the evening bringing the total membership to 118. Anyone 55 or older is welcome to join AARP, whether retired or not. Also one may join below the age of 55 if his or her spouse is a member. However, their status will be that of an associate member.

Orville Downing, president, said that a nominating committee had been selected and they were then unanimously elected and will present a slate of officers at the June meeting. Elected to serve were Mel Rambo, Neille Riggs and Maggie Shaw.

Rod Pfoertner, chairman of the Insurance committee, gave a report and said that anyone having difficulties with insurance problems could contact him. AARP offers a varied type of such programs.

It was decided to hold meetings all summer as the chapter will be officially chartered in August or September.

The July 26 meeting will be held at John Neal Memorial Park at Lyons and will be a potluck affair. The exact time and program will be announced later.

At the June 28 meeting "Doc" and Helen Kimmel will show slides of some of their trips and Floyd Mullen will give a talk on the history of Linn County. This should be an interesting evening so members are urged to attend and bring a friend or prospective member.

For the program Wednesday evening, which was held in the Commons, Don Moffatt, Pete Peterson and Mel and Goldie Rambo showed slides of trips they had taken to Hawaii and other places. The AARP tours were particularly praised by those who had taken them.

Following the program a coffee hour was enjoyed by those attending.

Mrs. Doris Rogers, tour director, said that she still had a number of tickets for choice seats at the Portland Rose Festival parade. Anyone wishing to go on the chartered bus which will leave Mill City on the morning of June 10 should contact her by calling 897-2012. Mrs. Rogers said she purchased a bloc of 40 tickets as a number of AARP members had indicated they wished to attend but many have failed to purchase the tickets.
