NEWS

(This column is written weekly and published by this newspaper as a public and educational service. If you have questions with regard to the Oregon State Employment Service, Unemployment Insurance, and/or referral to the Job Corps, Neighborhood Youth Corps or training under the Manpower Development and Training Act or other training programs, please address your queries to the Employment Division, attention: Chief, Information Section, 402 Labor & Industries Building, Salem, Oregon 97310.)

QUESTION: What is 'suitable' work as defined in the Employment Division law?

ANSWER: Suitable work factors in determining whether or not any work is suitable for an individual applying for unemployment insurance benefits, which are considered by the Employment Division administrator, include the degree of risk involved to the claimant's health, safety and morals, his physical fitness and prior training, his experience and prior earnings, his length of unemployment and prospects for securing local work in his customary occupation and the distance of the available work from his residence.
