Bower-Hiebert Vows Repeated In Bend Church

IDANHA—Trinity Lutheran Church, Bend, Ore., was the setting for the December 16 wedding of Miss Patricia Ann Bower and Gerald Lee Hiebert. Rev. Walter Anderson performed the three o'clock ceremony and a reception followed in the church parlors. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Allen Bower of Bend, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Hiebert of Idanha.

For her wedding the bride selected a floor length A-line silhouette gown of organza and re-embroidered lace, fashioned with a scoop neck-line, camelot sleeves, and an attached chapel train. Her camelot headpiece of matching lace held her shoulder length veil of illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of red carnations, holly, gladiolus accented with tiny gold leaves and long red velvet ribbon streamers.

Maid of honor was her sister, Miss Jacalyn Bower who wore a long dress of gold velvet, fashioned empire style with long sleeves. She carried a bouquet of red carnations and holly, accented with long red ribbon streamers. Bridesmaids were Miss Debbie Rogers cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Steve Westfall. Their gowns were of green velvet, empire style, with long sleeves and velvet cuffs, and they wore green ribbons in their hair. Their bouquets were the same as the maid of honor.

Donald Hiebert was best man for his brother. Groomsman were Jim Hiebert, another brother, and Lyle Rogers. Ushers were Harold Hiebert and Mike Bower, brothers of the bride and groom.

Following a wedding trip to Northern California, the couple will make their home at 839 N. Monmouth Ave., Monmouth, Ore.

Mrs. Cliff McMillan underwent major surgery at Salem Memorial Hospital Friday morning. Mayor McMillan said there is a possibility that she may be hospitalized for about a month. Her room number is 415.

A helicopter landed on the school grounds about 3 p.m. Thursday. Since the ground is covered with snow the big bird made quite a spectacular landing. It looked just like someone trying to fight their way out of a flour barrel. (A big blow). It did not stay very long, and it was not learned why it landed here on such a stormy day.

If you want to get even with your doctor or nurse, the next time they give you a "shot," you might pull this joke on them. A student nurse had to give an injection to a 79-year-old male patient. She asked which hip he preferred the "shot" in. He wanted to know if he really had a choice. The nurse told him he did. He looked her straight in the eye and said "Yours".

CORRECTION: The Detroit Grade School annual Christmas program slated for Thursday (today), December 21, will be at the Elementary gym beginning at 7:30 p.m.
