Layman's Observe 40th Anniversary

DETROIT—A number of parties were held New Year's eve in observance of the new year. Some of the larger parties were held at Marion Forks new lodge, Detroit City Hall and the Cedars. The event at the Cedars also marked the 40th wedding anniversary of the owners, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Layman. The couple was married January 1, 1933 at Vancouver, Wash. Live music and favors set the stage for the celebration.

While the revelers were "whooping it up" inside, Old Man Winter and his Little helper "Jack Frost" were at work outside freezing car doors shut. The Idanha Community Church held their customary night watch New Year's eve. A light skiff of snow fell overnight Monday. Tuesday, light snow flurries prevailed, and at times turned into light snow showers.

Wedding Attended At Camp Kilowan

Miss Linda Long attended the wedding of Miss Pam Gates of Albany and Jack Stockton of Corvallis Sunday at Camp Kilowan, the Camp Fire girls camp near Falls City.
