Happy new year everyone. How was that for mild holiday weather, even sunshine on New Year's day although it got mighty drippy before the evening was over. Hope you all had a very nice holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Barnhardt stayed at home for the Christmas holiday and were joined by daughters Melody, home from Monmouth and Debra from Chemeketa. The Barnhardts are very proud of the girls as they both made the term honor roll.

Luther and Ethelne Yates had a real houseful over the holidays. Joining them were Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Yates and son Brad from Rock Springs, Wyo. (he is a navy recruiter), a daughter, Carmen Smith and sons Tim and Terry, of Milton, Wash. Arriving the day after Christmas and staying until Thursday were Mr. and Mrs.

Paul Clarke and son Mark from Long Beach, Wash.

The holidays were not especially happy for the Chester Straight family as they spent it down with the flu. Hope they have recovered by now.

Walt and Ruby Brisbin spent Christmas eve with the Bob Wilson family in Mill City. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Arthurs at Mill City for Christmas dinner. Also there were Ansel and Clara Hayward from Hubbard. On Thursday, Walt's daughter, Mrs. Winnie Bredeau of Vernonia, spent the day at the Brisbin home.

Larry, Carol and Trevor Drake of Reedsport, stopped at the home of Carol's mother, Mrs. Ellen Rust, for an overnight visit on their return from a trip to Reno.

Christmas day Ellen Rust, son George and Nellie Allen were dinner guests of Lucille Kololewski in Portland. Other guests were Robert and Ellen Kololewski and Robert's sister, Nancy.

Not everyone had a Christmas eve like the one had by Vadonda Lofton. It started out with a family gathering for a gift exchange in the afternoon. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lofton, Jack, James Lofton, home from the navy, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Earhart and four children. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lofton of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Lofton and Vince of Idanha, Mr. and Mrs. Buck Lofton and five children, Eugene Lofton from Texas, and Mrs. Estella Lofton of Salem. The gift exchange started about three and at 4:30 Vadonda decided to present her family with a little something extra. She was taken to the hospital where she had a baby girl named Tamara Sue. Christmas dinner, planned by Vadonda, had to proceed without her. After all, the best laid plans sometimes go astray. Although Vadonda was missed, the family enjoyed the day.

Miss Jere South spent part of the holiday at her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John South in Portland, returning on Friday.

The holiday vacation turned out fairly well weatherwise for the kids, at least a number of them seemed to enjoy bike riding and even some horseback riding. Could have been much worse.

Mel and Dorothy Newberg were hosts to a family gathering at their home Christmas eve. Joining them were their daughter Toni, home from Chemeketa, Pete, Penny and three children from Salem, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Mulligan and George Kruse of Mill City. They had their big dinner Christmas eve. Pete and Penny stayed overnight and were there Christmas day.

For New Year's eve, Mel and Dorothy went to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Mulligan of Mill City, for an evening of card playing.

Glen and Lola Henness had their Christmas eve family gathering on Saturday instead of Sunday. Joining them for the festivities were Clare, Norma, Gary and Susan, Keith, Doris and Ronnie of Albany, Earl, Geri, Jill and Mark of Beaverton, Frank, Candy and Scott Tuers of Portland. A gift exchange was enjoyed by all and the evening was a real success for the smaller children with the arrival of Santa himself.

On the 24th, Glen and Lola Henness visited Roy Taylor at Marion Home and then took him out to dinner. Christmas day the Hennesses spent with Keith and Doris in Albany.

New Year's eve was celebrated at the Glen Henness home with a potluck dinner enjoyed by Burl and Hattie Cole, Clare and Margaret Rush and Joe and Beulah Bowes. Glen's sister, Edna Ratzburg of Salem, has been moved to the Sunset Nursing Home in Bend.

The Gael Cutsforth house was a mighty busy place over the holiday with Lyle and Susie arriving home on the 15th and followed the next day by Lynn. Christmas eve was celebrated several times, with the first one being Sunday morning so Lyle and Susie could be over to Bend to spend the evening with Susie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Turner. That afternoon members of Leonard's side of the family from Albany, Hillsboro and Silverton and Vickie Moore of Lyons joined the family for another celebration. The actual evening was spent quietly.

Christmas day the Cutsforths, Lyle and Susie and Lynn all went over to Gervais for dinner with the Gary Cutsforth family.
