Harris-Sitsler Wed In January 6
Ceremony At Presbyterian Church

A Jan. 6 candlelight wedding ceremony at the First Presbyterian Church in Mill City, united Nancy Harris and Jack Sitsler in marriage. Officiating at the 8:00 p.m. ceremony was Rev. Ernest Franklin.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Harris of Mill City, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. U. J. Sitsler of Salina, Oklahoma.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of cascading ruffles of scalloped nylon chantilly lace that swept to a cathedral train. The sabrina neckline was trimmed with pearls, and the long lace sleeves formed a point. Her fingertip veil was edged in matching lace, held in place by a seed-pearl headpiece. She carried a cascade bridal bouquet of pink carnations, burgundy roses, mixed with baby's breath and greenery.

Mrs. Leslie Stinson, honor matron, was gown in a long-sleeved floor-length crepe dress of burgundy with pink lace trim.

Bridesmaids were Miss Sonja Martin, and Miss Lorie Urban, who is a niece of the bride. They wore long-sleeved floor length dresses of soft pink crepe and burgundy.

Each attendant carried a single long stemmed pink carnation and fern with accenting ribbons.

Baskets of large white mums, pink carnations, and ribbons on the pews were used to decorate the church.

Elisa Syverson, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a floor length soft pink crepe dress with burgundy velvet ribbon trim. On her head she wore a wreath of baby burgundy rosebuds with ribbon intertwining.

Lorne Urban, nephew of the bride was ring bearer. Candlelighters were Miss Debbie Quarry and Annette Rice, both cousins of the bride. They wore floor length dresses of burgundy crepe.

Leslie Stinson served as best man for Mr. Sitsler.

Ushers were Larry Moberg and Jim Morgan, who is a cousin of the bride.

The newlyweds greeted their

Entertain At Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Babbitt were hosts recently at their home on Fourth Street for a farewell dinner party honoring Mr. and Mrs. Jack Roy of Lyons.

Mr. Roy has served several years on the Mari-Linn school board. He and his wife are moving to Prineville this month to make their home.

Attending the dinner were members of the staff and board members and their spouses.

guests at a reception in the fellowship hall immediately following the ceremony.

They will make Mill City their first home. The bride is a 1972 graduate of Santiam High School and is employed by North Santiam Plywood. Mr. Sitsler is employed by Green Veneer.

Stevens-Williamson
Wed In Idanha Home

Miss Connie E. Stevens of Gates became the bride of Michael Taylor Williamson at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Williamson, at Idanha Saturday evening. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Don Lien of Gates and Gary Stevens of Shelton, Wash.

Rev. Harold Roth performed the ceremony at 6:30 p.m.

The bride chose an a-line gown of white satin and chantilly lace with detachable, chapel train. The bodice was styled with a high neckline and bishop sleeves. Her elbow length veil was held in place by a crown of pearls. She carried a bouquet of blue and white carnations.

Miss Kathy Stevens, a sister of the bride from Shelton, Wash., was her only attendant. She wore a gown of blue lace and carried a nosegay of blue and white carnations and white mums with blue and white streamers.

Rick Williamson stood with his brother as best man.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Detroit High School Library.

At the wedding reception, Miss Cathy Crist and Miss Sherry Williamson sang several songs. They were accompanied by Miss Gina Williamson at the piano. Serving the coffee was Miss Cathy Crist. Miss Sherry Williamson presided at the punch bowl. Huber Ray, Jr. of Sublimity, cousin of the bride, cut and served the cake. The two cakes served were a commercial baked wedding cake and one that Mr. Ray had baked and decorated for the occasion.

Sherry Hemper served as guest book attendant.

Out of town guests included Gary Stevens (father of the bride) and sons, Gary, Jr. and Bert and a friend, all of Shelton, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. Don Lien (mother of the bride) of Gates and Mr. and Mrs. Art Taylor and sons, Vince and John of Salem.

The young couple will make their home in Detroit following a wedding trip to the coast.

The bride is a student at Santiam High School in Mill City and the groom is employed at U. S. Plywood Division of Champion International, at the Idanha Plant.

Presbyterian Church Scene Of Ohrt-Walker Wedding Saturday

Miss Christine Marie Ohrt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lavern Ohrt became the bride of Randy J. Walker Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Presbyterian Church with Rev. Donald Dishong officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lavern Ohrt and Mr. Walker the son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel M. Nugent of Gates.

The bride wore a gown of white chiffon, made empire style with a lace bodice fashioned with a high neckline, long sleeves and a lace ruffle bordering the hemline of the skirt.

Her mantilla style veil was floor length and caught to a lace headpiece. She carried a colonial bouquet of white roses, chrysanthemums and gypsophila.

The attendants wore gowns of blue. Mrs. John Ruby was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Cathy Ohrt, sister of the bride, and Miss Frances Clark. John Ruby served as best man and ushers were the bride's brother, Leland Ohrt, and Bill Kenline.

A reception followed the ceremony in the Fellowship Hall.

The young couple will make their home in Mill City. The bride attends Chemeketa Community College in Salem and the groom is employed at Frank Lumber Company.
