

GATES

Betty Kelle

The Gates Fire Department was called out twice this past week. Late Friday afternoon to the Roy Pate residence where there was a fire in the furnace. Damage was confined mostly to the furnace and minor smoke damage. The second call was about 8:00 p.m. Saturday evening at the Ellen Rust home where an electric blanket started a fire in the mattress. Damage was confined just to that area.

The Mel Newberg home was the scene Sunday for what was supposed to have been an eight way birthday party, but due to circumstances beyond anyones control, it was a six way party. Those being honored were Mel, son-in-law Pete, grandson Butch, Dorothy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Mulligan, and her brother, George. Supposed to have been included were granddaughters Mary Ann and Tina but they came down with the mumps and had to stay home. Butch had the mumps a couple of weeks ago so guess it was to be expected, and he is spending his spring vacation with his grandparents. Toni Newberg is at home for spring vacation from Chemeketa Community College.

Lynn Cutsforth, from La Grande, is spending his vacation at the home of his parents Gael and Leonora Cuts-forth. Lyle and Susie from Klamath Falls spent Sunday night at the Cutsforth on their way to the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Gestson spent three days last week visiting Mrs. Margaret Gestson in Milwaukie.

Seems like an awful lot of illness still floating around what with the old flu bug still doing its thing and colds, mumps and measles. The really worst part seems to be the complete lack of get-up-and-get even after the cold or flu is gone. Thought maybe it was just me, but seems to effect many people the same way. Still think a good sunbath at the home of his parents would help a lot toward the cure.
