

Area Rainbow Girls Attend Reception in Albany Saturday

Saturday evening, March 31, Patty McClintock, Corliss Archer, Sue McClintock and Mrs. William McClintock went to Albany where they attended a reception for Mariann Symington, grand representative to California in Oregon and Patti Webb, grand choir member from Barzillia Assembly No. 7, International Order of Rainbow for Girls.

The theme for the reception was "You'll Never Walk Alone". Presiding officers were Wendy Tripp, worthy advisor; Denise Brem, musician; Dianne Wiley, chaplain; Tina Roth, recorder; Teresa Ashby, marshal; and Mrs. Kenneth Symington, mother advisor.

Yellow was the color for the decorations and both of the honored members wore yellow formals.

Cindy Kok and Rob Sutter sang "You'll Never Walk Alone".

Miss Merrienne Rust, grand representative to Oregon in California from Claremont Assembly No. 167, San Diego, California, who flew up for the reception, gave the American Flag Tribute. The Christian Flag Tribute was given by Patty McClintock of Marilyn Assembly No. 60, grand outer observer, International Order of Rainbow for Girls and the Bible tribute was given by Mrs. Ginger Symington, sister-in-law of Marianne.

Escorted and introduced besides the honored members were Mrs. Floyd Hawkins, mother advisor of Gold Beach Assembly No. 62, Patti McClintock, grand outer observer; Mrs. Bette Beckman, grand deputy and Julie Boice, grand representative to Indiana in Oregon from Gold Beach Assembly No. 62; Margaret Houck, grand representative to Texas in Oregon from Chadwick Assembly No. 3, Salem; and Merrienne Rust, grand representative to Oregon in California from Claremont Assembly No. 167, San Diego, California.

Rob Sutter furnished the entertainment.

An addenda for Patti Webb was given by Barzillia Assembly and she was presented with a Rainbow Bible from the assembly and a Rainbow bracelet from her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Webb.

Marianne was also honored with an addenda by the assembly and presented a candy dish from the assembly and a Rainbow Ring from her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Symington.

Marianne and Patti then presented the assembly with a beautiful tablecloth.

Takens Chapter, Order of Demolay with Neal Symington, master counselor, who is Marianne's brother and Don Steimer, dad advisor in charge, put on a skit honoring the girls.

It was announced that Mrs. Eugene Webb, Patti's mother,

Teresa Ashby and Karen Slat-er had been chosen to receive the Grand Cross of Colors at Grand Assembly in June at Corvallis.

Following the benediction, the girls formed their friendship circle and Merrienne Rust and Patti Webb sang California's friendship song.

Refreshments followed in the tea room.

Miss Jeri Jo Parker, a former member of Marilyn Assembly and now a member of Barzillia Assembly, passed the guest book.

Junior Woman's Club Elects Officers

Election of officers for the ensuing year was the main order of business at the April meeting of the Mill City Junior Woman's Club. Mrs. Doug Suckling was elected president; Mrs. Larry Urban, vice-president; Mrs. Frank Stromquist, second vice-president; Mrs. Barry Drake, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Jerry Mummy, treasurer; Mrs. Rich Moore, historian. Directors are Mrs. Terry Morris and Mrs. William Bogle.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Tom Grant on Tuesday, April 3 with Mrs. Ed O'Donnell and Mrs. Carol Bro-sig as co-hostesses.

Mrs. Don Huckleby, Bingo chairman, said the next party for the senior citizens would be Wednesday, April 18 at the fellowship hall.

Mrs. Rich Moore, chairman for the annual Easter egg hunt, asked for donations from the juniors for eggs. It was voted to ask each member to give one dozen eggs to this event.

Mrs. Bogle, current club president, reminded members of the district convention which was held in Dallas, April 5.

New members joining the club recently included Mrs. Don Huckleby, Mrs. Tom Jelen-jewski and Mrs. Vern Shaw.

Mrs. Larry Urban, CIP chairman, said there would not be any movies shown at the school in April as certain problems have developed from previous movies.

The junior club will present the program for the Mill City Woman's Club at their April 17 meeting. Mrs. Bogle is chairman of the event.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. William Stange, Mrs. Dale Kirsh, Mrs. Jack Bain, Mrs. Charles Stewart, Jr. and Mrs. Mary Toy, grandmother of Mrs. Suckling.

The Junior Woman's Club meetings are open to anyone interested in attending with programs usually on the agenda. Those interested in joining or attending are asked to first contact a junior club member, if possible.

Nursery Children Visit Hedge Toad

The Hedge Toad. The children observed glass cutting and worked with candle molding and decorating. They also made their own designs on leather.

Provided for each child was a special gift of a candle from The Hedge Toad.

Mrs. McClain sends a special thank you to the Swansons for their time and patience.

Local TOPS Club Holds Installation

GATES—Tuesday, April 3, the TOPS Club held their first meeting in the recreation room of the Gates Community Church. This will be their regular meeting place from now on.

Presented a corsage of white carnations and a certificate for division winner for last quarter of 1972 were Ethelne Yates, Margie Connelly, and Dorothy Lofton. They were also presented with a wheelbarrow full of spuds representing the total of 64 lbs. the three girls lost in the quarter. Of course, it is understood, these spuds will be eaten by their families and not the girls themselves.

Lighting the candles of continuity were Sandy Gates, as weight recorder, Paula Smith as secretary, Dee Courteman as treasurer, Margie Connelly as co-leader, and Ethelne Yates as leader. They were installed by the outgoing leader, Dee Courteman, who also presented the carnation corsages to those who hadn't already received one.

Also receiving corsages were Pat Keen as outgoing weight recorder and Betty Kelle as outgoing secretary.

Long stemmed white corsages were presented to Diane Banks, Carol Gordon and Ruth Wirth as token gifts.

Margie Connelly was presented with a charm for reaching her goal and crowned queen of our local TOPS chapter. When she opened her lovely florists box she found a large bunch of celery, which seemed much appropriate. She also received three beautiful long stemmed carnations.

After the installation was over, a white elephant auction was held with the girls using points they had won on a previous contest to bid for the articles. Dee did a fine job as auctioneer and a good time was had by all.

As a finale to a real fun evening, we played a few games of BINGO.

Eagle Card Parties Slated to Continue

Winners at last weeks Eagle card party held at the hall were Maudie Flatman, high for the women and Percy Mulligan, high for the men. Ruth Nelson and John Swan were the pinochle winners and Ruth Kerr and Fred Schimick received the low prizes.

There has been some discussion regarding the continuance of the parties but it was decided at a Monday afternoon Eagles auxiliary board meeting to keep them going as long as attendance permitted.

The weekly parties start at 1:00 p.m. and are open to all those that like to play pinochle.

If the number following your name on The Enterprise label reads 4-73 it's time to send a check for renewal.

Garden Club Meets At Cree Home

Mrs. Hollis Turnidge and Mrs. Lowell Cree were hostesses Thursday at the Cree home for the Mill City Garden Club's April meeting.

The Easter motif was used for the 12:30 dessert luncheon. Mrs. Marie Tolbert presided in the absence of the president and vice president.

Mrs. Lloyd Girod reported on the federation meeting held recently at Woodburn and reminded the members to get their tote bags finished and turned in. She also reminded the club of the three gifts to be purchased for door prizes at the state convention in Salem June 18, 19 and 20 at Willamette University.

The May 3 meeting will have Mrs. Doris Rogers and Mrs. Al Yankus as co-hostesses.

The club voted to enter a float in the 4th of July parade and chose a girl for princess and also an alternate. The girls will be contacted and the name announced later. Mrs. Jennie Cauble will be float chairman.

Present were Ruth Brownstone, Muriel Phillips, Goldie Rambo, Elise Allen, Eleanor Corning, Pauline Hansen, Velma Harrison, Isabell Heller, Phyllis Dolzal, Elizabeth Cyr, Esie Girod, Marie Tolbert, Jennie Cauble, Mabel Yankus, Catherine Turnidge and Rose Cree.
