Friday, the 13th,
Proves Lucky for Local Woman's Club

The Salad Bar Luncheon given by the Mill City Woman's Club, assisted by the Junior Woman's Club, at Fellowship Hall on Friday, April 13, for the benefit of Camp Easter Seals for Crippled Children, was adjudged a huge success. Over $65 was taken in from the Dime-a-Dip Self-Service, thus enabling the clubs to sponsor more than two full campships for worthy persons.

General chairman for the lovely affair was Maymie Reed, with other members on her committee being Mary Youmans, Helen Kimmel, Kate Doble, Ruth Cummings, and Theresa Saalfeld. Edith Mason was chairman of table decorations, and Jenny Caudle was in charge of the kitchen. Mary Lou Suckling represented the Junior Woman's Club on the committee, and members of both clubs furnished the salads.

The centerpiece for the serving table, made up of red and yellow tulips and branches of quince, was arranged by Lou MacGregor.

Friday, the 13th, proved to be a lucky day for all those involved, and those in charge want to express their appreciation to all those who assisted, as well as the good turnout which attended.

Santiam Ripples

By Debbie McLain

Monday morning, right after the bell rang, the chorus students traveled to Scio to practice for the Spring Festival with Dr. Donald Winn from OCE.

The Gospel Truth Singers paid another visit to Santiam on Monday morning. The students enjoyed them as much this year as they did last year.

Monday, after school, the basketball team traveled to Cascade High, to play their junior varsity baseball team. The Wolverines didn't do too great, and were thus the losers. The final score was six to four.

Tuesday morning, the band students visited Scio to practice for the Spring Festival with their various directors.

After school, the Wolverines played the Kennedy Trojans in a baseball game. The Wolverines were the victors, but I have no score from that game.

Tuesday evening, Scio held the annual Spring Festival. The band and the chorus did great jobs with their songs, and Mr. Hillesland did an outstanding performance as the director for the massed bands.

The chorus was very thankful to Mr. Grant, as he got out of bed to go play for them. We're glad he felt well enough to make the trip to Scio.

Thursday, Colton arrived for a track meet. It seems like the boys are really doing alright, but the girls are still behind. The outstanding performers on the boy's track team were Ron Podrabsky, who threw the discus 104' 4", and put the shot 45' 10 1/4"; Kenny Morgan, who broke the five-minute mark on the mile. His time was 4:58.8. Kurt Carpenter had three first places: pole vault, high hurdles, and the 440 relay.

One of the outstanding performers for the girls was Lori Hildebrandt who took four first places: low hurdles, 440 relay, 880 relay, and the long jump with a jump of 13 1/2'.

Friday, the Junior-Senior Prom Princesses were announced. They are: Linda Long, Cindy Nelson and Francie Hamilton. Good luck and Congratulations!

Cutsforths Return From Trip South

GATES — Returning home last Saturday from a weeks vacation were Gael and Leonora Cutsforth. They went down through Reno, Virginia City and on to Death Valley which was the purpose of the trip. They spent two days there visiting Scotty's Castle and all around the area. Few roads they couldn't get to because of snow. Everything was so green and flowers blooming all over the place. There had been an unusual amount of rain this year, about ten inches, and there were flowers in bloom that hadn't bloomed in years.

They returned home through the Sequoia Forest and stopped at Oakland, Calif. to visit Leonora's aunt and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Sherwood. In Olivehurst they visited a niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Center.

Donations Voted

The association received a request to serve at the reception following a wedding on Saturday, July 28, to which they agreed.

Members were invited to attend a Thursday evening meeting at the elementary school preparatory to making arrangements for the Health Fair which may be held here in July.

Devotions were led by Mrs. Earl Loucks who read several passages from the scripture, also calling attention to the letter from the Laddy Elliotts who are serving in Alaska. Prayer was given by Mrs. Herbert Schroeder.

A get-well card was signed by the members for Mrs. John Swan, a faithful attendee, who was ill at home with the flu.

The program for the afternoon consisted of the showing of a film-strip, entitled "A World Filled with Neighbors," which comes under the category of "Self-development of People". This was in preparation for the One Great Hour of Sharing.

The meeting was closed with each member giving a sentence-prayer as suggested by the president, Hazel Hayes.

Attending Thursday afternoon were Daisy Geddes, Mable Schroeder, Clara Epperson, Mary Tuers, Mary Loucks, Hazel Hayes and the hostess, Mary Kelly.
