Whiteley - Howard Vows Exchanged In Idanha Church Ceremonies

DETROIT — Exchanging their marriage vows at the Idanha Community Church on Friday were Miss Robin Jane Whiteley and Harry Raymond Howard Jr. Rev. Arvin E. Johnson performed the 6:00 ceremony.

A reception followed at the Detroit High School Library. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Whiteley of Detroit and Mr. Howard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Raymond Howard, Sr. of Salem.

For her wedding, the bride selected a gown of silk organise over satin, styled with apron front enhanced with two ruffles at the bottom extending around to the back forming an old fashioned bustle. A satin band encircled the natural waist accented with a bow in back.

Organise ruffles adorned the wedding band neckline of the bodice, fashioned with bishop sleeves. An organise rose headpiece held her fingertip mantilla veil in place. She carried a cascade of white chrysanthemums and pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Kenneth Fields was her sister's only attendant. She wore a pastel print polyester gown fashioned with empire waist and carried a white basket of yellow daisies.

Gary Lee Reimer stood with Mr. Howard as best man. After a trip to the coast, the young couple will be at home in Salem.

Mrs. Howard is employed as a nurses aid at Elderest Home and Mr. Howard is employed at a Stayton mobile home manufacturing firm.

Serving at the reception was Mrs. Earl Michaelson who cut the cake. Mrs. Fred Taylor presided at the punch bowl.

Guest book attendants were Miss Jody Whiteley, sister of the bride, and Miss Mary Bittner.

Several song selections were presented by Miss Bittner and Miss Whiteley. Pianist was Mrs. Joseph Zelfer.
