MEHAMA — A surprise reception was held at the Mehama Club Hall Sunday afternoon, June 17 from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. celebrating the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Longfellow. The Longfellows were married May 29, 1948 at Vancouver, Wash. and have lived in this area most of the time since. The party was arranged by the couples' sons and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. Royce Longfellow of Lyons, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Longfellow, Mehama, and Rolland Longfellow of Ft. Lewis, Wash.

A large number of relatives and friends were present during the afternoon to express best wishes to the couple.

McClintock Represents Marilyn Assem.

Patty McClintock will represent Marilyn Assembly #60, during the 47th annual session of grand assembly, International Order of Rainbow for Girls. It will be held on the Oregon State University campus in Corvallis June 21-23.

Patty has served as grand outer observer during the past year. She was appointed and installed last June. She will be one of the twenty officers performing the ritual work of rainbow under the direction of Hazel Graham, supreme in Oregon and supreme service.

This is the finale of Patty's year. During the past year she has represented Oregon rainbow in Kansas and California. She has visited throughout the state taking girls from Marilyn Assembly with her. The goal of the grand assembly this year was to encourage friendship through visiting other assemblies. To encourage this further, Patty donated a stuffed dog to the assembly. It goes to the girl who has made the most visits since the last meeting. Patty Spurgeon, Sue McClintock, Corliss Archer, Lynette Hughes, and Jackie Wilson have received the dog for traveling. Currently, Patty is serving as nature in her assembly.

There are seven girls going from Marilyn Assembly. They are Corliss Archer, Lynette Hughes, Susan Keen, Sue McClintock, Shelly Richards, Jackie Wilson and Patty. Mrs. William McClintock will be the chaperone.

Coles - Henn United in Mehama Church Ceremonies Sunday

By Jean Roberts
MEHAMA — Brenda Coles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Coles of Mehama, became the bride of Fred Henn of Lincoln City in a Sunday wedding at the Mehama Community church. The Rev. Frank Schultzwahl, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony and the organist was Susan Kimsey of Mehama.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full-length white gown. The matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Bettie Cooper of Longview, Wn., and bridesmaid was Janet Severson. The candle lighters for the wedding were Sheryl Hill, cousin of the bride, and Renna Meek of McMinnville. The attendants were dressed in pastel blues and greens and the church was decorated in white flowers with blue ribbons. The ushers and groomsmen, for the ceremony, were Don Cooper and John Meek. Attending the guest book was Debra Bishop.

A reception following the wedding was held at the Mehama Fire hall. (Weddings at Mehama are usually considered a community affair and the Fire Hall is the community gathering place.) Gene Coles, the bride's father has been fire chief at Mehama ever since the department was organized. The bridal table was decorated in yellows and greens with Mrs. Otis Bishop pouring coffee; Mrs. Kenneth Widmer, aunt of the bride, cutting the cake, and Marcia Wilson pouring punch. Helping with the gifts were Debbie Glander and Sharon Neilson.

The bride, born and raised in Mehama, has attended the Mehama Community church which was built in her lifetime with her father as a trustee for many years.

Brenda graduated from Stayton Union High school and attended OCE one year. She is best known in the Mehama area for her equestrian feats; having won many prizes at the local grange fair in horsemanship.

The wedding was a gathering of oldtime Mehama friends. Coming from a distance to the ceremony was Frances McCauley and Roxie Antilla from Kelso, Wn.

The couple will make their home in Lincoln City.
