Patty McClintock - Frederick Alban
Wedding Held Sunday In Salem Church

Rainbow colors were chosen by Miss Patty McClintock for her wedding on Sunday afternoon at the First Christian Church in Salem to Frederick Wayne Alban II.

Rev. Howard Fowler of Salem and Rev. Guy Armstrong of Turner officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William McClintock of Mill City and the groom's parents are Mrs. Frances Alban of Salem and Wayne

Alban of Stayton.

For her wedding the bride wore a gown of white chiffon over peau de sole fashioned with a high neckline edged with lace and long lace sleeves.

Three rows of lace were on the front of the hoop skirt with orchid chiffon, laced in the lace held with orchid flowers holding it in place. Her full length train was also edged in the same kind of lace. Her elbow-length veil was held by a tiera of seed pearls which her aunt, Mrs. Gordon McMorris wore at her wedding. She carried her Rainbow Bible topped with five white gardenias and violets and orchid streamers.

Lighting the candles were Kim and Tami Tuers in floor length dresses of orchid chiffon over satin.

Robin Hinke from Vancouver, Wash., the groom's cousin, was flower girl. She also wore a floor length dress of orchid chiffon over taffeta and carried a basket of orchid colored flowers.

Darin Tuers, wearing a white dinner jacket was ring bearer.

Maid of honor was Miss Lori Kent of Salem, who wore a green floor length gown of chiffon over satin.

Bridesmaids were Lorraine McClintock of Portland, the brides cousin, wearing red; Carol Armstrong of Dayton wearing orange; Sue McClintock of Mill City, the bride's sister, wearing blue; Patrice McFadden of Indio, Calif., wearing purple; and Sheri Huff of Ceres, Calif. wearing Violet. All their dresses were identical to the maid of honor and they carried baskets of flowers matching their dresses.

While the couple repeated their vows, the girls formed a Rainbow behind them.

Bruce Blumenstein of Gates stood with the groom as best man.

Ushers were Mark McClintock of Mill City, brother of the bride; Mitchell Alban of Salem, brother of the groom; and Dwayne Rosamond of Salem.
