Installation of Officers Attended By Couples
From Mill City

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Garton and Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Cree attended installation of officers of Acacia Chapter, OES at Stayton Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fields, outgoing worthy matron and patron, presided. Mr. and Mrs.
George Reed of Salem were installing patron and matron.

Mrs. Herman Stewart was installed as worthy matron and Charles Hecht, worthy patron.

The officers all wore floor length gowns of royal purple with yellow rosebud and net corsages.

A reception followed in the dining room with the serving table covered with a yellow satin cloth and a centerpiece of yellow and purple flowers flanked by purple candles. A miniature doll dressed identical to the officers stood beside the flower arrangement. Pouring were Mrs. Stewart's mother, Mrs. Emmett Dixon, worthy matron of Trinity Chapter in Salem, and Mrs. Larry Morgan of Stayton.

A large crowd attended from Salem, Eugene, Albany, Turner, Lebanon, Dallas, Mill City and Stayton.

Mrs. William Lyness Honored With Coffee Hour

Mrs. Lowell Cree assisted by her daughter, Mrs. William McClintock, entertained Thursday morning at her home with an informal coffee honoring Mrs. William Lyness, outgoing worthy matron of Marilyn Chapter No. 145, OES. The hostess presented Mrs. Lyness with a recipe box and each guest brought their favorite recipe and presented her.

Coffee and nut breads were served.

Mrs. Cree had the mementto's of her year as worthy matron and the past year as a member of the estal committee of the grand chapter of Oregon on display. The past year she visited 26 chapters in Oregon and four in Victoria, B.C., Canada.

Attending were Mrs. Lyness, her mother Mrs. Danny Moore, Sr., Mrs. Midge Rea of Seattle, Jon and Lisa Gulliford from Hawaii, Mrs. Jack Gulliford,

Yankus, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Garton, Mrs. Clyde Phillips, and the hostesses, Mrs. William McClintock and Mrs. Lowell Cree.

Some who were unable to attend sent recipes.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips Return From Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Phillips recently returned from a two months sightseeing trip which took them through 25 states.

Some of the highlights of their trip were a view of the Canyonlands National Park in Utah which was made by plane; visit to the U. S. A. F.
Academy in Colorado; the Ozarks in Arkansas; the vast flooding of the Mississippi River in the lower southern states and then later in their trip they visited the headwaters where they were able to wade across into Minnesota.

A boat trip was made behind Niagara Falls in New York; in Dearborn, Mich. they visited Greenfield Village, Henry Ford Museum and a tour of the Ford Motor Plant.
A steamship was taken to cross Lake Michigan to Wisconsin.
The four presidents carved in the mountains at Mt. Rush-more in S. Dakota was a sight to behold. Also, Arlington Cemetery and the many sights in Washington, D.C.

They report that spring was a lovely time to make the trip. Even though they had a few gas scares, there was no real problem until they reached Oregon.

Salem Church Scene Of Stiffler Wedding

Neal Martin Stiffler formerly of Mill City, took as his bride, Miss Karen Ro Better-ton on Sunday, June 24 at the Calvary Baptist Church in Salem.

The young couple exchanged their vows at three o'clock with Rev. Eugene Gerlitz officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roe Betterton of Salem and the groom is the son of Mrs. Dolores Stiffler of Salem and R. L. Stiffler of Salinas, Calif.

Orchid, blue and pink were the colors chosen by the bride for her wedding. She wore a gown of silk organza trimmed in white lace on a background of orchid satin ribbon accented with appliqued daisies with orchid centers. The ruffled bodice was made with stand-up collar, lantern sleeves and a tiered skirt.

Her tiered illusion veil was caught to a headpiece of fresh flowers and gypsophila to match her bouquet. The ceremony included the reading of a poem written by the bride's maternal grandmother for her husband on their golden wedding anniversary.

Matron of honor was Mrs.
Ray Casley and the bridesmaids were Miss Dana Moore and Miss Barbara Kohler.

Ken Betterton was best man and Wayne and Kirk Stiffler were ushers.

A reception followed in the social room of the church.
The young couple will live in Klamath Falls where the groom is a property appraiser.

Trask-Smith Vows Exchanged In Albany

Mill City friends will be interested to learn of the marriage of Robert Neal Trask, Jr. of Mapleton, formerly of Mill City. Robert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Trask (Belle Faust) of Mapleton and a nephew of Mrs. Lee Rose and Mrs. Jane Thacker of Mill City.

Mr. Trask and Miss Leta Jean Smith exchanged their wedding vows on Saturday, June 23, at the First Christian Church in Albany with Rev.
Richard Busie officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Weston Smith of Albany.

For her wedding, the bride chose a wedding gown of white chiffon and lace made with a chapel train. Her finger tip veil was edged in lace and held by a floral crown. She carried a bouquet of cymbidium orchids and gypsophila.

Matron of honor for her sister was Mrs. Leona Price.
Bridesmaids were Miss Donna Smith and Miss Dolores Smith, sisters of the bride and Miss Becky Lister.

Kimberly Dean was flower girl and Verda Kay Price, niece of the bride, was candlelighter.

Standing with his brother as best man was John B. Trask.
Ushers were Arlen Samard, Donald Zuhke and Robert Johnston.

The young couple will make their home in Ketchikan, Alaska where the bridegroom is employed.

Guest Pastor To Serve Presbyterian Pulpit

Sunday, July 1, was the last Sunday morning for the guest pastor, Jane Shaffer, to serve in the pulpit of the Mill City Presbyterian Church, although she might serve briefly later on in the summer. Both she, and her husband, John Shaffer, will be working with the youth groups of the YMCA out of Salem for the next few weeks.

It was announced that the pulpit will be filled next Sunday, July 8, by the Rev. Gwyn Richardson of Stayton, who played the marimba at the previous service recently.

An additional announcement concerned the fact that the Presbyterian Women's Assn. would serve a potluck dinner at Fellowship Hall for the staff of the health fair on Fri., July 13.

Baby Shower Honors Mrs. Doug Knudsen

Miss Karen Davis and Miss Lisa Gabriel entertained recently at the George Davis home honoring Mrs. Doug (Dougar) Knudsen with a baby shower.

Appropriate games were played.
