

Historical Society Picnic Scheduled

The Annual Picnic of the Linn County Historical Society will be held Sunday, July 22nd at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Sprenger, one-half mile north of Shedd, three-fourths mile west of Pacific Highway 99. There will be a sign at the turnoff lane.

In event of rain, the picnic will be held in the Shedd Methodist Church basement on Highway 99.

Pot luck dinner at 1:30 P. M. Bring own table service, a folding chair and a folding table for each group. Coffee, punch and watermelon will be furnished.

Each person attending is asked to bring an antique or other article of interest for display, telling something of the history of the article.

Mr. Sprenger will show his collection of antique engines, some of them in operation.

Everyone welcome to attend the antique show and picnic.

Bradleys Host Guests From Midwest

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Ely of Farmington, Mo., have been visiting here the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Bradley and with their son and bride, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Ely. They came to attend their son's wedding on Saturday, July 14.

Since this was their first trip to Oregon, they have spent much of the time sightseeing and got to see the ocean for the first time Monday when they visited the coast with the Bradleys. Mr. Ely and Mr. Bradley went deep sea fishing out of Newport and Mr. Ely caught a salmon which was an experience for him. The Elys left Wednesday on their return trip to Missouri.

California People Visiting Here

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Troyer and son Dennis of Carson, California arrived July 9th to visit with family and friends in the area. Mrs. Troyer is the former Zeta White.

Sunday, a family picnic was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Chance. Attending were the Troyers, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Lavine of Toledo, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Seamster of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Harry White, Leslie and Hiedi and the Chances and their two children, Christine and David. Also, the group brought their mother, Mrs. Una White, who is confined to the Marion Nursing Home over for the day to attend the family gathering. It was the first time in ten years that they had all been together.

Mr. and Mrs. Troyer left Wednesday to return to their California home.
