Don Hoover To Speak At Rebekah Meeting

Santiam Rebekah Lodge #166 met in regular meeting Aug. 15 with vice grand, Mrs. Luther Yates, presiding.
A check was sent to Mrs. Elma Reed, chairman of the endowment fund as a memorial to Rod Pfoertner, brother of Mrs. Margaret Snow, warden of Santiam #166.

Due to other conflicting interests, the goodie walk scheduled for the evening was postponed until Sept. 5.
Final arrangements were made for the evening of Aug. 23 when the Mill City I.O.O.F. and Santiam Rebekah Lodges will host a social evening at which Don Hoover, the United Nations Pilgrimage Tour Student, will show his slides and report on his trip to the members and all interested public.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served by Mrs. Claudie Bruder and Mrs. Luther Yates.

Mill City Residents Attend Garden Tea

Mill City residents attending the annual benefit garden tea at the home of Dr. and Mrs. James Alley in Turner were: Mr. and Mrs. Earl Loucks, Mr. and Mrs. William Shepherd and Mrs. Charles Fultz.

The proceeds from the tea go towards a medical unit at Turner Memorial Home. Dr. Alley had a number of his paintings on display and two of his students gave demonstrations of painting with water colors and there was a metal sculpturing display. Two nieces of Dr. and Mrs. Alley and two of their pupils gave a demonstration of karate.

Johnson - Kline Exchange Wedding Vows In Roseburg Ceremony Aug. 11

Jack M. Johnson exchanged wedding vows on Aug. 11 with Miss LaJeanne Iris Kline in St. George Episcopal Church in Roseburg. Rev. Alfred Tyson performed the afternoon ceremony.

Mr. Johnson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jhuue Johnson of Mill City and the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Parry Kline of Roseburg.

White satin bows centered with sprigs of ivy marked the church pews. Ivy decorated the windows and bouquets of pink gladiolus flanked the altar.

Preceding the wedding march, the organist played selections from the "Sound of Music" and "Oliver".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of white delustered satin, empire fashioned, with a bodice of Venice lace. Matching lace bordered the hemline and edged her chapel length mantilla veil. For something old, she wore a pearl necklace and pearl and diamond earrings, which had been a gift from her paternal grandfather to her grandmother. She carried a bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and statice.

Miss Renee Kline was maid of honor for her sister. She wore a floor length lavender and blue floral print. She carried two long spidor chrysanthemums tied with lavender and blue ribbon and a sprig of baby breath.

Bridesmaids were Miss Valerie Kline and Pam Kline, sisters of the bride, Mrs. Dennis McMillan and Mrs. Rich Moore. Their gowns were like that of the maid of honor, Miss Kathleen Moore of Mill City was flower girl.

Wayne Bartow served as best man and ushers were Ron, David and Vernon Johnson, brothers of the groom, and John Kline, brother of the bride.

Honored guest at the ceremony was the bride's paternal grandmother, Mrs. Frank Traynor from New Town, N. D. She was attired in a long mint green gown with matching jacket.

For her daughters wedding, Miss Kline chose a long, pink and white gown and the bridegroom's mother wore a long, blue and white gown.

A reception followed in the church parlors. The wedding cake was a gift from Mrs. Frank Duncan of Eugene.

The couple will make their first home in Eugene where Mr. Johnson is an electrician's apprentice.

Gabriel - Elliott United In Marriage At Local Presbyterian Church Saturday

Lisa Kaye Gabriel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ray Gabriel of Gates, became the bride of Michael Jay Elliott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Laddy Ned Elliott of Palmer, Alaska, but formerly of Mill City, at impressive rites in the United Presbyterian Church at 7:00 p.m., Saturday, Aug. 18. Performing the ceremony was Pastor Robert Lathrop of the Canyon Baptist Church in Lyons.

Large baskets of white gladiolus, blue chrysanthemums, and blue daisies decorated the sanctuary of the church, and white ribbon bows with blue flowers marked the pews. The tapers were lighted by Ginger Gabriel, sister of the bride, and Flint LeBard.

Soloist for the occasion was Sam Thurston of Scio, who sang the "Wedding Song" (There Is Love), and "We'll Walk With God," with Michael Elliott playing the guitar accompaniment for the first number, and Edna Ross accompanying the latter on the organ.

The petite blonde bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore the traditional wedding gown of white lace over satin, with a full length veil and train. Her arm bouquet was fashioned of blue and white carnations and daisies.

Honor attendant for the bride was Debbie Quarry, dressed in a pinafore type full length gown of blue crepe, and carrying a bouquet of baby blue flowers centered with a candle.

Bridesmaids, dressed similarly and also carrying baby blue flowers, included Cindi Nelson of Lyons, Patty Elliott of Palmer, Alaska, sister of the bridegroom, and Katie Stone of Gates.

Flower girl was Samra Thurston of Scio, who wore a long blue crepe dress, and the ring-bearer was Tommy Thurston, also of Scio.

Serving as best man for the bridegroom was his brother, Lonny Elliott. The ushers included Rusty Baughman of Scio, Kim Gabriel and Billy Gabriel, brothers of the bride, both of Gates.

Mrs. Willard Gabriel, mother of the bride, wore a long gown of bright coral and white silk with white accessories, with a corsage of white carnations.

The reception following the ceremony was held in the fellowship hall of the church. Cutting the wedding cake was Jeanette Quarry, with Lisa Elliott, sister of the bridegroom, serving.

Presiding at the punch bowl was Barbara Knudsen of Detroit, and pouring coffee was Susie Stewart. In charge of the guest book was Colleen Grant of Gates, and receiving the gifts were Starla Neal and Patty Howell.

Following the reception, the new Mr. and Mrs. Elliott left for a weekend honeymoon in Albany, returning to Gates on Monday. They planned to leave on Tuesday for Alameda, Calif., where the bridegroom is stationed with the U. S. Navy.

For going away, the bride wore a baby blue dress with dark blue flowers, accented by white accessories, and a corsage of white chrysanthemums and blue daisies.

The young couple will be at home at 600 Central Ave., Apt. #41, in Alameda, Calif.
