It Ain't All Roses

(by George Long)

Fourteen residents of the City of Mill City turned out at the hearing of the federal revenue sharing money. There was a lot of discussion on the fourth police officer and a man for the city park. Although every item on the published budget was discussed, I felt that these two items drew the most attention during the hour and a half that the residents kept the council busy explaining the budget.

The residents were told before they left that the council would take under consideration all the pros and cons that were brought up at this meeting on the different ways the citizens would like to see this money spent.

I know it is no easy task being a councilman and there are very few people who will even consider doing this thankless job, but one thing I feel the council should remember, is that they are to represent "all" the people of Mill City, not just one small group or how they themselves want to handle things.

During the discussion the park came under a lengthy discussion and Councilman Howell told the group that if a certain amount of money is not spent there to take care of it, the park would revert back to the state and county because the city had used matching federal funds to purchase it. In other words, when you use any federal funds, there is always strings attached. NUTS TO THEM! Let them keep their money and if we want a park or whatever, it might be, build it ourselves, the way we want it, and to heck with them.

Wolverines Register First Victory

Santiam held Sherman County to only 93 total yards (no yards passing) and scored the only points they needed in the third quarter to capture their first win of the season, 8-0. The game was played at Moro on Friday, Sept. 14.

With 3:10 left in the third quarter, Craig Blackburn smashed into the end zone from two yards out to put Santiam ahead 6-0. David Plotts then passed to Frank Bryant for the two point conversion, giving Santiam an 8-0 lead.

Coach Gibson felt the team gave a great effort. The strong points of the game for Santiam were their kick-offs and punting. However, Gibson singled out Craig Blackburn and Frank Bryant as being keys to the victory. Blackburn had 20 rushes for 74 yards and Bryant had four punts for 145 yards and three pass receptions for 32 yards.

Santiam's next game will be at Mill City on Sept. 21 at 8 p.m. against Knappa. Knappa is a good passing team and should prove to be a good test for Santiam's fine passing defense. Santiam defeated Knappa 14-12 in a quarterfinal game two years ago.

Lions To Start Calendar Sale Drive Soon

The Mill City Lions Club Monday night started making plans for their annual Birthday Calendar sales drive. President Dick Blakely announced that Harry Nelson will be chairman this year, with other members assisting him with this huge task.

As everyone in Mill City knows, that is all but they moving here recently, the birthday calendar sales is the main money-making project for the Lions. These funds are mostly used for sight conservation, which is the main goal for the club. Other funds go towards local projects. It was decided that it will be necessary to raise the price of the calendars to $2.25 instead of $2.00. This is the first raise the club has made since calendars have been sold—nearly 20 years. The price of the calendars has gone up nearly every year since. It was also stated that when salesmen call to take the calendar order, residents should have the $2.25 ready to pay when ordered.

President Blakely stated that the club should take care of local projects prior to contributing to the program outlined by Lions International.

The city has asked the Lions Club for another trash can, to be placed near the Malt Shop on Broadway St. Gale Larson said he would furnish the barrel. The Lions Club will paint and install it as soon as possible.

District Governor Des Howarth of Salem will be a guest at the next meeting. This will be ladies night, according to President Blakely.
