Susan Elizabeth Jenkins of Portland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald George Jenkins of Mill City, became the bride of Roger N. Neustadter of Portland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Neustadter of Eugene, at a simple but impressive ceremony at 2:00, Sunday afternoon, Oct. 7 in the Mill City Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Richard Custer of the Albany Presbyterian Church performed the ceremony before close relatives and a few friends.

Mrs. Lee Ross was the organist for the service, and the sanctuary was decorated with large baskets of white and yellow gladioluses and daisy chrysanthemums.

The lovely brunette bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of candlelight chiffon over taffeta with a smocked bodice, long sleeves, and a full skirt. Her headpiece was fashioned of white baby roses, and her bouquet was made up of white rosebuds and baby-breath.

Serving as best man was Gary Neustadter of Eugene, brother of the bridegroom, Dennis Jenkins of Salem, brother of the bride, ushered the guests to their seats.

Mrs. Donald Jenkins, the bride's mother, wore an attractive beige street-length suit of cashmere with rose print and matching jacket. Her corsage was of pink baby roses.

The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Kurt Neustadter, wore a lovely sleeveless dress of dark brown linen, accented in white, with her pink baby rose corsage.

Following the ceremony, the 4:00 reception at the Colonial House in Salem was attended by a large group of relatives and friends honoring the newly weds. Cutting the tiered wedding cake were two close friends of the bride, Jo Anne Anderson and Jan Henderson, both of Portland, and asked to pour the coffee was Mary Jenkins of Salem, sister-in-law of the bride. Punch was also served, and an attractive buffet was made available for the guests.

The large reception room was decorated with arrangements of yellow and white daisy chrysanthemums and yellow roses, and Cindy Carlson was in charge of the guest-book.

For going away, the bride wore a red cableknit three piece suit with black patent leather accessories. The young couple plan to be at home at 1913 S. W. Canby St. in Portland following a two-weeks' honeymoon trip into Mexico.

Kellys Attend Salem Postmasters Meeting

Mrs. Charles Kelly accompanied her husband to Salem on Wednesday, Oct. 3, when he attended a meeting of postmasters at the Salem Post Office. She paid a visit to an aunt, Mrs. Lafe Hill, who is a resident at the Willamette Lutheran Home near Keizer, and was surprised to find her in the infirmary where she had been for several weeks.

Mrs. Hill's sister, Mrs. Mae Dodge, who had shared a double apartment with her, passed away a few weeks ago, but another sister, Mrs. Cora Van Pelt, still lives at the home in her apartment.

While Mrs. Kelly waited for the bus to return to town, Mrs. Lora Mason, a former local resident who lives at the Lutheran Home now, came along and they enjoyed a brief visit. Mrs. Vivian Hoenig, a former school teacher here, also makes her home there now, but was understood to be away at the time.

Mrs. George Flook Honored On Her Ninetieth Birthday

Mrs. George Flook celebrated her 90th birthday on Oct. 3.

She was born at Scio, Oct. 3, 1883. Seventy years ago, she moved to the Santiam Canyon where she taught school at Minto (above Gates) in a dwelling house for two years and then taught school for two years at Gates.

In 1907, she was married to George Flook, who passed away in 1965. He was a logger and worked in the woods until he was 80 years old.

Mrs. Flook has lived in the same house the past 50 years and in this area for 70 years. She and her daughter, Mrs. Robert Johnson of Eugene, are the only two charter members of the Mill City Christian Church who still retain their membership here.

Mrs. Flook was one of nine children, only three are still living, the oldest, the youngest and the middle one. All three of them were together Sunday for a family celebration.

She had three children, George "Si" Flook, who makes his home with his mother. Mrs. Robert (Gwendolyn) Johnson of Eugene and Jack Flook who passed away two years ago. She has three grandchildren and three great-grandsons.

Mrs. Jack Flook and her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Cal Shinn, Georgie and David from Fairview, Calif. came last Friday and left for their homes Tuesday morning.

Sunday a family dinner honored Mrs. Flook with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson and their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Weinkful and Jeffrey from Eugene coming to join the immediate family for a birthday dinner.

In the afternoon, her sister, Mrs. L. B. Harris from Dallas and her nephew, Mr. and Mrs. John Harris, Brian and Kris from Gaston and her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Sims from Corvallis came and all enjoyed birthday cake.

Mrs. Flook says many changes have been made in the canyon since she has lived here. She didn't think she'd ever live long enough to see so many changes. She is in pretty good health and keeps house for her son and herself and still attends church quite regularly.

The only two people she remembers as being here when she moved to the canyon are Herbert Schroeder and Floyd Shepherd.
