

Mr. and Mrs. Gorton Celebrate Golden Anniversary In Salem

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Cree, Mrs. William McClintock and Sue attended a reception Sunday afternoon in Salem honoring Mrs. Cree's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Gorton, who were celebrating their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorton were married Oct. 10, 1923 at the home of the late Rev. J. J. Evans, minister of the First Christian Church. Attending the service were Mrs. Gorton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dickinson, her sister, Mrs. Cree, and Mr. Gorton's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold White, who were their attendants. Mrs. Gorton's father is now deceased. The others were all present at the reception Sunday.

Mrs. Cree served the punch during the reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorton have lived their entire married life in Salem. Mr. Gorton retired eight years ago from the former Oregon Pulp and Paper Co. They have four children, Mrs. John (Jean) Wehrli of Salem, Mrs. Blaine (Wilma) Hanks of Pendleton, Lloyd Gorton and Dale Gorton, both of Salem, and 12 grandchildren. Mrs. Gorton has one sister and two brothers. All were present at the reception.

A dinner was served following the reception for about fifty members of the family. Over two hundred attended the reception.

Mehama Community Church Scene Of Christensen-Reid Wedding Saturday

MEHAMA — The Mehama Community Church was decorated with baskets of pink gladioli and white button mums with pink candles and greenery for the wedding of Bonnie Dean Christensen and Robert C. Reid on Saturday, Oct. 20. The Rev. Frank Schutswohl, pastor of the Church, officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mrs. K. J. Golliett was organist and the candles were lit by Garth Enghahl and Laurie Hughes, cousins of the bride.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Gerald V. Christensen of Mehama and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George C. Reid of Hull, Mass. Stuart G. Christensen of San Louise Obispo, Calif. escorted his sister who wore a long white gown in Victorian style, trimmed in lace and a short veil. She carried a bouquet of pink baby roses and daisy mums centered with a going away corsage. For something old, she wore her grandmother's pearls.

The brides only attendant was Susan Hays of Wichita, Kans., who wore a floor length gown of deep pink frosty-pucker material with small flowers and carried a single pink rose.

Douglas Teeters of Stayton acted as best man for Mr. Reid and ushers were Chris Engdahl of Healdsburg, Calif., and Michael Walz of Mehama.

A reception followed in the Mehama club hall which was decorated in the bride's colors of pink and lime green. Cutting and serving the cake were Mrs. Gordon McMorris and Carol Walz, both of Salem, and Cynthia Hughes of Astoria, cousin of the bride. Mrs. Susee Engdahl of Healdsburg, Calif., aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Dan Hughes of Astoria were at the coffee urns.

Making and serving the punch were Mrs. Donald Teeters, aunt of the bride, Jane Engdahl, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Edward Walz. Mrs. Bruce Teeters passed the guest book and Mrs. Douglas Teeters and Sheryl Hughes, all cousins of the bride, were in charge of the gifts.

The new Mrs. Reid is a graduate of Stayton Union High School and is now serving with the navy at Lemoore Naval Air Station in Calif. Mr. Reid graduated from Hull High School in Hull, Mass. and received his discharge from the navy in April.

After a short trip, the couple will be making their first home at 18414 Kings Estate, F. 10, Manford Amona Rd. Lemoore, Calif.

Henning-Ruettgers Vows Exchanged In Jordan Saturday

LYONS — Exchanging their marriage vows at Our Lady of Lourdes Church in Jordan Saturday were Miss Christine Marie Henning and Robert Joseph Ruettgers with Father Bernard Neumann officiating at the 3:00 ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis F. Henning of Lyons and the bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Ruettgers of Scio.

The bride's empire style dress was of satin with charmingly lace appliques on the bodice, full sleeves, wedding ring neckline, and chapel train bordered in lace.

Her elbow length veil of illusion was caught to a matching lace camelot cap. She carried a bouquet of yellow and white flowers. For "something old" the bride wore a bracelet given to her great-grandmother by her great-grandfather on their wedding day.

Yellow and white was the color theme for the wedding and the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Anton Rosprokka of Scio, made all the flowers for the bouquets.

Mrs. Dan Humphreys was her sister's only attendant. Charles Ruettgers of Mill City was his brother's best man and ushers were Don and Jim Ruettgers of Stayton, brothers of the bridegroom.

A wedding reception followed at the Mari-Linn grade school cafeteria. The couple will make their home in Stayton. The bride is employed at Investors Mortgage Co. and Mr. Ruettgers at Stayton Canning Co.

Out of town guests attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Alvie Henning from Elgin, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Henning and Susan, Mrs. Frank Henning and Millie Laverenz of Bensenville, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Chris Dalby of Klammath Falls; and Mr. and Mrs. Einar Dalby of Albany.
