

Tea Held for Mayme Reed

The home of Margaret Snow was the setting last Friday afternoon, Oct. 26, for a tea honoring Mayme Reed who is returning to Seattle to make her home after having lived here for the past several years. During the course of the informal afternoon, Mrs. Reed was presented with gifts and cards from the Mill City Woman's Club of which she has been a very active member. Included were a beautiful china plate, hand-painted by Alma Beyer, and a box of appropriate cards to show her change of address and telephone number.

Assisting the hostess in serving refreshments of pumpkin pie, coffee and tea were Mary Youmans and Evelyn Pfeortner, Mrs. Snow's sister-in-law.

Others, besides the guest of honor, enjoying the hospitality of the lovely home were Ellen Lundquist, Lettie Swan, Kate Doble, Nell DeWitt, Mabel Schroeder, Daisy Geddes, Elaine Russell, Jenny Cauble, Lillian Peck, Mae Mowry, Edith Mason, Helen Kimmel, Theresa Saalfeld, Mary Kelly, Alma Beyer and her house guest, Gladys Brown of Portland.

An interesting note was that the beautifully engraved silver tray, recently won by the woman's club in a contest, was used for the first time on the serving table. The Halloween motif was used in the table appointments.

Santiam Ripples

by Glenn Humes

Last week Santiam was filled with life and color because of Spirit Week. With everybody carrying stuffed animals, wearing wild hats, and socks, and dressed up as cowboys and Indians, it was really neat.

The winners of Spirit Week were the freshmen, with the seniors second, sophomores third and the big juniors last.

Wednesday, the homecoming princesses were announced. They were: freshman — Deanna Quarry; sophomore — Renee Brown; junior — Christy Spurgeon; seniors — Katie Stone and Jocelyn Clark.

Friday during activity period, GAA and Pep Club held meetings and talked about the homecoming dance.

Friday evening, during half time of the game, the homecoming queen was announced. Jocelyn Clark was chosen queen. After the game, there was a good turnout at the homecoming dance.

Stain over Old Paint?

Of course Olympic doesn't make a stain for horses. But we do make one that can be used to cover old paint on rough wood.

We call it Olympic Solid Color Stain. And it works beautifully.

It goes on over old paint easily, without streaking. Olympic covers like paint, yet won't crack, peel or blister. And you get a complete range of colors, too.

Try it. We think you'll agree it's a horse of a different color.

Registration and the coffee hour were at 9:30 with the business meeting starting at 10 p.m. with Mrs. W. R. Hendon, district director presiding.

Mrs. O. K. DeWitt of the Mill City Garden Club gave the address of welcome with Mrs. R. H. Vincent of Salem, the response.

Mrs. Clarence Gavette of the Stayton Club gave the invocation.

Roll call of clubs reported about one hundred in attendance.

Reports of the district chairman were given and a clever ecology skit was presented by four ladies which was called "Who, Me?"

A turkey luncheon was served at noon, followed by a fashion show, the courtesy of Lipman's. The program consisted of a group of numbers by the McNary Highlanders, a chorus from McNary High School.

The afternoon session started at 1 p.m. For the program, Mrs. Allen B. Scott of Corvallis gave a talk and showed colored slides of Israel which she took when she and her husband lived there for six months.

The decorations were appropriate for the fall season and done by the Stayton club who also furnished the door prizes, potted mums. Mrs. Martin Hansen of the Mill City Club received one of the plants.

Mrs. Marie Tolbert of Mill City made the name tags which were autumn leaves. The Mill City Club also provided the table favors which were crocus bulbs tied in net bags.

The spring meeting will be held March 27. The place to be announced later. Each one attending is to make and model a clever hat for the hat show.

Attending Wednesday's meeting from Mill City were, Mrs. Arthur Allen, Mrs. John Cauble, Mrs. Kenneth Corning, Mrs. Lowell Cree, Mrs. O. K. DeWitt, Mrs. Laurence Doble, Mrs. Martin Hansen, Mrs. Leonard Rogers, Mrs. Fern Cannon, Mrs. Walter Thomas and Mrs. Louis Verbeck.

Mrs. Rudy Tohl Receives Golf Award

Mrs. Rudy Tohl had a pleasant surprise when she attended the Meadowlawn Golf Awards Luncheon at the Pepper Tree in Salem, Wed., Oct. 24.

Lee Ohmart presented Mrs. Tohl with the Ohmart and Calaba plaque for both low gross and low net for the 1973 season. Not only did she win the plaque, but was also awarded the champion and medalist trophy.

Mrs. Tohl received the Ohmart and Calaba low gross plaque during the 1972 season.

Presbyterian Church Speakers Listed

The Rev. Ed Patterson of Santiam Lodge spoke at the Presbyterian Church last Sunday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Patterson and their two younger sons.

Announced to fill the pulpit next Sunday, Nov. 4, was the Rev. John Nevin of King City at Tigard, a retired minister who recently accompanied a group of Presbyterians to the war zone in Israel.

On Nov. 11, the Rev. Richard Custer, assistant pastor at the First Presbyterian Church in Albany, who is the new moderator for this church, will again be the speaker.

A highlight to look forward to will be the visit of the Rev. and Mrs. Richard Cole, who formerly served the pulpit here but have lived in the State of Washington for the past several years, on Sunday, Nov. 18, when he will speak. A dinner is being planned in their honor by the stewardship committee headed by Virginia Fisher, with the preparation and serving by the women of the church. Plans are also afoot to observe the 80th anniversary of the establishment of the church at that time.
