NOTE: The Pharmacy part of the store will be closed for filling prescriptions from 4:30 p.m. this Saturday, November 3. The store will remain open for other business until 6:00 p.m. as usual. This is to allow me to attend a class reunion in Corvallis. Thank you.

*Vitamin C soon may be added to cured meats — bacon, frankfurters, bologna, ham — in an attempt to block the potential carcinogenic danger from nitrates used in the curing process. Co-operative trials are under way by the meat industry, FDA, and the department of agriculture.

*The aging process may be slowed by controlled metal ion concentrations in human tissue, says Dr. Gunther Eichhorn, Nat'l. Inst. of Health's Gerontology Research Center, Baltimore.

Spending last week here with her father, James Swan, was Mrs. Orville Oderman (Donola Swan) of Gold Beach, Ore., who was on a three-weeks' vacation from a bank in that locality.

Otto Witt recently returned after having made a visit to the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Bassett and family in Longview, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bassett visited in Sweet Home Sunday at the home of long time friends, Mr. and Mrs. Wib Johnston. They also visited with their former Mill City neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Dwaine Norrie, who now live next door to the Johnstons.

Mr. and Mrs. Bern Mueller were in Seattle over the weekend where they attended the spring showing of the Bernat line of yarns. Their daughter, Mrs. Shari Hansen, and grandchildren of Coupeville, Wash. spent Sunday with them.

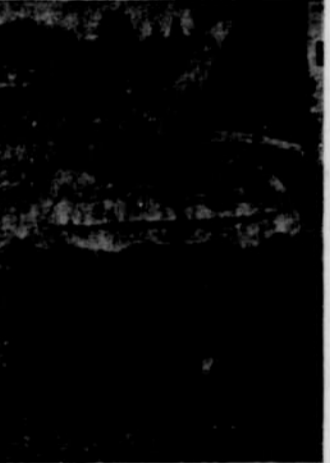

Mr. and Mrs. Shields Reimne returned recently from a week's flying trip to Mexico City where they renewed the acquaintance of a couple they had met in Tahiti on a previous trip and had entertained in their home here. They spent several days visiting them at their home in Cuernavaca, which is about an hour's trip from Mexico City.

Visitors from Saturday until Wednesday at the Ada Meeker home were her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Staley of Pacifica, Calif. Arriving on Sunday were her grandson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jensen, Richard and Jeffrey of Detroit, Mich., and granddaughter Lynn Jeffries of Yerington, Nev. They came to attend the funeral services of their father and grandfather, M. Henry Meeker, last Tuesday, Oct. 23.

Mrs. William Beyer will be showing hand painted jewelry at the Holiday Gift Gallery at Tony's Cafe in Silverton, Friday, Nov. 2.

The Charles Kellys have received cards from Postmaster and Mrs. Ed Spencer of Salem and Postmaster and Mrs. Bill Fair of Stayton who are spending two weeks on a tour of Portugal, the Canary Islands, and Spain, having flown directly to Copenhagen, Denmark. They rented a car for two days and visited old castles and small villages, finding the people very friendly, but few speak English. The sea food and good weather were enjoyed, though. The visitors thought the drivers drove around at an unusually fast speed.

Large Jack-o-Lantern

Ghosts and Goblins will appear tonight in droves. Lewis Setzer has a large greeting for the young ones when they appear at his house. Lewis found a large hollow log at work and brought it home and cut a face in it for his sons Eddie and Grady. They live on S. W. High St.

Oral Hygiene Project Starting

The Oregon State Health Division (OSHD) dental health section is assisting in the initiation of an oral hygiene program for the Mill City schools. The objective of this program is to teach the students techniques to remove the decay-causing substance called "plaque" from their teeth and thus improve the oral health of the students.

The initial phase will include grades 4, 5 and 6 of Mill City Elementary School. On Oct. 31 these classes will be given instruction on proper brushing and the use of dental floss. The teacher-supervised brushing and flossing program will continue for five weeks, after which its effectiveness will be evaluated.

Assisting with the instruction is Mrs. Kay Blundell of the OSHD dental health section, Mrs. Marion Schaeffer, Linn County public health nurse, and Dr. Dave Thompson, Mill City dentist and his staff.

Football Players Honored at Banquet By Canyon Baptist Church in Lyons

A football banquet for the varsity teams of the Santiam Wolverines, the Stayton Eagles and the Salem Academy Crusaders, was held at the Canyon Baptist Church in Lyons Thursday, Oct. 25.

The Wolverines from Santiam High School were represented by Tyce Pedersen, Doug Gruver, Bob Bennett, Jerry Shepherd, David Plotts, Ted Moreland, Mike Morgan, Brian Jones, Bruce Hildebrandt, Russ Richter and Ronald Richter. There were 23 members of the Salem Academy Crusaders present with their coach Mr. Holman. Fifteen were present from the Stayton High School Eagles with their coaches, Mr. Kelly and Mr. Bullock.

Youth pastor, Hoy Deeter, was master of ceremonies introducing the new pastor, Don Prociw, and main speaker, Chuck Austin from Bend, who gave the message "Team Up With Christ." The invocation was given by Coach Bullock of Stayton High.

The program began with special music by Salem Academy, followed by a skit, "What Football Means To Me," done by Marilyn Limbeck and Susan Neal. A trumpet solo was next, performed by Evan Fadel of Salem Academy with Mike Schelske accompanying on the piano. Ron Langhoefer of Western Baptist College then sang a solo number.

Testimonies of "What living for Christ means to me" were given by several students of Salem Academy, Mark Smith and Lyle Basey of Lyons and Tyce Pedersen, student body president of Santiam.

The ham dinner was prepared by the ladies from the church and served by Vicki Brown, Julie Neal, Robin Loomis, Debbie Pedersen, Deanna Quarry and Kim Crook all girls of the Church Youth Group.

The tables were decorated with color streamers of the individual schools with football placemats made by the youth group and goal posts were at the end of the tables of each team with their respective emblem.

Attending the all-day event from Mill City were Margaret Snow, president of the club; Mary Youmans, Helen Kimmel, Edith Mason, Theresa Saalfeld, Kate Doble, Jenny Cauble, Nell DeWitt, Ellen Lundquist and Lettie Swan. Mrs. DeWitt won a "collector's item" plate.

As Toni Thomas was not able to attend, her report as chairman on conservation for the county federation was read by Mary Youmans, secretary of the club here. Other chairman gave the usual five-minute reports.

Mill City-Gates American Legion Auxiliary will hold their next meeting Nov. 9, 8:00 p.m. at the Gates Community Center. Mrs. James DREW from Salem, who is president of District Two, will be honored. This will be a potluck, no-host dinner.

Gates Elementary School will be closed all day, Wednesday, Nov. 7 for Parent-Teacher Conferences.

Ray and Joyce Presler attended a progressive dinner on October 27 in Stayton. The Welcome Wagon Well Wishes put on the dinner. Mrs. Presler is vice-president of the group of which 11 couples attended.

Verbeck Home Scene of Coffee

Mrs. Louis Verbeck entertained at her home on Tuesday morning, Oct. 30, with an informal coffee honoring her houseguest, Mrs. Agnes Kellom of Stayton, but a former longtime resident of Mill City where she and her late husband operated a grocery store for many years.

Friends and former neighbors invited to drop in for a visit with the honored guest included Mrs. Zelma Ball, Mrs. Else Allen and Mrs. Charles Kelly. Mrs. Martin Hansen had visited with Mrs. Verbeck's guest on Monday, the day of her arrival, having been driven to Mill City by Mrs. Richard Verbeck of Tangent.

Another visitor on Monday was Mrs. Leroy Podrabsky who graduated from the local high school in the same class with Mrs. Richard Verbeck a number of years ago.

Mrs. Kellom, who will be 90 years old next Jan. 9, expected to return to her apartment on Wednesday. She was an active member of the Catholic Church while living here, and has many friends in this locality.

Santiam Canyon

Study Group

Meeting November 8

GATES — "That All Broke Feeling and What To Do About It" will be the topic when members of the Santiam Canyon Home Extension Study Group meet Thursday, Nov. 8, at the Gates Community Clubhouse. Project leaders will be Mrs. Glenda Roten and Mrs. Ann Hovey.

Families express the feeling that they are earning enough but just aren't getting ahead financially and that money really isn't buying the things that are important to the family.

This lesson helps families look at two questions: (1) Where do families go wrong in managing money or what are some common mistakes made by families?; (2) How can families solve their financial problems?

Hostesses for the 10 a.m. meeting will be Mrs. Elsie Martin and Mrs. Myrtle Donahue.

A special guest will be Mrs. June Mennis, county committee woman who will help the group plan a spring tour.

Linda Hampton Honored at Party

GATES — On Saturday evening, Oct. 27, a party was given in honor of the engagement of Miss Linda Elizabeth Hampton to David Moreland, formerly of California. The proud parents Louis and Betty Hampton, Jr. hosted the gathering. The house was decorated in fall colors with the engagement cake decorated with roses and doves, taking a special place. The cake was made for Miss Hampton by her aunt, Mrs. Herbert Hampton from Gates.

Attending the engagement party were: Don Hiebert from Idanha; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hampton, Stevie, Orin and Timmy from Gates; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hampton, Sandra, Angela and Michael from Albany; Miss Iris Hampton from Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hiebert from Idanha; Mr. and Mrs. Steve Savage, Davie and Gregory from Lyons; Miss Colleen Grant from Salem; Mrs. George Grant from Gates; E. Moreland from Gates; Mrs. Shirley Sharp and Kenny from Gates; Dick Jennings from Lyons; Donna Hook from Gates; Harvey S. Cannon from Salem; Mrs. Terry Lockram, Kim and Misty; Miss Tina Hampton and Miss Louisa Hampton.

A date for the wedding has not been set.

Controlled Fires

Reported on Highway

IDANHA — An alert motorist called the Idanha Rural Fire Protection District about 5:36 p.m. Monday to report a fire along the North Santiam Highway near mile post 72 above Marion Forks. He was quite worried, saying it looked like it had been set in several places. He remarked, the country is too beautiful to be marred by fire.

The rural fire district checked with District Ranger Lee Boeckstiegel and learned that it was a controlled burn. A number of debris piles had been touched off in the afternoon by the U. S. Forest Service in a roadside clean-up project, following a previous salvage timber sale in the area.

Mill City Club Represented at County Meeting

Ten local ladies represented the Mill City Woman's Club at the fall meeting of the Marion County Federation of Woman's Clubs held on Tuesday, Oct. 30, in the library of the Detroit High School with the Detroit Civic Club as hostesses.

Luncheon for the visitors from throughout Marion County was prepared and served at the Detroit City Hall by members of the American Legion Aux., with the Halloween motif being used in the decorations. The speaker was Lee Boeckstiegel from the Detroit Ranger Station who spoke on forestry.

As Toni Thomas was not able to attend, her report as chairman on conservation for the county federation was read by Mary Youmans, secretary of the club here. Other chairman gave the usual five-minute reports.

Attending the all-day event from Mill City were Margaret Snow, president of the club; Mary Youmans, Helen Kimmel, Edith Mason, Theresa Saalfeld, Kate Doble, Jenny Cauble, Nell DeWitt, Ellen Lundquist and Lettie Swan. Mrs. DeWitt won a "collector's item" plate.
