Rebekah Lodge Has Busy Schedule Ahead

Santiam Rebekah Lodge #166 met in regular meeting Nov. 7 with noble grand, Mrs. Dave Barnhardt presiding.

The charter was draped in memory of Rosa Roten, a long time member who passed away Oct. 30 at Salem. A donation in her memory was sent to the Endowment Fund of the IOOF Home.

Claud Lewin, Irl Plymale and Otto Koeneke were appointed to the membership committee for Eldon Hutchenson.

Degree captain, Mrs. Alex Bodeker has set Dec. 5 as degree day for members elect, Thomas Dougherty and Eldon Hutchenson.

Due to a light turn out, a new date has been set for the United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth Committee meeting. The new date is Nov. 25 at 2:00 p.m. at the IOOF Temple in Salem. All interested Odd-fellows and Rebekahs are invited to attend. The business is the election of officers, any member in good standing being eligible, and the discussion of the U. N. Pilgrimage program for 1974.

The secretary was instructed to send out formal invitations to all branches of the order to attend the IOOF-Rebekah Christmas potluck and gift exchange set for December 22 at 6:00 p.m. Men to bring a gift suitable for a man between the value of $1 and $1.50 and ladies for ladies, and young people accordingly.

Mrs. Otto Weidman reported on the plans for the Mill City Firemen's family dinner for Nov. 18.

Mrs. Arnold Syverson, secretary of the Three Links Club announced Three Links for Nov. 8 at the IOOF Hall. Following the business meeting, the members will serve potluck refreshments to the members of the IOOF lodge.

There will be a goodie grab bag for the education loan fund at the Nov. 21 meeting. The usual donation was ordered for the Christmas Seal Assn.

The trustees completed the inventory of the properties and the insurance coverage was increased accordingly.

Under good of the order, Mrs. Barnhardt read a clipping from the Del Norte newspaper. She also stipulated that for the meeting of Dec. 5 the members are to bring gift items for the IOOF Home and things which can be used for bingo prizes at the home.

Mrs. Albert Carr read a poem "Count Your Blessings."

Mrs. Lang Stafford gave a reading in honor of Veteran's Day from the Six Ships of Life. Mrs. Walter Thomas told about her visit with the Ed Chances at Santa Barbara while on a trip to California to visit family and friends.

Following the business meeting, a goodie walk was held for the education loan fund. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Charles Dolezal and Mrs. Everett Hamilton.

Chairman for the Sunday event is Lee Ross, with Virginia Fisher in charge of arrangements for the dinner. Assisting by setting up the tables Saturday afternoon and serving Sunday will be the Presbyterian Women's Assn. of which Hazel Hayes is president. The committee will furnish fried chicken, rolls, butter and coffee while members and friends attending are asked to bring salads and desserts.

As the first organizational meetings for the church were started in 1893, a short history of the initial events may be given, preparatory to observance of the 80th anniversary of receiving the charter next year. There has been some confusion, as the records held by the Synod are not exactly the same as those recorded locally. According to the best information available, the local Presbyterian Church was chartered Oct. 20, 1894.

Coles to be Honored At Fellowship Dinner

A fellowship dinner at one o'clock Sunday afternoon, Nov. 18, will honor the Rev. and Mrs. Richard Cole (Dick and Liz) of Spokane, Wash., who formerly had the pastorate here, following his appearance in the pulpit during the morning worship hour. The Coles have served in Bellingham, Wash., the past few years, but are now at Whitworth College.

Mrs. Charles Wolverton of Vancouver, B. C., but formerly a resident here when her husband was publisher of the Enterprise about 20 years ago, visited a few old-time friends in this vicinity last Friday, calling at the Frank Blazek and John Swan homes especially. As her husband was ill with bronchitis in a Salem motel, he could not accompany her.

The Wolvertons recently retired from his newspaper work and her social work and are on a trip which will take them into Mexico, then across the southern part of the United States to the East, north to Montreal, back to Hillsboro, Indiana, to visit Mrs. Wolverton's mother who is 94 years of age, and finally to Europe. They are driving a small foreign car, with two bicycles strapped on the back, as they enjoy that form of recreation.

Elsbeth, as she is remembered here, mentioned that the five children are scattered across the country. The eldest daughter, Patricia, is married and has three children, living in Seattle; the elder son, Lincoln, is also married and has a position with Boeing in Seattle; the middle daughter, Mary Jo and family of four children, including twin boys, lives in Palo Alto, Calif., and will be visited by her folks on the first leg of their trip; Jeffrey, the younger son, is back east; and Jane Eleanor, the youngest in the group, will look after their apartment in Vancouver, B. C. during her parents' absence.

It is interesting to note that the Wolvertons were the first to rent space at the Blazek's when the Enterprise was moved to that locality. Later, Don Peterson took over, followed by Don Moffatt, before the publication was transferred to its present quarters.

Mrs. Cree Attends Luncheon in Tigard

Mrs. Lowell Cree accompanied Mrs. Betty Norfleet of Stayton to Tigard Saturday, where they attended the luncheon of the Worthy Matrons of 1971-72 at the Hi Hat Restaurant. About forty were present.

Mrs. Virginia Wilkinson from Heppner came the farthest distance.

For the program, the "Whip-o-wills" sang a number of Hawaiian selections and Mrs. Wilkinson told of her recent trip to Hawaii and Alaska.

Mrs. Velma DeWeese, president of the group, presided at the business meeting. The group has been meeting once a month the past six years. After much discussion, they voted to join with the worthy patrons of the year and meet possibly three or four times a year as everyone is so busy. A Christmas party, picnic and one or two luncheons.

The next meeting will be of the combined group and will be held December 1 in Eugene for a dinner and Christmas party. The following meeting will be on March 9 at the Safari Club at Estacada. This will be a dinner and will precede the reception for Mrs. Shirley Babcock, grand Ruth, a member of the group. The April meeting will be in Salem and then the following meetings will be definitely decided.

Shrine Club Meets

Last Tuesday, Nov. 6, the Santiam Shrine Club entertained their ladies at a dinner and social evening at the Frontier Inn East of Mill City.

Leonard Myers of Sublimity is president of the Shrine Club this year. He announced that the profit from the Shrine Football Game played at Baker this year was $25,000 and this money will be given to the Shrine Hospital in Portland for crippled children. This is the largest amount of money ever turned over to the hospital from any one football game.

About 40 attended the dinner Tuesday evening.

The next regular meeting of the Shrine Club will be held on Tuesday evening, Dec. 4, at the home of Stanley Chance in Mill City at 8:00 p.m.
