Rebekah Lodge Initiates New Members Into Club

Santiam Rebekah Lodge #166 welcomed two new members by initiation Dec. 5. Mrs. Dave Barnhardt, noble grand, presided over the evening session. Mrs. Alta Bodeker, degree captain, conducted the floor word. The Rebekah degree was conferred upon Thomas A. Dougherty and Elton N. Hutchinson.
A report on the recent United Nation's Pilgrimage for Youth committee meeting was read. It was planned to continue the program, as formerly, as close as possible in face of the transportation problems. The program for the new contest will soon be in the hands of the youth committees of the various lodges to be submitted to the high schools. Mrs. Eldon Hutchinson was appointed chairman of the UN committee for Santiam Rebekah Lodge #166. The annual contribution to the UN pilgrimage program has been increased, due to added costs.
Mrs. Barnhardt was elected vice-grand for the 1974 term. Installation of officers will be in January.
Mrs. Barnhardt reminded all members who have birthdays between Sept. 1 and Dec. 31, that their birthdays are being honored at the Dec. 19 meeting.
The Mill City IOOF Lodge #144 was given a standing ovation for the new lights which were installed this week.
Mrs. Margaret Snow, president of the Three Links Club announced the regular meeting will be Dec. 13 at the IOOF Hall and refreshments will be served the members and guests of the IOOF Lodge.
Mrs. Barnhardt reported on the lunch concession at Scio on Dec. 1 and thanked those who contributed both time and materials to the project.
A goodly supply of items for bingo prizes and gifts for the residents at the IOOF Home in Portland were contributed and will be delivered to the home next week.
Irl Plymale will fill his traditional roll as Santa Clause at the IOOF-Rebekah Christmas party on Dec. 22. Melody Barnhardt will show slides of her European tour this past summer.
Following the meeting, refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Anderson.
On Dec. 1, the members of the Santiam Rebekah Lodge #166 presided at the luncheon concession of the benefit auction at the Scio Grade School gym.
The auctioneer was John Hull, who donated his services to the United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth benefit auction held by Santiam Rebekah Lodge #166 here on July 22.
Those who went to Scio to work in the concessions were: Mrs. Glenn Anderson, Mrs. Dave Barnhardt, Mrs. Albert Carr, Mrs. Jim Hoover, Mrs. Irl Plymale, Mrs. Otto Weidman and Mrs. Luther Yates.
